NAME OF THE PROJECT OR ACTIVITY: Harbour Lights and Info X'press

DESCRIPTION OF PROJECT OR ACTIVITY:

Individual Member : To participate in relevant information research, interviews, planning, circulation, compilation on each issue including write-ups, editing of submitted articles and layout designs.

LOM : To encourage individual members to contribute information, articles, photos and effort for the production of a high quality Harbour Lights and Info X'press.

NOM :
1. Other than the concerned NOM officers, other officers had contributed articles and solicited advertisements.
2. Organized a Slogan Competition for Chinese version of 2003 HKJC Presidential Theme - "Enjoy JC, Enjoy Life". NOM officers were judges of the Competition.

PUBLICATION AWARD

JCI Outsider	: Regular information and photos on JCI activities were included in our official publications. : Kind support rendered by commercial sectors, businessmen, non-profit making organizations and sponsors for our publication. About 4,000 copies of every issue of Harbour Lights were mailed to over 500 external organizations

NAME OF NATIONAL ORGANIZATION: Hong Kong Junior Chamber

PLAN OF ACTION SUMMARIZED:

OBJECTIVES	ACTIONS TAKEN	RESULTS ACHIEVED
1. To effectively communicate JCI/NOM/LOMs news to members. 2. To spread JC spirit and 4 areas of opportunity to the general public, private and government sectors. 3. To reinforce the corporate image of JCI and NOM. 4. To train up members in producing high quality publication. 5. To achieve membership recruitment.	1. Feature articles presented by distinguished figures in the relevant field. 2. A total circulation of 3,500 copies distributed among members, government officials, charity organizations and commercial enterprises. 3. Improved quality of contents, more attractive and colour designs on cover and inside pages to provide enjoyable reading. 4. Involve more members and senior members in the preparation of the publications. 5. Survey on publication contents, interview with business and JC leaders and advertisement placement were added.	1. Harbour Lights was published quarterly, NOM Info X'press was also issued to ensure continuous and regular spread of JC news. 2. Contents of the publication becomes richer and more information included – LOM activities, JCI news, interview with Business and JC leaders, tips of this issue and special features. 3. A professionally designed cover was adopted. 4. Harbour Lights was placed on the HKJC web page for worldwide circulation. 5. Sponsors were confirmed early to assure good financial support. The editorial team can concentrate on the preparation of the high quality publication.

BRIEF STATEMENT ON BENEFITS OF THE PROJECT OR ACTIVITY:

1. Enhanced Corporate Image: An easily recognizable cover for Harbour Lights and its professional quality created a good image for our organization.
2. Stimulation to LOMs: A good NOM publication served as a good example for all LOMs to follow.
3. Best Communication Channel: Convey messages between NOM, LOMs and outside organizations.
4. Cost Effectiveness: A cost effective way to convey all the JCI and NOM news to our members.
5. Social Consciousness: Members' awareness of current affairs of Hong Kong aroused and they could express their views though this publication.
6. Financial support: The advertisements and sponsorships helped to finance the project. It further reduced NOM's burden and resources can be allocated to other areas.
7. Members Recruitment and Retention: Young people in Hong Kong were attracted to join Hong Kong Junior Chamber and current members had developed a sense of belonging to the organization.
8. Promotion of HKJC Presidential Theme: The Chinese Slogan competition for 2003 NOM Presidential Theme "Enjoy JC, Enjoy Life" enhanced the awareness and understanding of the theme among individual members..

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. Training: It should include useful information, updated training programs and IT skills for members' reference. In addition, by involving in the editorial team, members can be trained in editing and printing skills.
2. Track record: It should record all the important events happened within the organization and messages to be shared with members during the time.
3. Promotion Tools: When introducing our organization to outsiders or new members, NOM publication can be used as promotion tool and organization understanding. It provides comprehensive information to readers about events in the organization.
4. Members Promotion: A professional publication attracts more readers from outside organizations so as to enhance corporate

Training and Development Council

Time flies. Six months have passed. What are your memorable TDC activities in the past six months?

February and March were busy months for us. We organized three dynamic training activities to outside organizations: Wu Chung College, The Scouts Association and University of Macau. We would like to take this opportunity to give great great thanks to our coaches for providing these dynamic training.

