JCI Mission, Vision And Creed

JCI Mission

To provide development opportunities that empower young people to create positive change.

JCI Vision

To be the leading global network of young active citizens.

JCI Creed

We believe :

That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life
That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations
That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise
That government should be of laws rather than of men
That earth's great treasure lies in human personality
And that service to humanity is the best work of life.

History of the Creed

The year was 1946; the place, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, U.S.A.; the event, the United States Junior Chamber National Convention. Visitors came from Canada, Mexico, South America, Europe and the Philippine Island. It was here that the idea of a JCI Creed was born.

Past President of the Ohio Junior Chamber and National Vice President of the United States Junior Chamber C. William Brownfield realized at this convention that the organization did not have a Creed. He was inspired by the devotion of Junior Chamber members "to the purpose of serving mamkind in a thousand different ways, right down at the grass roots where freedom lives or dies."

Brownfield saw Junior Chamber as "the potential for a new force in the world, one capable of changing the balance between victory or defeat for our chosen way of life in a time of crisis."

The actual writing of the Creed took place in July 1946 during a drive from Brownfield's hometown of Columbus, Ohio, to his coal mine in New Lexington, a journey of about 75 minutes. He started that journey with a firm conviction in his mind to work on the Creed. It was during that the following words came to mind and were put on paper:

The brotherbood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations.
Economic justice can best be won by free men though free enterprise.
Goverment should be of laws rather than of men.
Earth's great treasure lies in human personality.
Service to humanity is the best work of life.

In 1950 the first line, "We believe that faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life." was added.

Since it was written, Junior Chamber members all over the world recite the Creed at local, national and international meetings and functions. During that time there has been much discussion of the interpretation of the Creed. The author himself said, "Every Member is free to interpret the Creed in the light of his own conscience."

GUEST OF HONOR
PRESIDENT OF JUNIOR CHAMBER INTERNATIONAL

Dear members of JCI Hong Kong,

Please accept warm greetings!

I am very honored to be addressing you at this time as we begin a new year within JCI and our first step into another century. This year we will be building on the amazing momentum that we have gained as we celebrated 100 years of impact around the world. As we have demonstrated the incredible contributions that JCI has made now for one hundred years, we must capitalize on the publicity and interest we have generated and continued to demonstrate what passionate active citizens are capable of when they partner with all sectors of society for sustainable impact.

This year our focus is that as we continue to analyze the needs in our community, we will have the courage to Just Act and find creative ways to address those needs. We must feel more and do more. I am confident that JCI members are empowered and eager to continue to create positive change as we adopt and carry the Global Goals for Sustainable Development. One of our big initiatives this year will be the the Peace is Possible campaign, which will mobilize young people worldwide to create awareness, advocate and take action and commit to an everlasting world peace. The need for JCI is more relevant today than it has ever been, and we must rise up to the challenges of our time.

I have great confidence that JCI Hong Kong will continue to dedicate its efforts to leverage opportunities to expand JCI's influence and impact as we seek to unite all sectors of society for sustainable impact.

We wish you all the best in this momentous event of the JCI Hong Kong Inauguration Ceremony as you begin 2016. Remember to Just Act for the future of our world.

Kind regards,

Paschal Dike

CHAIRMAN OF COMMISSION ON YOUTH

I would like to extend my heartfelt congratulations to Junior Chamber International (JCI) Hong Kong on its Inaugural Ceremony of 2016.

JCI has done excellent work in providing our young people with opportunities and training them to become young leaders of purpose, responsibility, dedication and service. I am also very pleased to learn that JCI is passionate about enabling youth entrepreneurship, and in promoting discourse on civic and community values. With offices in more than 100 countries, and about 2,000 members in Hong Kong, JCI equips young people with an international outlook and essential life skills in a multicultural society.

On this special occasion, we witness the inauguration of JCI's National President, Chapter Presidents, and Board of Directors. As they continue to build on and expand JCI's great work, there is no doubt that we will see more and more global citizens who are committed to bringing about positive changes to the society and advancing socioeconomic development.

