Theme of Kanazawa Conference

"THE Well-Balanced Advancement of The Earth "

The Asia-Pacific Area in which we live has achieved dramatic economic growth and has drawn the world's attention as a leading player in the world economy.
However, we should not forget the fact that there are various problems as well as benefits that go along with economic growth.
Problems such as environmental issues, regional conflicts, and economic friction are especially hard to solve since each has its own unique combination of causes, which often transcend national boundaries.

The world around us has dramatically changed in the past few years.
The Cold War has ended and the political picture is in a state of constant flux.
International relations are increasingly in the terms of cooperative efforts and structures.
In the field of telecommunications recent technical advances have created a global communications network which is making the new world a borderless one. Considering the overall situation, it is easy to predict that in the future society will be more and faster change than ever before, especially in Asia.

Given the present situation of almost chaotic change, it is vital that we observe the situation around us calmly.
It is also necessary for us to think about the communities in which we live in terms of its various relationships to the world outside.
A globalized point of view is both inevitable and desirable, as we all have major roles to play in shaping the future of society, to make sure that it brings a richer, fuller life for everyone. JCI's major emphasis theme.
"The Age of global citizenship" will be last until the end of 1996.
The progress towards the next era involves each global citizen in making their own efforts to achieve a richer, fuller, better society for all parts of the world. Of course, the definition of a richer, fuller, better life depends on the area or individual concerned. In view of the chaotically changing state of the present era, doesn't it seem like a good idea to slow down, take a breath and target Well-balanced Advancement of the Earth?
This whole theme should be considered from such different perspectives as preserving the harmony between the economy and environment, the integration of high-tech with traditional patterns of life, relational between countries, city planning and zoning of individual communities, and so on.

1996 JCI-ASPAC will be held in Kanazawa. If the typical Asian country's major aim is economic growth first, then Kanazawa might be a good example to follow. Kanazawa is, after all, known as one of the richest cities in Japan.
Kanazawa has developed high-tech industries while still preserving its traditional culture from generation to generation, and still retains its surrounding belt of untouched natural beauty.
More so than the big cities of Japan, Kanazawa has protected the delicate harmony between economic development and environmental preservation. So Kanazawa is able to show us a different, and perhaps better, definition of richness.
We would like to convene 1996 JCI-ASPAC KANAZAWA with the hope that what all of us will obtain from our encounters in Kanazawa will help us to -promote our activities towards a prosperous future and inter-community harmony.

BASIC DESIGN

When thinking of "The well-balanced advancement of the earth", we must not forget to consider the clash between the factors
"economic development and environmental protection", "culture and high technology" and "culture, racial and religious differences".
The ASPAC logo depicts the power that arises from this clash.
The equilibrium born from this clash will be a new base for citizens to start from.
The logo is painted with a Japanese brush, so that viewers will sense the Japanese atmosphere that permeates this event.

THE WELL-BALANCED ADVANCEMENT OF THE EARTH
1996 JCI-ASPAC KANAZAWA

FUTURE WITH HOPE

The theme for ASPAC Kanazawa , "The well-balanced advancement of the earth" can be divided into two concept:
subjectivity and a harmonious affluent society. The catchphrase has been created to simplify the theme.
ASPAC is a conference in which you can learn about social bonding. The bonding can be defined as mutual understanding.
Vitality and a new equilibrium will only be reached through the interplay between economic development and environmental protection between tradition and high technology, as well as between cultural, racial and religious differences and North-South problems.
If we have the will to direct this energy, the difference in degree of economic problems in the world will be equalised.
The duties of the Kanazawa JC through ASPAC include aiding of members and contributions to the area of Kanazawa.
Although we would of course like the local community members to attend ASPAC, we would also like them to understand what the JC is.
Therefore, in order to involve them we must not only think of the future, but also of new social bonding can help us to construct it. Only in these terms can an affluent society of peace harmony be achieved.

MESSAGE FROM

THE GOVERNOR OF ISHIKAWA PREFECTURE

As a representative of the citizens of Ishikawa Prefecture, I would like to offer congratulation on the opening of JCI-ASPAC Kanazawa and also to express to all of you here our sincere welcome.

In recent years, International exchanges have been developed across the world in various places. It is this basic international interchange among people which construct good relationships and provides peace in the world.