It's so grateful that ITF Senator Peter Sim from Malaysia has been our guest speaker of Trainers' Circle Gathering on March 16. He conducted a dynamic seminar on presentation skills and training session design. If you missed the gathering, you can download the photos on http://uk.photos.yahoo.com/hkjc_tdc to share our fruitful night.

Besides existing e-communication, TDC web site is under reconstruction. Latest news will be also posted on web. Go and see our new TDC web under HKJC web site.

Our missions are to deliver professional training programs, to develop high quality programs and to develop our coaches. In the coming months, we will organize Train for Trainers Course, TDC Arena and Trainers' Circle Gathering. We are looking forward to seeing you in the coming events.

and willing to take a great step ahead and great responsibility to serve our organisation as well as the community.

It is interesting to learn that Hamburg Junior Chamber, Germany, has a serious and formal screening process for the new recruits. Members are required to illustrate their ability, experience, enthusiasm, and commitment to the organization. In the end good quality of the members would certainly attract many good quality young potential leaders. By just completing the application form would not guarantee the end results we anticipate.

This is a very good example of an international organisation like JC. Different countries have different cultures. I like the way Hamburg Junior Chamber recruit new members and their strict admission requirements. This is really something we should consider, as our existing admission requirement is relatively slacken. Membership is always a high priority deliberation for our leaders. I understand that people might have concerns on the strict admission requirement might result in less membership in number-terms. However I strongly believe this is not the case. A tougher requirement would become a motivation to the new recruits as well as our existing members to perform their best and give their utmost to JC and the society. Should we impose a more serious admission process and members would appreciate their JC membership. Therefore lost of membership would hopefully be improved. An old saying would be self-explanatory, "Easy come, Easy go"!

In addition I believe before we look for quality new recruits, we should make sure ourselves are up to standard, well equipped for our members and well prepared to serve them.

Economy downturn is certainly one of the factors contribute to the reduction of our membership. Once again you believe that we should be able to provide full value of benefits from JC and opportunities which members would not be able to get from elsewhere. These opportunities would ensure them to be well equipped for the future challenges. We need to let our members and others have a better understanding of who we are, what we do and what we can provide them. Advancement of the website is one of the key aspect you are committed to. Extensive information about JC should be on-lined. Creative ideas are greatly encouraged to be conveyed through the Internet. One of the key successes you have achieved is Monday Morning Message; it was started in 1998 with 7 receipts and now, your messages reaches over 3,000 receipts. Young people are unquestionably benefited from your sharing and inspired.

As the JCI President, one of your main duties is to travel around the world and meet different JCs from different places. Although your visit to us only lasted for 2 days, the benefit you gave us was extremely valuable, the advice you gave us was exceptionally helpful, and the idea you shared with us was tremendously informative.

JCI President Rector, once again, we are grateful about your time and look forward to your leadership to take us to become one of the well-known organisations with great learning opportunity and enjoyable moments.

With best wishes and great success in 2003!

JCI President Reception Dinner on Jan 24th

JCI President Rector and Executive Committee were offered a tour in the Legislative Council Building after meeting with Mrs. Fan

A letter to JCI President Bruce A Rector ...

Dear JCI President Rector,

It was my great pleasure to meet with you during the forum conducted at the reception dinner on January 24, 2003. Despite a chilly evening, we had more than 70 HKJC members attended and all of us appreciated your valuable inputs and sharing about the JCI future as well as the HKJC's.

We are all exciting about your commitment in "Enhancement in JC's corporate image", "Growth in membership" and, "Advancement in website". Many of us strongly agree with you on the mentioned missions and believe that these are all critical factors to make our organisation a meaningful and an enjoyable one to the young people. With the pledge from the local chapter leaders as well as the National Officers, we shall reap, if we faith not.

During the forum, you have given us a better understanding about your views regarding some of the major problems within the HKJC locally. Years ago, young people were desperate to join JC whilst nowadays lesser young people do so. You believe that we have lost the public attention. We need to be more creative to have wild and excited ideas; to acquire media and public attention; and to let others realise how this organisation could benefit them in a way others cannot. With creative ideas and public attention, our status within the society would be enhanced and we will be able to attract talented young people to be a part of this great family.

I totally agree with your point about creative ideas and we must do something different from others; at the same time, our contributions will have to provide the greatest benefits to our members and community. Projects and activities with same purposes in the past should be reviewed and modified such that others would be inspired and have interest in our organisation. Our first priority therefore during the planning phase should always be "creative project with creative thoughts".