I wish JCI a good start to its new chapter, and success and prosperity in the year ahead.

NATIONAL PRESIDENT
JUNIOR CHAMBER INTERNATIONAL HONG KONG

Senator Brian KWAN

Good evening! On behalf of Junior Chamber International Hong Kong, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude for your presence at this Inauguration Ceremony. Your participation makes this occasion meaningful and remarkable. In particular I would like to thank Guests of Honor, VIP guests, overseas delegates, my family and friends.

During the past 65 years, we have been providing different development opportunities to empower young people to create positive change. We have also been engaging different partners, the government and corporations together to tackle various social issues. As the largest international youth organization, JCI plays a very important role for the development of a better Hong Kong. I am honored to become your National President and continue the JC Movement with you all in the year of 2016.

I always believe that no one can delimit you except yourself and that every dream may seem impossible before it has been realised. So, fellow Jaycees and Jayceettes, please treasure every opportunity in JC to stretch your limit. You have the choice of mastering the ability to handle difficult problems or experiencing something different. As our JCI President Paschal said, “Just Act!”. You will soon find that your ability is enhanced, your limit is extended and your dream is within reach.

“Be All We Can Be” is our theme this year. It is not only a slogan but also a spirit to empower everyone! For example, we can be a good leader; we can be an inspiring speaker; we can be an innovative entrepreneur, we can be a caring father and so on. The society is now full of challenges. If more young people live the “We can be“ spirit, I am sure that our society will become more united in anticipating positive change.

Last but not least, as a global partner of United Nations, JCI Hong Kong will help to advance the new Sustainable Development Goals (Global Goals) as adopted at United Nations Headquarters in New York last year. We will have different campaigns to tackle the poverty issue, notably organising the first Hong Kong Partnership Summit to unite different sectors of society to discuss important issues facing Hong Kong. It serves as a catalyst for different sectors to accept responsibility and act. Let’s work hand in hand to identify steps to create positive change and take action for the next 65 years!

I wish you all the best and have a fruitful evening!

Brian Kwan

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT
JUNIOR CHAMBER INTERNATIONAL

I would like to send my warmest greetings to each of you at the 2016 JCI Hong Kong Inaugural Ceremony. Over the past 65 years, JCI Hong Kong has set a high standard as an outstanding national organization of JCI with a solid foundation of building leaders and contributing to community development. Last year was a special time to celebrate JCI Hong Kong's 65th Anniversary as well as the 100th Anniversary of the JCI Movement that was started in St. Louis, Missouri in 1915. The celebrations may have subsided, but our work will continue for another 100 years as we engage the next generation of young active citizens to create positive impact. Through active citizenship, we encourage young people to take responsibility for local issues, and find targeted, sustainable solutions that benefit our communities and the world around us. I have the confidence in JCI Hong Kong that you will continue to fulfill our mission of empowering young people to create positive change. I wish the best for 2016 JCI Hong Kong President Brian Kwan and the entire Board of Directors in taking on the charge in 2016 to "Be All We Can Be" to lead us toward our goal of becoming the organization that unites all sectors of society for sustainable impact.

The 2016 JCI Asia-Pacific Area Conference will take place in Kaohsiung, Taiwan June 2-5, 2016. It will be an amazing opportunity for members to participate in an international conference and to experience JCI hospitality first hand. You will meet passionate JCI leaders and members from all over the world. The agenda is full of assemblies to conduct the business of the organization, awards ceremonies to recognize the impact JCI is making in Asia-Pacific, parties for your fun and enjoyment, training, lectures and workshops for leadership development as well as trade shows for business development. As chairperson of the conference, I personally invite you to join us in Kaohsiung for an exciting Asia-Pacific Conference.

I am honored to be able to offer this congratulatory message to the 2016 JCI Hong Kong Board of Directors on this very special occasion.