This year 14,000 delegates from the Asia pacific Area are expected to attend ASPAC. This is a great opportunity for communication between Ishikawa prefecture inhabitants and the delegates of all member countries as well as observers who have come all the way to Kanazawa.

The aim of our prefecture is to provide an exchange point where people, facilities and information are open to the world. We hope that each dweller of Ishikawa Prefecture will continue striving for international communication from here.

Today's Kanazawa stems from a long tradition, cultivated throughout its long history in beautiful natural surroundings. We inherit from our past, among other things, 'Kutaniyaki' ceramic ware, 'Wajima' lacquer ware, 'Kaga' silk dyeing and 'kanazawa' gold leaf. We are also making an effort to develop our high-tech industries and engineering as well as equipping our city with the facilities for a convention and making it a livable and pleasant place.

By all means we hope you will see , feel and enjoy the inside view of our prefecture. This will be a wonderful experience for us all, and we will be delighted if you visit us again in the future.

At the same time as ASPAC the "International Venture Business-Messe Ishikawa 1996" will be held. It is arranged by Ishikawa Prefecture and its objective is the discussion of the enterprising spirit. It is highly recommended that you attend this event.

Finally we wish you all a successful conference. May you achieve up to and beyond what you intended.

MESSAGE FROM
THE MAYOR OF KANAZAWA CITY

TAMOTSU YAMADE
The Mayor Of Kanazawa City

I wish to congratulate the 14,000 delegates from Japan and the other 18 countries of the Asian Pacific Region of the Junior Chamber International who have come to Kanazawa to attend the 1996 Asis Pacific Kanazawa Conference, and on behalf of the City of Kanazawa, welcome you all to our city.

The world is passing through a turbulent period of change, as the cold war system of international relationships has disappeared and we now face global scale environmental problems. One result of these changes has been a transformation of the environment surrounding sities: one forcing city planners to base their work on new concepts and new perspectives, and bringing us closer to the time when cities will become major participants in international exchange activities and international cooperation.

Last year, the City of Kanazawa enacted the "Kanazawa World City Concept" and has been working to achieve the concrete objectives expressed by the slogans: "a city which can express its unique features despite its small population" and "a city which can assert itself in the international sphere".

Under these circumstances, the advancement of a discussion of ways to create "the ear of the global citizen" in preparation for this new age based on the conference theme, "The Well-balanced Advancement of the Earth" is an extremely meaningful acitivity, and I am confident that many valuable lessons will be learned through this event.

I urge all the delegates attending the conference to familiarize themselves with our city, one where the traditional and the modern are in harmony, and to take this opportunity to enjoy Noh, Kyogen, Japanese music and other traditional performing arts for which Kanazawa is renowned, and to see our pottery, lacquer ware, and other products of our local craftsmen.

I hope that, through this conference, the delegates and the citizens of Kanazawa can achieve greater communication at a spiritual level, gain an understanding of each other's culture and history, and that you employ your richly creative ideas and energy to deepen bonds promoting peace and friendship.

In conclusion, I would like to express my heartfelt desire that the Kanazawa Conference is a complete success, and assure you that I am praying for a bright future for the Junior Chamber International, and for the continued health and good fortune of everyone taking part in this event.

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY KANAZAWA

We, the economic world members of this prefecture, would like to express our hearty welcome to you. We are happy to hold such a magnificent conference. The 1996 JCI-ASPAC in Kanazawa receives 12,000 participants from various parts of Japan and also 2,000 participants from 19 countries.

When we think of the present-day international situation, and the worldwide economic depression, we can not fail to note that there are many global problems to solve, such as the North-South problem, racial and religious disputes, trade friction, nuclear disarmament and the protection of the natural environment. We believe it is important to follow the theme "The well-balanced Advancement of The Earth", JCI members from Asia and the Pacific area who are leading the world into the 21st Century area exchanging opinion about issues of society, economy, technology and culture. We want the catchphrase "Future with Hope" to come true.

We expect this conference in Kanazawa to be of great success and to contribute significantly to the good relationship's and active human exchanges among people all over the world.

We are able to hold this convention thanks to the hard work of members of the Kanazawa JC. As a city which aims to be an International Convention City, the conference is very important for our future.