In addition, young people were strongly encouraged by employers to join JC to develop themselves into better persons. However this is not the case in this day and age. Your view on this is that many employers have established a complete training program for their new recruits. Moreover "trust" between employers and JC has not been kept as strong as it used to be. This is due to the fact that many newly joined members spend a large portion of their office hour on JC. Relations between employers and JC were unfortunately affected. Hence we are not acknowledged by others and thus have less interest from the public.

A vital point you made about the JC is the "value" our members would get from the membership dues they contribute to the local chapter as well as the national level. Members believe that benefits and contributions are not directly proportionate. This is certainly one of the "must" action items for the 2003 National Officers as the slogan for 2003 is "Enjoy JC, Enjoy Life". We need to make sure our members "Enjoy JC Life" and receive the underlying value of JC! In the end our members are assets to JC.

What exactly does it mean by "Our members are assets to JC"? This is indeed the point you have made several times during the forum - "Value". There is a tendency that members do not appreciate our efforts in providing great opportunities to them. They believe they can obtain the same level of training elsewhere such as their companies' training program. My thoughts are that we need to help members to develop themselves, explore their views and experience their voyage. In order to do so, we need to think about "If I were a new member, what exactly am I looking for from JC?" This question had been one of the major guidelines during my presidency for my local chapter in 2002. We need to have a clear understanding of what our members' desires and needs are. Then we will be the pioneers to obtain opportunities as much as possible for our members to grab. Members will then appreciate and treasure their lives with JC. In the end, this should lead to a longer life span with JC.

One of the discussions we had during the reception was the extension of the age limit. You expressed the view that there has not been a clear tendency whether we should raise the age limit to, as suggested of age 45. It will always be a debate between the "For" and the "Against". At this moment, a large portion of our members is aged 35 to 40 globally. Several years down the road, we will have many active members become senior members and a lesser portion of active members would be resulted.

How should we address this? My personal view on the extension of the age limit is negative. Raising the age limit is a pessimistic approach and the underlying membership problem will not be eliminated. We should all stand up as a team and make our organisation grow in a way that members appreciate their contribution to the organization and in return their contributions are highly valued and recognised.

The corporate slogan of the JCI is "Entrepreneur in Actions". This has remained as the main theme for JCI over the last several years. It is indeed a good slogan, but during the process of the recruitment of new members, many local chapter leaders have struggled that whether they should recruit real entrepreneur or else. You have shared with us the experience in the States that in the past, the recruitment process was mainly for the social purposes. No specific target market was formalised. No specific criterion was dignified. Thus a serious membership shortage resulted, as we are definitely a "learning by doing, but socialising" organisation. In respect of the credentials of one Jaycee, you suggested we should pay more attention on ambitious, innovative, and commitment to the society. These are the critical elements to make us a better organisation.

In addition to ambitious, innovative, and community to the society, I believe we should also look for young people with great courageous. With courageous, one should be able to

The JCI International Business and IT Conference was successfully held in New Delhi, India from March 8-10.

13 delegates from Hong Kong attended the workshop-packed 3 day programme such as Internet presence for Business, Business Process Outsourcing, IT Trend for Young Entrepreneurs. Many JCI officers including World President Bruce Rector delivered talks at a number of seminars on company management and leadership skills. It was also great fun experiencing Indian culture and food for most of our delegates who came to India for the first time. In addition, two of our delegates also participated in the Trade Show drawing large number of visitors' attention to their IT products.

Convention Logo

Integrity is concerned with honesty towards others and being morally upright. By having personal integrity, individuals win the trust of others, likewise, businesses that uphold a high degree of commercial integrity are considered good business partners. In fact, honesty and trustworthiness have always been fundamental values on which societies are founded. They are also used as yardsticks by which moral standards are measured. In ancient times, men and women of their words reassured others of their pledge and trust by slapping the others' palms. This act, though simple, symbolized noble values.

The world has certainly progressed tremendously since those days. However, the belief in integrity unfortunately seems to be on the wane. In fact, in an era when communication through massive use of technology is preferred to personal contact and speech, many argue it is no longer realistic to "give others my word for it".

No doubt, from a business perspective, e-commerce is a passageway that can lead to goldmines. In pursuing the route, one should not lose sight of integrity. On the contrary, special attention should be paid to keep them in focus.