VICE PRESIDENT
JUNIOR CHAMBER INTERNATIONAL

Marc Brian LIM

It is with great honor and privilege that I extend my warmest congratulations and congratulations to Junior Chamber International (JCI) Hong Kong, one of the world's most active National Organizations, on the occasion of your Inauguration Ceremony on the 8th of January 2016.

This special occasion marks the turnover of the responsibility of leadership between my good friend and fellow Global Networker from the 27th JCI Academy, 2015 National President Anthony Leung to the very capable and dynamic 2016 National President Brian Kwan.

The 2016 theme of JCI Hong Kong's Board of Directors "Be All We Can Be" is a great reminder for all of us, not only to live up to, but to surpass all that is expected of us as JCI Members. It is also a subtle reminder for all of us to continue to focus on JCI's 2016 Plan of Action and the 2014-2018 Strategic Plan to create a more just and peaceful future for the citizens of the world.

The Inauguration Ceremony also symbolizes a renewal of JCI Hong Kong's commitment to the Values, Mission, and Vision of JCI as we start a new century of creating positive change; it also seeks to build on the momentum we created in 2015, JCI's centennial year, by continuing to generate more sustainable impact in the communities of Hong Kong and also around the world through the utilization of the Active Citizen Framework.

Finally, I am deeply humbled to have been given the responsibility to serve as your JCI Vice President in 2016. Let me take this opportunity to reiterate my utmost support to JCI Hong Kong in 2016 and beyond.

I sincerely wish you all the best for your continued success!

Congratulations JCI Hong Kong!

Best regards,

Marc Brian Lim

In the high spirit of celebrating the arrival of the new year and the installation of offices, I give my warmest greetings to National President Senator Brian Kwan, the national board of directors, all chapter presidents and their board members, all commissioners, project chairmen and all JCIHK members. 2016 will be the stage for your stellar performance.

At the same time last year, I was also basked in the cheerfulness of the new year, and one year on, the one advice I can give you is this: time is short, make every day count. Indeed, you may well start the countdown to the last day of year. There are only three hundred plus days left. There is much to be done. You have already made good planning, now is the time to execute. There will be good times as well as hard times, but hold on to your spirit, so when you look back when the countdown ends, you can look back with pride and no regrets.

So enjoy the Inaugural Ball, the first function of the year, be all you can be, and I believe all of you will have a successful year ahead.

I have joined Queensway family since 2008. Over these years I can see our chapter changing and growing. I will lead our chapter forward to meet and overcome its challenges in this year.

In 2016, our chapter slogan is "We converge, We conquer". It represents our team theme this year.

Firstly, Membership Affairs is the key area. Recruiting new members is an important issue. The growth is focused on not only quantity but also quality. In addition, existing members' great effort contributed to Queensway will provide us additional resources for expansion of knowledge and better opportunity.

Secondly, Community Development is an important area too. It responds to the "Active Citizen Framework" theme in JC. We are planning to develop a sustainable project to serve our community. The direction is to promote a 'Responsible Citizen'. I hope our CD project will become the flagship project in the next few years.

Thirdly, it is English chapter image development. From documents to event activities to social gatherings, we could provide English practice opportunities. The concept is to develop all members' English skill to create positive change.

「創意 • 活力　發掘價值」為本年北區青年商會的口號。

就是用創意加活力，讓我們能發揮最大的潛能、發掘最大的價值，為自己帶來最大的正面改變。這正與國際青年商會(香港總會)本年口號「BE ALL WE CAN BE」有著異曲同工之妙。

此外，本年將會是更具紀念性的一年，因本會三十周年首位香港總會會長關德仁參議員將會帶領我們，繼續為國際青年商會作出貢獻，並透過服務社會過程中，訓練自己的同時，亦為自己帶來積極而正面影響。

在此謹代表北區青年商會祝賀總會就職典禮圓滿成功，並祝願在總會會長關德仁參議員帶領下，不止會務蒸蒸日上，更能將國際青年商會的宗旨及願景傳遞至每一位青商會友的心中。

2016 INAUGURAL BALL

Carol YEUNG

It is my great honor to be the Chairman of the JCI Hong Kong 2016 Inaugural Ball. “Be All We Can Be” is the slogan and theme of JCI Hong Kong 2016, and it speaks the true essence of being a JCI member.

