MESSAGE FROM GUEST OF HONOUR

For the past 46 years, the Hong Kong Junior Chamber has been taking a leading and important role in promoting the well-being of young people of Hong Kong. The Chamber has dedicated itself to fostering fellowship in young people and contributed to their advancement by providing them with the opportunity to develop leadership skills, responsibility towards the society and the family as well as towards building a positive attitude towards the long term future of Hong Kong.

I congratulate the Hong Kong Junior Chamber on the occasion of its 1997 National Convention. I am confident that with the fine tradition of the Chamber, our young people can continue to be equipped with the necessary skills and conviction to meet all the challenges of the 21st Century. All this is very important as Hong Kong enters into a new era to become the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region after 1st July.

Mr.David Lan, JP
Secretary For Home Affairs

MESSAGE FROM NATIONAL PRESIDENT

Every year, as the National Convention approaches, we are instantly showered with a furore of activities to round up the year and find ourselves immersed in mixed feelings of fulfillment, gratitude and perhaps, days gone by.

As I reflected upon my term of office this year, my sense of fulfillment comes from having accomplished a number of important goals that we have set out to achieve this year. First and foremost, the change of name to "Hong Kong Junior Chamber" has taken effect, bringing our organization in line with the development of JCI and other NOMs worldwide. To strengthen our commitment in furthering the objectives of the business opportunity, we have successfully hosted the "International Business Summit" earlier this month, which attracted a top-level international delegation to visit key industries in the cities of South China. And in an effort to cultivate stronger links with our senior members, we have established the "Assooiate Members Club" which will serve to amplify our collective resources, wisdom and strengths.

My sense of gratitude comes from having the opportunity to work with a great team of highly-dedicated NOM and LOM officers who have shared their time and talents to contribute to this organization. This is undoubtedly one of my most gratifying experiences and it is friendships and teamwork like these that make life as a Jaycee both rewarding and worthwhile.

Although the year is almost behind us, I have always stressed that the Jaycee movement is one of continuity and persistence. While days bygone will bring a touch of reminiscence here and there, the continuity of our mission and objectives can only be achieved by developing a forward-looking attitude and a keen sense of persistence. I hope we will take advantage of the National Convention to build upon these attributes, in addition to reflecting upon the year's achievements.

I wish to extend my sincere thanks to the hosting chapter of this National Convention, City Junior Chamber, for their hard work and contributions in the past few months. May I take this opportunity to wish every member a most productive Convention.

Henry U
National President

MEASSAGE FROM JCI WORLD PRESIDENT

It is with great pleasure that I extend my congratulations to Hong Kong Junior Chamber on the occasion of its 32nd National Convention.

As we rapidly approach the 21st Century, it is a concern to members worldwide that we need to develop excellent foundations for growth. Let us slow down and rebuild our foundations. Even the strongest foundations have slight cracks . This is the perfect opportunity to take a moment to repair and reinforce a base on which to build a stronger future. What are the basics - training, growth, development, and living the JCI Creed.

We must place emphasis on the training of our members. Teach them to grow and succeed individually, professionally, and within our beloved organization. Educated and motivated members will ensure the growth of the Junior Chamber Movement.

Please consider the development of our membership. We have so many opportunities in which to expand. It is important to grow in number, but taking the Junior Chamber Movement into new countries would be a wonderful accomplishment toward the new millennium. Let us also strive for growth in our established countries by reaching within our communities and reflecting the JCI Creed with our actions and deeds to those closest to us.

My goal for 1997 is to have our membership Anchored by the JCI Creed. Let us read the creed often, reminding ourselves that service to humanity is indeed the best work of life!

Best wishes for a wonderful and joyous convention.

Crispin C.Dy, Jr.
JCI World President

MEASSAGE FROM JCI EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

As the Executive Vice President assigned to Area B, it is my privilege and honor to address the officers and members of Hong Kong Junior Chamber on the occasion of their 32nd National Convention.

I would like to thank members of Hong Kong Junior Chamber for their outstanding leadership and support of our wonderful organization. Such devotion and dedication make us all proud to be a part of the Junior Chamber Movement. My goals this year are to grow not only within our established countries, but to expand our organization into new areas, countries not yet influenced by Junior Chamber.

While following the goals of President Crispin C. Dy and being Anchored by the JCI Creed, 1997 will be a good time to reflect on your dedication and leadership. It is an excellent time for all of us to look forward to the 21st Century and rebuild even strong foundations. I know by your hard work over the past years that you will continue to support the organization wholeheartedly.

I sincerely hope that Hong Kong Junior Chamber will continue to lead their members to even greater heights and take advantage of the Five Areas of Opportunity that are opening up all over the world . I am confident that your energy and enthusiasm will be a part of our fast-changing world. As the world is changing constantly, Junior Chamber must make every effort to be a leader with new ideas and projects. We should never forget to take advantage of all the wonderful training opportunities offered through Junior Chamber. Remember to participate whenever possible in the recruitment and training of new members.

I want to take this opportunity to remind each of you to continue to strive to make Junior Chamber an even greater organization. You are proof that our beloved organization is a positive force among people with ambition and a desire for personal improvement.

History of Hong Kong Junior Chamber

The Jaycees Movement reached Hong Kong in November 1949 with the arrival of a Philippine Jaycee John Ng who was the Special Liaison Officer of the Junior Chamber International 5th Congress charged with the mission of converting Hong Kong to Jayceeism.