In view of this, we have adopted "Enhancing Corporate Governance, Reinforcing Business Ethics" as the theme of this year's convention. A series of seminars will be held to strengthen and promote actively this belief.

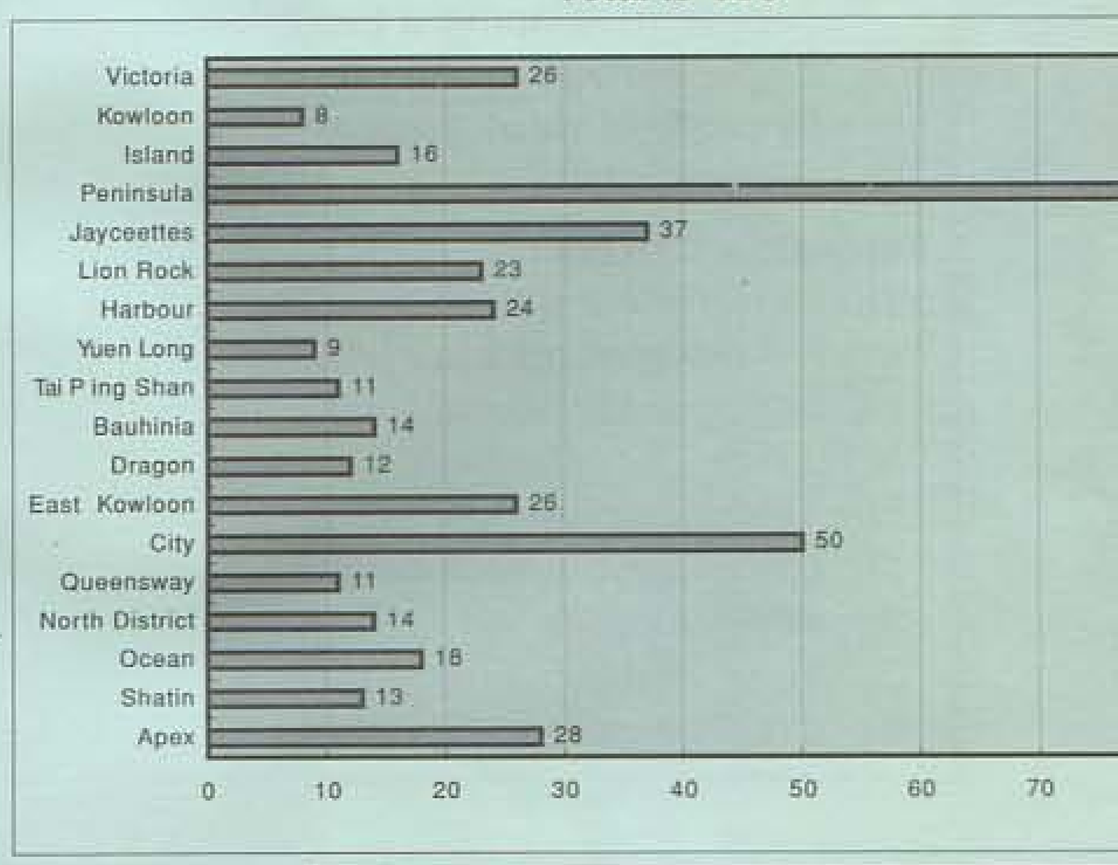

As an easy means to convey our message, we have designed a logo for the occasion. With these hands, orange in color and representing the sun, justice and brightness, we will create our future and found business kingdoms. Like our ancestors, we slap palms to pledge mutual trust, an essential ingredient for business success. The cleverly designed "e" used on each palm depicts the importance of e-commerce on one hand. On the other hand, its eye-shaped contour reminds us of the need to broaden our horizon and envision the future.

We believe, to be successful, enterprises should have clear direction in whatever they do, be it the design of a logo or management issues. So, let us all use these hands to push this meaningful activity and belief forward!

JCI Announcement:
Cebu ASPAC postpone to August 28 - 31, 2003 ...

April 30, 2003

Dear Fellow Jaycees,

In the Junior Chamber Movement, one of the purposes of having an area conference is to strengthen our organization through our meetings, training and fellowship. The Cebu Conference Organizing Committee has been doing their best to give us an outstanding conference. However, currently there are conditions affecting our ASPAC, causing uncertainty and affecting the very purpose of having the conference.

