Message From The Patron

For almost three decades, the Hong Kong Junior Chamber has been organising the Outstanding Young Persons Selection to recognize young leaders who excel in their professions and in serving the community.

Human capital is Hong Kong's greatest asset. We must continue to do all we can to bring out the best in our young people: their energy, imagination, intelligence, dynamism and commitment to serve. These are the qualities that Hong Kong needs to meet the challenges facing us and to take Hong Kong into the next millennium.

I offer my warmest congratulations to all the 1998 Awardees. I am sure that their success will be an example for all our young people and will inspire many others to follow in their footsteps.

The Hon. Mrs. Anson Chan, JP
Chief Secretary for Administration

Message From Guest of Honour

Hong Kong has come a long way in the last one and a half century, in transforming from a small and sparsely populated fishing port to an internationally acclaimed metropolis providing excellent financial and commercial services in the Asia-Pacific region. Much of this remarkable success is of course attributed to the vigor, diligence and fortitude of the Hong Kong people.

The Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection provides fitting recognition to the young people who have excelled in various areas and made exemplary contributions to the development of Hong Kong. The success story of each of these young people is unique in that they are outstanding in their own ways, but what is common in them is their commitments to the society, their courage and perseverance and their love of life. These outstanding awardees serve as excellent role models for our young people. They represent our success and our future.

I would like to commend the Hong Kong Junior Chamber for doing an excellent job in organising this meaningful event over the past 28 years. I would also like to congratulate this year's awardees and wish them every success in their future pursuits.

The Hon. Ms. Elsie Leung, JP
Secretary for Justice

Message From President Junior Chamber International

It gives me great pleasure to send greetings to the entire members attending the TOYP Selection Award Presentation of Hong Kong Junior Chamber.

On behalf of the 1998 Board of Directors and the Staff at the Coral Gables Headquarters of JCI, I encourage you to make all efforts to share the spirit and experiences of your peers with your members. Hundreds of thousands of Junior Chamber members throughout our globe each represent a resource for your organization and community.

One of my key endeavors during my mandate is to promote global understanding among our members. By learning about each other's ways of thinking, beliefs, history, cultural heritage and motivations, it is my hope that we can become more accepting of each other and together, prepare ourselves for the new millennium.

There is a wonderful richness in being different, and the more we learn to appreciate this important fact, the more we can begin to understand each other. The most common reason for misunderstandings is the lack of awareness of the thinking and values we each possess.

Let us make a difference by starting with ourselves, and then gradually reaching out to fellow Junior Chamber members we come in contact with. Beginning small can do wonders - never underestimate the strength of a small group that is committed and enthusiastic, because together much can be achieved.

I urge each member to help make the world a better place - starting today! Wishing one and all a memorable year! I look forward to meeting as many of you as possible during the World Congress to be held in the Philippines!

Together - Bringing Worlds Together.

As the Vice President assigned to Area B, it is my privilege and honor to address the members of Hong Kong Junior Chamber and all those participating on the TOYP Selection Award Presentation.

I would like to thank all of you for your outstanding leadership and support of our wonderful organization. Such devotion and dedication make us all proud to be a part of the Junior Chamber Movement. My goals this year are to grow not only within our established countries, but to expand our organization into new areas, countries not yet influenced by Junior Chamber.

While following the goals of President Petri Niskanen and Bringing Worlds Together, 1998 will be a good time to reflect on your dedication and leadership. It is an excellent time for all of us to look forward to the 21st Century and rebuild even strong foundations. I know by your hard work over the past years that you will continue to support the organization wholeheartedly.

I sincerely hope that Hong Kong Junior Chamber will continue to lead their members to even greater heights and take advantage of the Five Areas of Opportunity that are opening up all over the world. I am confident that your energy and enthusiasm will be a part of our fast-changing world. As the world is changing constantly, Junior Chamber must make every effort to be a leader with new ideas and projects. Message From National President Hong Kong Junior Chamber

It is my great pleasure to congratulate all the awardees of the 1998 Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection.

Hong Kong Junior Chamber has started the TOYP selection in 1970 with the objective to encourage more young people to make contribution for the betterment of our community. This echoes the mission of our organisation of "to contribute to the advancement of the global community by providing the opportunity for young people to develop their leadership skills, social responsibility, entrepreneurship and fellowship necessary to create positive change".

Being an international leadership development organisation, Hong Kong Junior Chamber organizes over 100 community projects each year to provide training opportunities for our members and to strive for the betterment of our community. The annual TOYP Selection is one of our prominent projects that are well received by the community.

Through the previous years' selections, the Hong Kong Junior Chamber has awarded over 200 outstanding young persons. These past awardees have continued their remarkable contribution to their profession and to our community. They are the role models for the younger generation. This makes our annual TOYP selection more meaningful and well received by the community in general.

Taking this opportunity, I wish to thank the Selection Consultant PricewaterhouseCoopers and the Panel of Judges for their hard work in maintaining fairness and the very high standard throughout the selection process. We have to thank our sole sponsor The Chase Manhattan Bank for their generous sponsorship that makes this selection possible.