We know young people holds the key to the future, and JCI is an excellent platform to unlock one’s potential through many projects and trainings. As members, we must seize opportunities and have belief, we can achieve our dreams and we can be positive change makers in our society. It is now, at this inauguration, the new board of directors of JCI Hong Kong take a solemn oath to make their commitment to lead and to serve the year as young active citizens.

In this Inaugural Ball this year, we also want every member to find their own treasures of JCI. So what are treasures of JCI? It could be individual development, training opportunities, community service, fellowship and more. We encourage members to take time to reflect about the JCI treasures that they have found or still seek for, and make a promise for the year to act and be all they can be. To discover the treasures, all you need is to go back to the basics and remember the JCI Mission, Vision and Values.

To bring out the treasures of JCI, we chose a very colorful and vibrant event visual to illustrate the rich opportunities and diversity in our organization. We are also delighted to have invited a young, award-winning Hong Kong performer that demonstrate young people’s passion and exceeding expectations. For this event, we hope you enjoy the innovative elements from promotion to decoration to program, and with the brand new venue to make the night special and unforgettable.

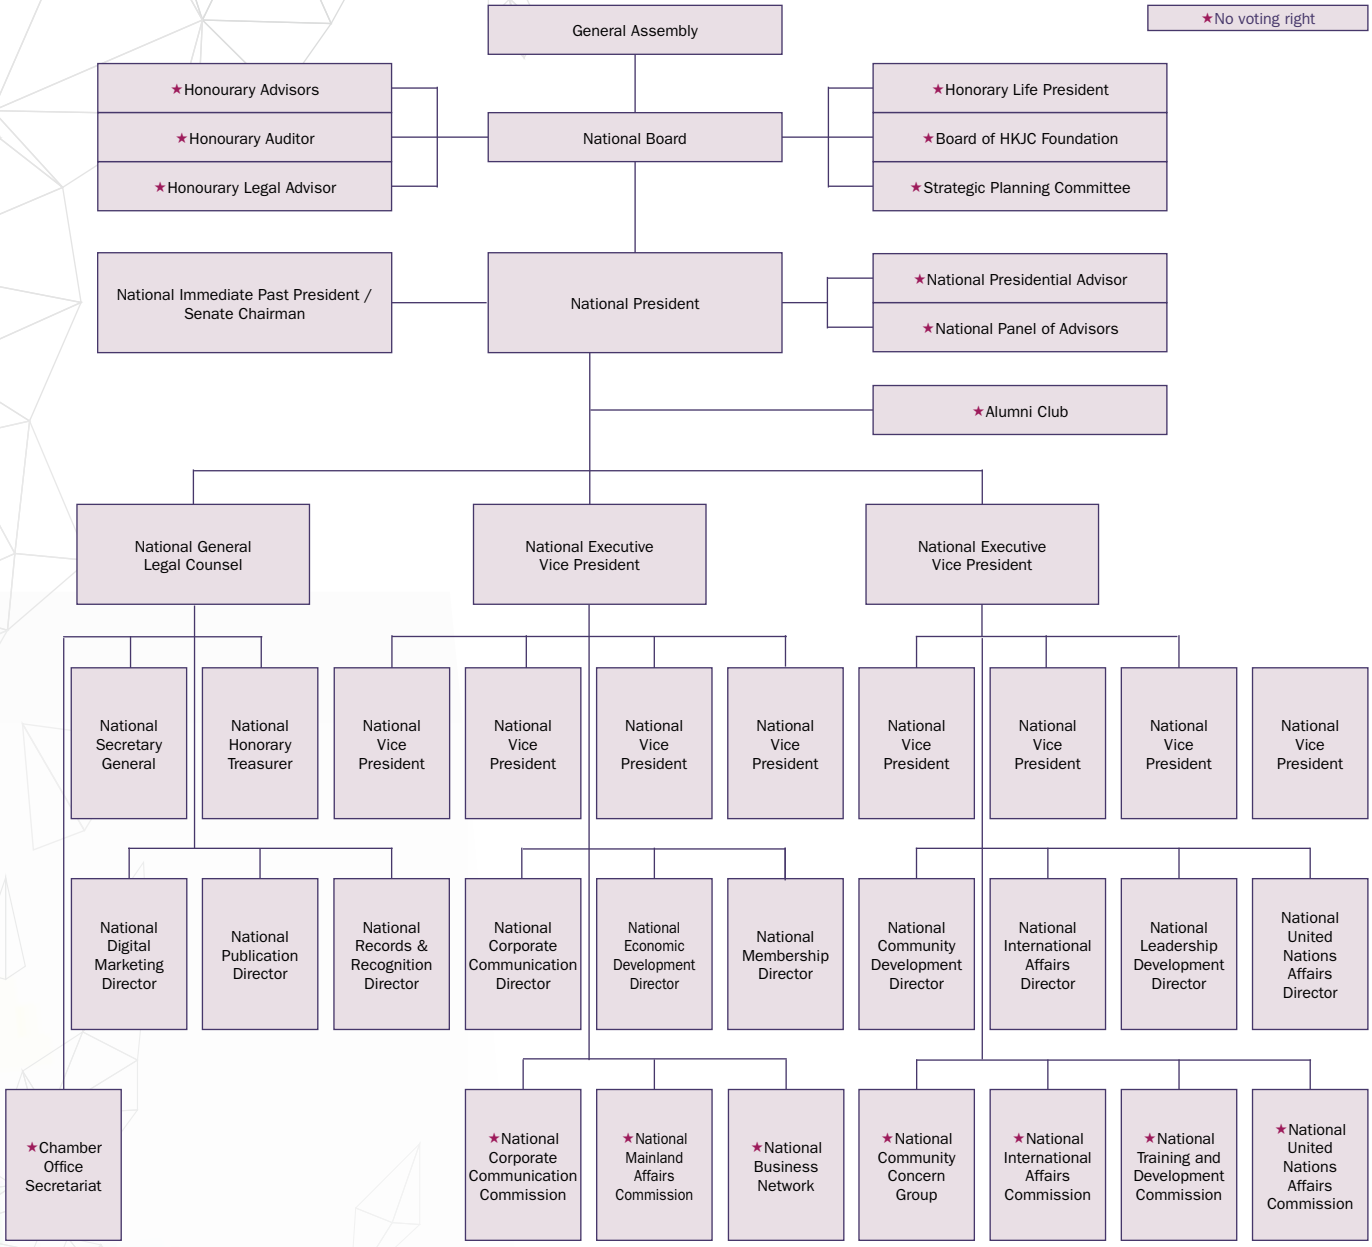

Taking this opportunity, I would like to express my most sincere gratitude and appreciation to my amazing Organizing Committee. They have certainly devoted a lot of time to make this event fantastic, exemplified true “Be All We Can Be” spirit, and made my chairmanship so much easier and enjoyable. My heartfelt thanks to Project Adviser Past National President Senator Stanley Ng, Supervising Officers National General Legal Counsel Senator Ronald Kan and National Honorary Treasurer Nathan Wong for their valuable advice and guidance. Last but not least, many thanks to National President Senator Brian Kwan for his trust and unfailing support.

Most of all, I would like to thank each and every member and guest for your presence tonight. Without your support, this Inaugural Ball would not have been so successful. With all my heart, I wish JCI Hong Kong and all members a fantastic year of 2016.