After thorough consultations and evaluation of the situation, with everyone concerned, we have decided to postpone the I CEBU ASPAC to August 28 to 31, 2003. We have come up with this for the best interest of the general membership and the organization.

for your continued support and we look forward in seeing all of you in me August 28-31.

ce Cebu, Exciting Cebu, still waiting for you!

To all members of Hong Kong Junior Chamber,

Mission of JCI
"To contribute to the advancement of the global community by providing the opportunity for young people to develop their leadership skills, social responsibility, entrepreneurship and fellowship necessary to create positive change."

Being a leadership development organization to train up future leaders, Hong Kong Junior Chamber proposes to provide opportunity to enhance members' social responsibility by soliciting members' views on

What can Hong Kong do to revive its battered image?

Through this exercise, it is hoped to encourage members to propose practical measures/ recommendations in view of current social situation and what an average citizen can do to revive Hong Kong's image as Asia's World City.

Please email your recommendations in point form and not more than 150 words to Chamber Office Secretary Glory Chan on or before May 19, 2003. A consolidated report will then be compiled for issue to the government and the media.

Your contribution is highly valuable! Please act now.

Yours in JC Spirit,

Alice Liu
National President

Strategy Forums

The NOM is undertaking a strategic planning process with an aim to develop strategies for the sustainable development of Hong Kong Junior Chamber and its 18 LOMs. The process includes a series of activities covering situation analysis, review of strategic issues, stakeholder analysis, visioning and formulation of strategies. The tentative schedule is as follows:

Forum 1 : Situation Analysis and Strategic Issues (July 27, 2002)
Forum 2 : Stakeholder Analysis (May 3, 2003)
Forum 3 : Visioning for HKJC (Q3 2003)
Forum 4 : Discussions on Strategies (Q3/Q4 2003)

Target participants at these forums are NOM Officers, LOM Presidents and their Presidential Advisors or LRPC Members, and participants at the July 2002 Forum.

If you have any input to the above, please submit to your LOM President.

Info of Cebu ASPAC

JCI members from all over the world gather throughout the year at several meetings in different continents. At each meeting, summit, academy, Area Conference and World Congress, JCI provides the open environment for discussion and debate where decisions are made, progress is reviewed, new doors of opportunity are opened, experiences and accomplishments are shared, and training programs are conducted. Additionally, these meeting are a celebration of global understanding and international fellowship.

2003 NOM Directions

from National President Senator Alice Liu dedicated to YOU

Presidential Theme "Entrepreneurship for Positive Change"

We should think and act like entrepreneurs: adopt an adaptable disposition towards change and take bold actions to improve our organization.

Focus on public relations and membership affairs

- Public Relations - we should make JC movement more visible in the community and promote our activities via the media to project a positive image of our organization.
- Membership Affairs - we should pay extra attention to understand the needs of members and nurture the new members so they would enjoy being part of the JC family.
- All areas and programs should bring benefits to public relations and membership affairs.

Focus Resources... Focus Impact...

Chapters should aim to work together under the leadership of National to achieve greater impact by pooling knowledge and resources together to confront common challenges, transpiring the boundaries of Chapters, and transpiring the boundaries of National and Chapters.

Be proud of being a Junior Chamber Member

Wear our JC pins all the time. Impress our families and friends of the good work of JC and our contribution towards good citizenship.

Enjoy JC... Enjoy Life...

We strive to make our organization a member-orientated one, not just an impersonal machine for activities. Enjoy our JC involvement and the value it brings in enhancing our lives.

PROMOTING JC IMAGE AT LOCAL LEVEL

Anti - Crime Activity

Shatin Junior Chamber

It is a strategic focus for Sha Tin Junior Chamber (SJC) to build up JC Image in the Shatin District by extending more local networks. Hence, some influencing local representatives were invited as VIP guests during its inaugural ceremony on Jan 11. They were:

- Guest of Honor, Wai Kwok Hung, JP (Chairman of Shatin District Council);
- Mr. Thomas Pang (Vice-Chairman of Shatin District Council & Hon Advisor of SJC)
- Mr. Ho Kuen Fai (Chairman of Shatin Secondary Heads Association);
- Mr. David Tsang (Senior Liaison Officer of Sha Tin District Office - Home Affairs Bureau) and
- Mr. Zhang Hua (Deputy Division Chief of Liaison Office of the Central People's Government in the Hong Kong SAR).