As the host city, we are looking forward to welcoming visitors to the green-leafed Kanazawa of early summer.

MESSAGE FROM

THE PRESIDENT OF JAPAN JUNIOR CHAMBER INC.

Clad in a softening scent of tradition and thriving progressive spirist, the historic city of Kanazawa warmly welcomes all of you.

Welcome to ASPAC!

Finally it's here, 1996 JCI-ASPAC Kanazawa, thanks to the dedicated efforts of all concerned. Aspirations are high for everyone, including JCI President Thomas J. Clear, III, and fellow Jaycees from overseas as well as from Japan. I am fortunate and delighted, as the President of Japan Junior Chamber, and on behalf of all Japan Jaycees, in offering this conference.

It is Kanazawa's characteristics that strike the ironic presence of ASPAC. Kanazawa is a flourishing town, hungry for the future, yet it uniquel combines Japan's mature tradition and culture, of which I hope you will be able to experience.

Japan Jaycees has 5 major point of basic principle this year, one being the focus on international relationships,thus the slogan, "Make a splash to get 'worldwide bonds'" These bonds can be created in several ways, for example between sister JCs or through JCI which transcends ethnic, religious and national borders. Bonding internationally helps us to realize that this is truly the way of life...a society where people can have pleasure and comfort in living and believing in a better tomorrow. We call this "A New Humanitarian Society".

To have the courage to "plunge" into a new humanitarian society is indeed the golden key which will open the door to The Age of Global Citizenship, JCI's major emphasis theme which comes to an end this year. The 1996 JCI-ASPAC Kanazawa is a wonderful opportunity for participant to feel the arrival of The Age of Global Citizenship and start working for his or her success.

The various exchange programs, beginning with International Night, will bring many new encounters and bonds, and form that rainbow bridge to leading us to a colorful bright future.

Your participation in the Mottainai Seminar and various other seminars will help enlighten you and hopefully allow you to have faith in a future society full of human love and hope.

Tightening the bonds between one another will lead to greater success of the wonderful JC activities and the creation of an ideal society, like the process of weaving each single thread painstakingly into the marvelous kimono material called Kaga Yuzen.

Please dare to take the plunge — the plunge into the circle of global citizens! Into ASPAC Kanazawa! I assure you that Kanazawa will not only give you deep memories but also allow you to rediscover yourself.

thank you.

THE WELL-BALANCED ADVANCEMENT OF THE EARTH
1996 JCI-ASPAC KANAZAWA

WELCOME FROM

THE PRESIDENT OF KANAZAWA JUNIOR CHAMBER INC.

On behalf of the 230 members of the Kanazawa Junior Chamber I would like to extend to all of you a warm welcome to the city of tradition and culture, Kanazawa.

I very much appreciate being able to hold ASPAC in this town, Kanazawa, and would like to thank all the JCI members for giving us this opportunity.

Since Kanazawa has been selected at the Kanazawa JC General Assembly in 1984 as the ASPAC host, the JC members have endeavored to improve themselves and have gained valuable experience through ASPAC promotion activities and preparation in which they received the cooperation from members all over the world.

Kanazawa is a city which has maintained traditional culture at the same time as developing high-tech industries.

We have been preparing ASPAC for a long time with the worlds "hospitality" and "communication" constantly present in our minds. Our intention is to offer all the delegates who are attending an opportunity for creating new bonds and carrying home a hopefully rewarding experience.

We hope all delegates will have the opportunity to explore Kanazawa, tasting its charm as well as the many local dishes available. We would like each JC members to join actively in the programs creating new connections and enjoying this unique conference.

The slogan of Kanazawa Junior Chamber for this year is "Grow Up For The Future2. Based on the bonds formed through ASPAC, we would like to operate further progress and to "Grow Up For The Future" with the support of JC members in Japan and in the world as well as that of the Kanazawa community.

Finally we would like to thank Ishikawa Prefecture, Kanazawa City, the Japan Junior Chamber and all the sponsoring industries, as well as the following organizations: the Junior Chamber International, the Japan Junior Chamber, the Co-hosting Junior Chamber, the Hokuriku-shinetsu District Council, the Ishikawa Block Council and the Sister Junior Chamber, the last 4 of which helped us with program management.