My sincerest thanks also go to our Patron The Hon. Mrs. Anson Chan, JP and our Guest of Honour The Hon. Elsie Leung, JP for their support to our organisation.

Congratulations once again to all awardees!

Spencer Suen
National President

Message From the Chief Judge

It gives me great pleasure to be associated with the Hong Kong Junior Chamber's annual selection of Outstanding Young Person.

I would like to extend my heartiest congratulations to the winners on the remarkable achievements that they have been able to accomplish over the past year. I would also like to congratulate the Chamber and their continued dedication to the growth and development of our young people in Hong Kong.

It is not always easy to choose the "best" from among a pool of increasingly talented young people and I would like to commend the winners especially on their attitudes of care , responsibility and service to the community. This is a lesson we would all do well to learn.

So, once more, let me thank and congratulate the organisers of this event. Without your dedication, encouragement and joy, the young persons who participate would have less opportunity to demonstrate, and be recognised, for their abilities and talents.

Message From Sole Sponsor The Chase Manhattan Bank

The Chase Manhattan Bank is proud and honored to have been the sole sponsor of the Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection for the past two years.

Over the decades, Hong Kong has transformed itself from a small unknown island, deprived of natural resources, into a renowned international metropolitan city. Hong Kong's road to success has not been smooth. Hong Kong people have been confronted with many challenges. I am sure many of us have heard of or even experienced the 1967 civil unrest and the political and economic crises in early 1980's. Each time, not only did we conquer these difficulties, we created opportunity out of adversity.

Looking back, the journey to prosperity seems smooth. Yet, now we are facing another critical situation, many of us are apprehensive. Although I do not have the answer to our current situation, I urge all of us to draw insight from our past experience, and to face the challenges ahead with confidence.

Our people have always been a critical success factor for Hong Kong. Our "can do" spirit, through good times and bad, has seen every member of the community giving of their best, whatever they do. Among us today, a group of people have excelled above all others in leading Hong Kong to overcome numerous obstacles. They are the Ten Outstanding Young Persons awardees.

Undoubtedly, Hong Kong is now facing difficult times ahead. Yet, based on our past success and perseverance, and also drawing on the leadership and courage of leaders like the past and current Outstanding Young Persons awardees, I believe Hong Kong is well equipped to tackle the challenge and rise to new heights.

I am confident that the 1998 "Ten Outstanding Young Persons" awardees will play a key role in Hong Kong's turnaround. The awards recognize the admirable qualities of the six awardees: their commitment in serving Hong Kong and accomplishments in their respective position. I hope this recognition will further encourage these young leaders to continue their contribution to our society.

We are now approaching the 21st century. Before entering into the new millennium, the past and present Ten Outstanding Persons Awardees will be writing another important page in Hong Kong's history.

I salute this year's awardees. I sincerely hope that they will continue to work towards the betterment of Hong Kong in the years to come.

Last but not least, I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to this year's panel of judges. Their impartiality and efforts have helped us to select six awardees most worthy of our recognition.

Message From Hon. Life President Hong Kong Junior Chamber

Each year in Hong Kong and elsewhere it is the practice of the Junior Chambers to select outstanding young persons for public recognition in their respective communities.

Their success is singled out for acclaim by the community at large but more so as examples for others to follow. By overcoming social and economic disadvantages or even physical disabilities, if any, and by dint of high motivation and strong self-discipline, they attain exceptional standards of personal achievements and render community service beyond the norm, and so become worthy models to inspire others to excel too.

I offer my congratulations and best wishes to all those who have been so carefully selected as the Ten Outstanding Young Persons of Hong Kong in 1998.

CHAN WAI KWONG, VICTOR

陳 偉 光

Victor Chan received his PhD degree from the University of York (UK) where he studied from 1985 to 1988, under the British Council Scholarship and the British Commonwealth Scholarship. Over the years, Chan is celebrated as an active composer, conductor and contemporary music promoter. Apart from frequent local performances such as in the Hong Kong Arts Festival and the Musicarama International New Music Festival, Chan's works have been presented in many parts of the world and have represented Hong Kong on numerous international occasions including the Asian Composers' League Festivals, the UNESCO International Rostrum of Composers Conference (Paris), the International Composers Festival (the Netherlands), the York Festival and Mystery Plays (UK), the Pacific Music Festival (Sapporo), and the Stella Nova Tokyo Music Festival etc.

Chan is a prolific composer and has produced over 80 works to date. His compositions range from opera, orchestral works, to numerous chamber works, choral pieces and songs, many of which are published and released on CD. Important works by him in recent years include Symphonic Psalms in Three Parts (choral symphony for soloists, mass choir, and orchestra), Songs of Ariel (opera in three acts), and Songs from "Shi-jing" (song cycle for vocal ensemble). Most recently he concentrated himself in writing orchestral music and conducting their performances. In the last eighteen months, he produced five works for the Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra alone. Following the premiere of Symphonic Prelude for Orchestra with Piano in January 1997, A Glimpse of Blue was taken on the Orchestra's "1997 Beijing and Shanghai Tour" in May. The more substantial 1997 Symphonic Fantasia "Hui" represented a major work to mark the historic reunification of Hong Kong with China, while Fanfare for Orchestra was specially written for the "1997 WBG/IMF Annual Meetings", the first major international event held in the newly established HKSAR. His latest work From Within (in three movements) was premiered in July 1998 with great success.