Interview – Heart-to-Heart

Interview with NGLC Senator Annie Lo

On the bookshelves of Room C, Chamber Office, there are full of historical material of Hong Kong Junior Chamber (HKJC): books, publications, documents, etc. Since the end of 2000, National General Legal Counsel (NGLC) Annie has spent numerous holidays and weekday evenings in this room with her teammates for the preparation of HKJC 50th Anniversary Album. The contribution of HKJC to the society since 1950 reinforced her deep affection for the organization. It made her dedicated to serving National Board since 2001 in non-stopped, unselfish and wholehearted manners.

During a recent interview, Annie shared her personal perspective on her role as NGLC and on JC life.

Reporter: Jonathan de la Cruz

What do you think makes a good NGLC?

There are many qualities. A good NGLC has to be meticulous and analytical to make decisions accordingly. For instance, when I am the parliamentarian of a meeting, I have to judge on spot whether a motion is out of order, a behaviour is acceptable or a question is relevant. In addition, it is important to have a positive attitude and confidence. If not, how can one be able to open an aura and figure out how to decide on the best course of action for members?

National Immediate Past President (NIPP) Senator Tony Chan - as a JC member, we have all heard of him. But did you know what the duties of NIPP are? Did you know what the role of NIPP is in the continuity of Junior Chamber (JC)? Let's find them all out from our interview with him.

- Amanda Wong, National Publication Director (Reporter)

1 Hello NIPP Tony, with so many years of experience in JC, how would you describe your journey here?

I would describe it as a "learning by doing" process. Before I joined JC, I focused all my energy on my nine-to-five work and was not even aware of my personal weaknesses or insufficient knowledge outside my work. After joining the JC family in 1989, I found that she provided me with lots of "job rotation" opportunities between different projects, from which I discovered a whole new world of interesting, fresh and novel ideas. This is the challenge of being a JC member. Also this is some valuable experience that I gain from JC.

The role of a JC member is quite different from that of a volunteer. Volunteer's job is very often task-oriented and concentrates more on a particular kind of product or service. In JC, not only do I enjoy the results we achieved together, but also my participation in each process. The "learning by doing" process strengthens my competencies in many ways. It enhances my interpersonal effectiveness that I need to employ in every project to work with my teammates. I regard this as a key to success in today's working environment.

attend. No matter what the result may be, you can always learn from good examples of others and avoid repeating any mistakes that you observed.

3 All members know that National President (NP) is the chief representative of Hong Kong Junior Chamber (HKJC), but some members may not know what roles NIPP are playing. Could you enlighten us a bit more on this?

Besides sharing experience with the National Board and giving advice, NIPP will be the Senate Chairman, Nomination Chairman for National Executive Committee Election for the next year, Supervising Officer of Ten Outstanding Young Person Selection, Ex-offico member of Senior Member Club Executive Committee, and Advisor of AIESEC in Hong Kong.

