The Environmental Concern Tour (S05) — 9 hours — HK$ 520 P/P
Friday — 0930 -1730

Those who concern the environment in this tiny city will be escorted by environmental specialists to explore the problems Hong Kong faces and to understand how we strive to make the territory a better place to live.

Travel through our congested city centre where high-rise apartment buildings stack and highway built only 8 feet away from the windows of private homes to the natural world of mangrove in Tai Po Kau and over 100 nests of little egrets and migrate birds in Sam Mun Tsai, the New Territories.

Visit Luk Keng, the largest remaining fresh and brackish water area in the New Territories. From a distance, you can see the "A Chau" island which is the only breeding habitat for egrets and herons. It is of considerable importance for wide life conservation.

Mai Po marshes nature reserve is a restricted area under the wild animals protection ordinance and is of international significance for migratory and resident bird life. Over 10,000 migratory shore birds are present at one time during the spring migration. Chinese lunch will be served enroute.

Optional: Tree planting in the "Green Dragon Garden" can be arranged at HK$ 10,000 per group (10 trees) or HK$ 1,500 per tree. Saplings, tools, a commemorative plaque and a certificate will be provided for the participating group. (weather permitting)

Macau Day Excursion by Jetfoil (S06) — 8 hours — HK$ 450 P/P
Friday — 0900 - 1700

Popular excursion to historical Macau - Asia's oldest European settlement, apart from the superb sights also try your luck at the famous casinos.

Middle Kingdom & Ocean Park Tour (S07) — 4 - 8 hours — HK$ 250 P/P
Thursday — 0900 - 1300/1700

Take a walk through the history of China in the middle kingdom, the recreation of sights sounds and atmosphere of China's 13 dynasties, visit the spectacular oceanarium where the world's largest marine mammal theatre provides exciting entertainment at showtimes. Enjoy thrill rides of roller-coaster and the incredible views of the surrounding landscape.

Tram Cocktails with Light Snacks (S08) 2 hours HK$ 380 P/P
Tuesday 1900 - 2100

A special party on board the oldest form of transportation on the island, weaving through noisy and brilliantly streets.