Dr. Chan frequently appears as conductor in various concerts and has directed the premieres of many contemporary works. He was the conductor and artistic advisor of the "1992 Hong Kong Choral Festival". In recent years, he has conducted the performances of over 20 performing groups, orchestras, and choirs, both locally and overseas. He was the producer of several contemporary music series on the radio, including the weekly programme on "Hong Kong Composers" at RTHK-4 from 1993-96. Since 1993, he has been serving as vice-chairman of the Hong Kong Composers' Guild.

Dr. Chan's current research interest is mainly in the area of contemporary vocal music and the relationship between words and music. He has been teaching at the Chinese University of Hong Kong since 1989, and was appointed Composer-in Residence at the Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra in 1997.

Mr Cheung Hok-yau's career started from winning the prize in the "18 Hong Kong Districts Amateur Singing Contest" in 1984. Then, he took less than 10 years to achieve his title "King of Canto-Pop" conquering billions of fans globally. From his first album in 1985 to the latest, he has released more than 40 albums with a total world-wide sale more than dozens of millions which ranks him a Mega Star in the world of music. He is the only Chinese performer with a total record of performing more than 250 personal concerts world-wide so far. The 49 performances of the original musical "Snow Wolf Lake" in Hong Kong and Singapore in 1997 was definitely a milestone in his singing career, and it also set a trend in large scale original musical in Hong Kong.

He has been honoured with nearly 200 awards of diverse nature regionally and internationally. In 1994, he gained "The Most Popular Singer in Asia" in USA Billboard Music Awards. In 1995 and 1996, he also gained the extreme honour of "The World's Best-selling Chinese Recording-Artist" in the World Music Awards in Monte Carlo. The success of Hong Kong recording industry in international market owes a lot of gratitude to Hok-yau's efforts and popularity.

He also devoted his time and efforts to various community services promoting many charities. He rendered his support for a number of charity drives for people in need in Hong Kong, China, Singapore and other places in the world. He participated in visiting Gui Zhou's people who were living in extreme poverty. He also joined hands in charity performance to help earthquake victims in Hebei.

He has a strong social conscience to promote civic education especially for young people. He always participated in programmes for the betterment of younger generation. For instance, he joined hands with Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra to give concerts under the "Young Audiences Scheme" for young music lover and raised training fund to enhance the sports for young generation.

His outstanding performance world-wide and valuable contribution to our society is a shiny example for the youngsters.

This publication is well received not only in Hong Kong, but also amongst the Chinese communities of Malaysia, Singapore & Australia.

Ms. Pong's devotion & her expertise are beyond governmental institutions to serve the community. She is an Executive Board Member of the International Drug Abuse Treatment Foundation which is currently studying the efficacy of Traditional Chinese Medicine to treat drug abuse.

She is currently the Associate Director of Pegasus Fund Managers Ltd.

龐愛蘭是一位資深的註冊葯劑師，她自加拿大學成及受訓完畢後即睿志回港服務，後連任五屆『香港執業藥劑師協會』會長，足見她對藥劑界建樹良多。

The Outstanding Young Persons' Association Introduction

The Outstanding Young Persons' Association, TOYPA in short, was formed in 1977. The Association is made up of awardees of the Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection. Membership of TOYPA exceeds one hundred and forty persons.

The Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection, introduced to Hong Kong in 1970, is an annual major project of the Hong Kong Junior Chamber. Each year the award is open to nominations by the public. After the process of carefully vetting candidates' data by an appointed auditor firm, the candidates are presented to a Judging Panel consisting of recognized leaders in government, business, industries, various professions and education. Merits are given to the candidates' achievements in their respective fields as well as their contributions of personal time and efforts in service for the community.

The Outstanding Young Persons' Award not only gives proper recognition to the achievements of the recipients, but also carries with it certain responsibilities. All of those selected as Outstanding Young Persons are expected to make further contributions to the community of Hong Kong and to serve as inspirational examples to other young people. It was with this spirit that recipients of the Award work as a united group to serve the community.

The aims of TOYPA are:-

1. To sponsor and organise projects for the well-being of people in Hong Kong.
2. To submit recommendations/proposals to the Government or relevant authorities on matters pertaining to the welfare of Hong Kong.
3. To assist in the annual selection of the Ten Outstanding Young Persons.

TOYPA membership covers diverse industries and professions and includes a number of members serving on the Executive Council, Legislative Council, Urban Council, Regional Council, District Boards, Drafting Committee for Law of Hong Kong SAR, Preparatory Committee, and National People's Congress of the PRC.

Since inception, TOYPA has organised and sponsored numerous projects for community service. All financial resources for service projects were originated from funds raised. TOYPA's principle in service projects is the involvement of members' participation. In all projects organised, co-organised or sponsored by TOYPA, members took an active role in the organizing work.