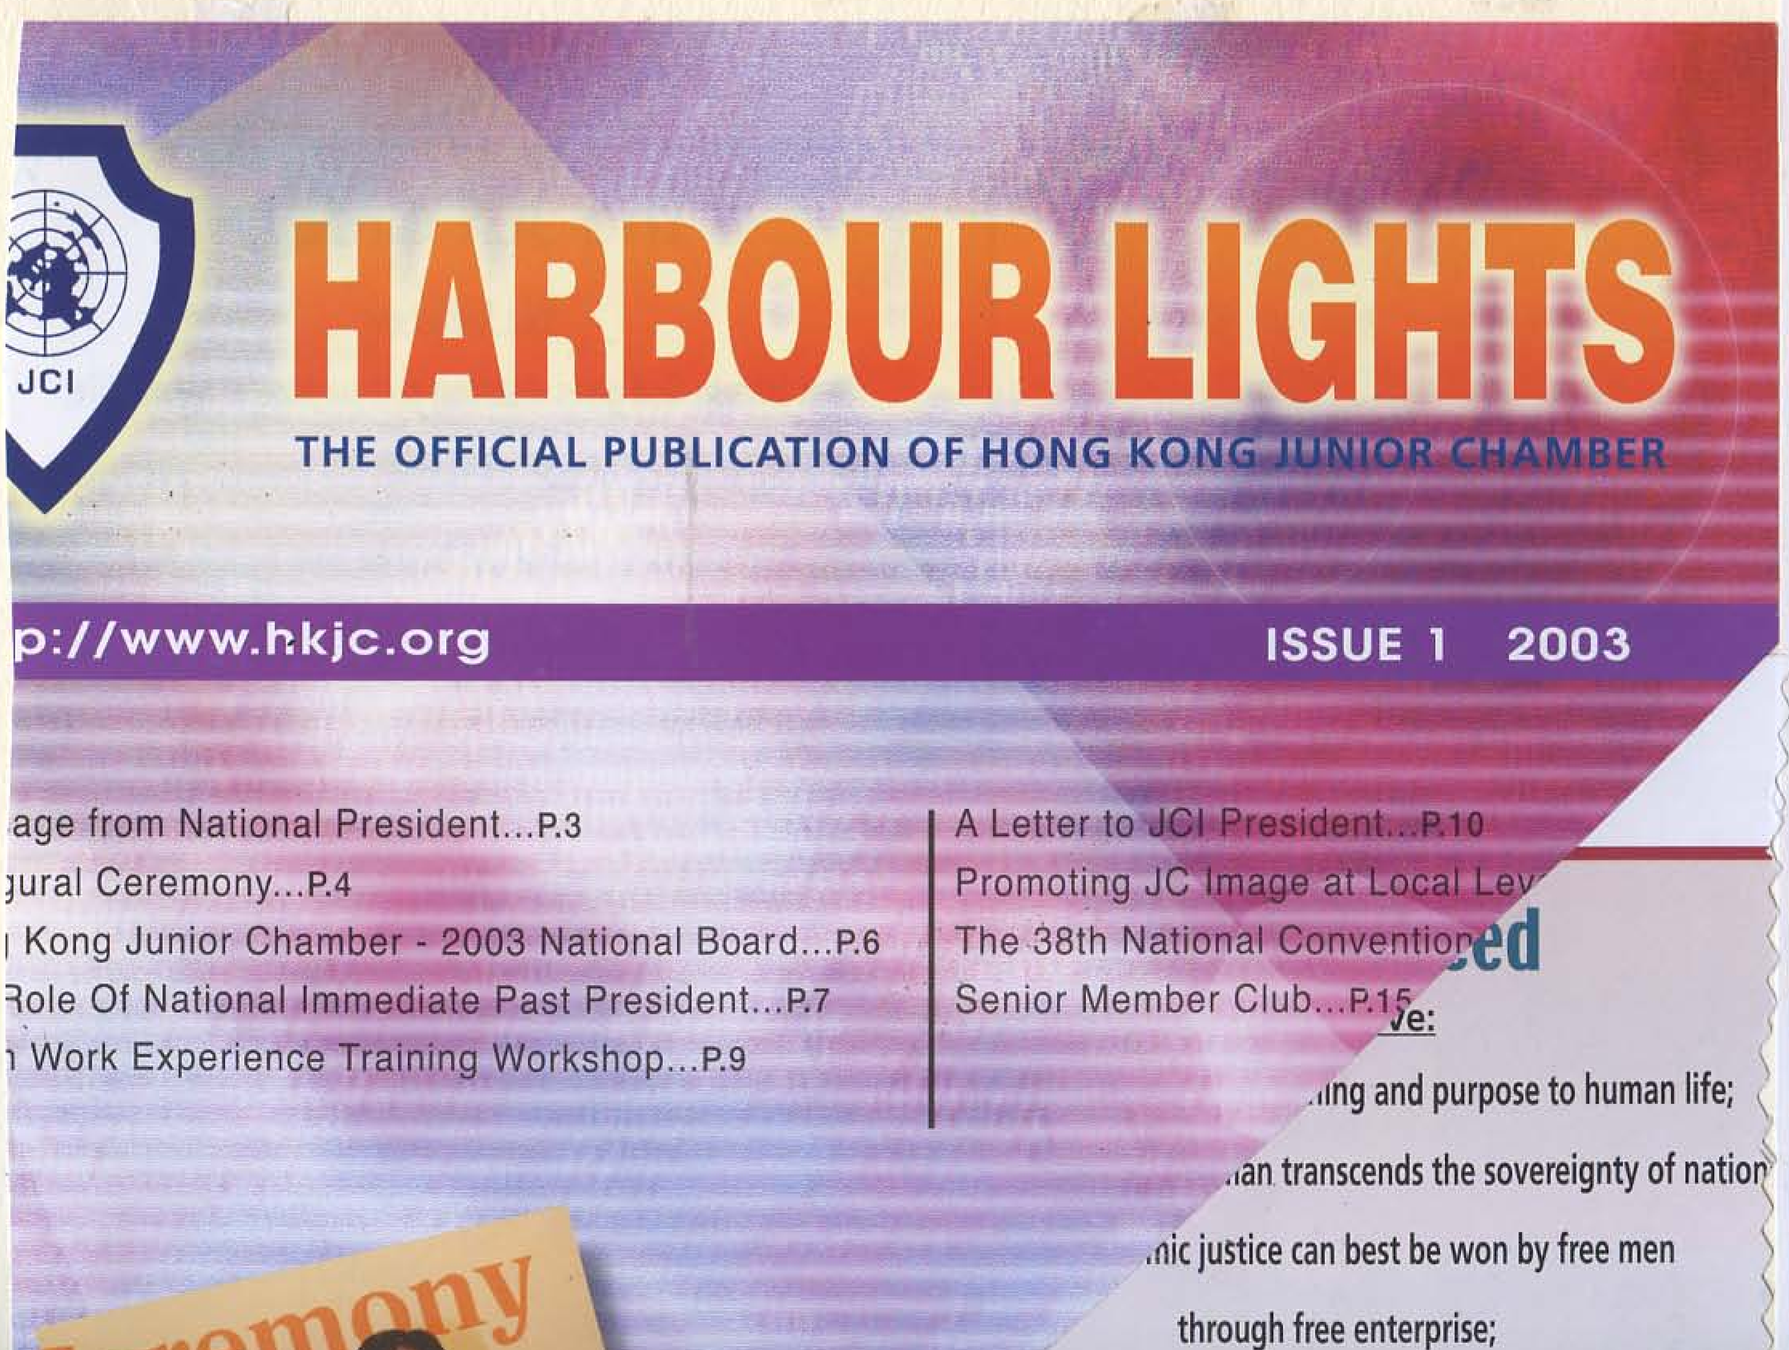

4 You have mentioned that NIPP is an extension of your JC experience. Why would you say that?

NIPP shares experience with, gives advice and down-to-earth assistance to the NP and the National Board. NP and NIPP are very close partners inside the leading team of our National Board. It is necessary that the NP and NIPP communicate well with each other to ensure

The 2003 Inaugural Ceremony was overwhelmingly successful. I believe every participant had a very enjoyable 2-hour program.

I'm extremely delighted to announce that the fund raised was HK$350,184.00 and the total number of participants was 438. Record- breaking numbers indeed.

Prospective Member Induction Ceremony

The event was commenced by and had their induction ceremony. Immediately, over a hundred new members that were inducted in 2002 joined the congregation in the celebration. A ten-pound birthday cake with the JC logo on it was brought out together with the song, "Congratulations" playing. Last but not least, the final performance was by creative singer, Mr. Lee Kwok Cheung. He sang 3 wonderful songs for us.

Nature of Business:

Hong Kong Junior Chamber (HKJC)

With more than 1,500 JC members from all walks of life in Hong Kong, the Hong Kong Junior Chamber is a non-profit making organization dedicated to developing leadership potentials among young people. HKJC represent a network of highly-motivated and forward-looking young people between the ages of 21 and 40 who come together to under a common mission: to contribute to the advancement of the global community by providing the opportunity for young people to develop the leadership skills, social responsibility, entrepreneurship and fellowship necessary to create positive change".

Since its establishment in 1950, HKJC has proactively responded to challenges in the community, helping to generate awareness on important social and economic issues which have an impact on our daily lives. The organization's objectives are carried out through the "Four Areas of Opportunity namely Individual; Community; International; and Business.

A letter to JCI President B

Dear JCI President Rector,

It was my great pleasure to meet with you during the forum conducted at the reception dinner on January 24, 2003. Despite a chilly evening, we had more than 70 HKJC members attended and all of us appreciated your valuable inputs and sharing about the JCI future as well as the HKJC's.

We are all exciting about your commitment in "Enhancement in JC's corporate image", "Growth in membership" and, "Advancement in website". Many of us strongly agree with

What do you think makes a good NGLC?

There are many qualities. A good NGLC has to meticulous and analytical to make decisions accordingly. For instance, when I am the parliamentarian of a meeting, I have to judge on spot whether a motion is out of order,