KOSAKU MATSUMOTO
JCI-ASPAC Kanazawa Conference Director

On behalf of 1996-JCI ASPAC KANAZAWA COC, It is great pleasure to extend warmest greetings to each and every deligates who came here all the way to Kanazawa. Since we won the bid at ASPAC SINGAPORE in 1994, our chapter members have been working with earnest enthusiasm to offer the best Conference to you, We faced with questions such as:

What is the best hospitality for the attending delegtes?
What type of Conference satisfiies and impresses the delegates most?

Although we have been working diligently and are very, very thankful for your cooperation and support, if our high spirits and anticipation of this Conference could speak, they would say, "We've got the Reindow Bridge right here in Japan!!!"

The theme of this Conference is "THE WELL-BALANCED ADVANCEMENT OF THE EARTH" We hope that the remalkable growth rate of Area-B members, this area will continue to prosper in the world and take fruit of this Conference delivered in Kanazawa and expand into your hometown in the near future.

This year is the final year of JCI Major Enphasis Theme "THE AGE OF GLABAL CITIZENSHIP". We hope we can make the commemorative Conference in which all your expectation will be met and thus, building rainbow bridges with your neighbors.

One of the five oppotunities of the JC movement, we chose one, "International Opportunity" In this Conference, we provide many programs to aid in the exchange between foreign members, so please attend "Japan Night," "International Night," "Sister JC Programs" and so on, because these programs will indeed, offer building marerials to that bridge. Also let's renew our friendship with old friends and make many new friends.

DESCRIPTION OF MAIN EVENTS

Opening Ceremony May 23, 16:30-18:30 Ishikawa Exhibition Hall No.4

This opening ceremony is an important event as it will communicate our "welcoming heart" as well as the significance of this ASPAC meeting. While introducing Kanazawa and Japanese tradition and culture in a human style, we will bring forth the opening of ASPAC. Starting with true Kagatobi [firemen] who will stand up 10 ladders, we will then announce a "great conference" theme image video, a vocal solo by TOYP grand prize winner Mr. HIROYASU KODA, a violin solo by Ms. Kazue Nishizawa, and the Subayashi dancing by East/West of kazoe city union. Finally, we will express our "Great Conference" theme and catch phrase's image through the three-part framework of Yesterday - Today - The Future. This is actually not the end of the opening ceremony, though. We would like the participants to feel a strong sense of symbiosis, environment, and interconnection, at what is but the start of ASPAC Kanazawa.

Ishikawa Welcome Party May 23, 18:30-20:30 Ishikawa Exhibition Hall, No.3

Held as the collaborative effort of the Ishikawa block council and 10 LOM from within the block, this is a welcome party aimed at general members, staged as a continuation of the opening ceremony. We wish the participants to feel local Ishikawa hospitality. With "Kanazawa as the stage for a [world village festival] scented with Kaga and Noto festival culture" as the theme, we hope the participants will enjoy traditional Japanese taiko drumming attractions as well as the special food and drink booths of the 10 prefectural LOM.

Japan Night May 24 20:00-23:00 Ishikawa Exhibition Hall, No.1,2.

With "Tradition and Innovation" as its theme, Japan Night, ASPAC's biggest festival, will express the power with which to open up the future and create a new reformation while following in line with tradition and culture.

Opening in Hall No. 1 will be fun PR attractions from all of the LOM (11 LOM at present). Booths serving food and beverage from the Hokuriku Shinetsu areas will be prepared, and to tie things together at the end, the curtain will close on a recital contest involving more than 100 Japanese taiko drums accompanied by synthesizer, shamisen, and koto.

In Hall No. 2 will be lined up the communications booths of the LOM from all the parts of Japan, introducing their respective local culture in an exchange with the visitors.

Outside, arriving participants will be welcomed at various places by street entertainers, and stands will be open to create an even livelier atmosphere.

International Night May 25 21:00-24:00 Ishikawa Exhibition Hall, No.1,3.

Based in the theme "Building Bonds of the Earth," the several ASPAC national nights which have heretofore been staged singly by the different NOM will this time be brought together under one roof in the Prefectural Industrial Exhibition Hall. We hope that many members will enjoy this as a great social event concentrating on unity.

Each country's PR time as well as a dance time will be prepared so that everyone can together enjoy Kanazawa's "Area B World."
