I send Project Chairman, Mr. Edmond Pang, and the Hong Kong Junior Chamber my sincere congratulations for organizing the very meaningful Ten Outstanding Young Persons Programme in Hong Kong.

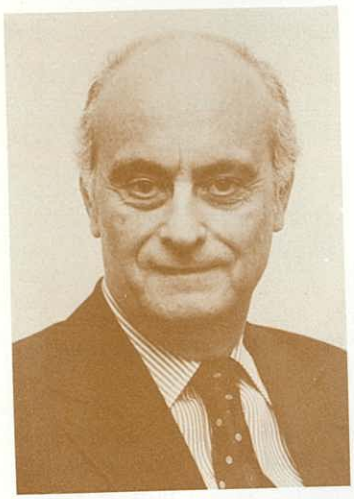

Through your annual TOYP Programme in the past years, we in Hong Kong were able to seek out and give recognition to some thirty-three outstanding young persons from various fields of activities. As your TOYP Programme gets more widely known to the community and your TOYP Award becomes increasingly prestigious, it will provide a very effective encouragement to the young generation of Hong Kong for achieving higher standards.

HONG KONG JUNIOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Since 1970, Hong Kong Jaycees had been organizing the "Ten Outstanding Young Persons" project and almost every year, less than 10 Outstanding Young Persons were selected. ## MESSAGE FROM
THE HON. CHARLES YEUNG, J.P.
Chairman of Hong Kong Jaycees Trust Fund

I am very happy to learn that Kowloon Jaycees have once again successfully launched the meaningful project of Ten Outstanding Young Persons this year in giving recognition to the outstanding young persons who have made exceptional advancement in their own development and examplary contribution to the community of Hong Kong.

This project is particularly befitting in our complex society as public acclamation will not only encourage the recipients of the awards for furtherance of their work but also serve as a catalyst to motivate more young people of Hong Kong to participate themselves in character building and involve themselves in community service.

The seriousness of the Kowloon Jaycees in their project is well illustrated by the systematic planning and careful selection of the awardees.

Congratulations to all Kowloon Jaycees for the work well done and with best wishes for more successes to follow.

CHARLES YEUNG

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT KOWLOON JAYCEES

"Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection 1978", a National Project of the Hong Kong Junior Chamber of Commerce. It is an honour that Kowloon Jaycees was granted the hosting right of this meaningful project this year again. But, without the support of our fellow chapters, and the guidance of the National Board of Management, Kowloon Jaycees would not be able to achieve it.

We felt gratified to our sponsors, selection consultants, judges and above all, the press and other public media who have given to our project great coverage through their publicity channels. Credits should also go to the hard working Organising Committee for their dedication and hard work.

Lastly, I would like to take this opportunity of expressing my sincere congratulation to all the Awardees; and wish the Outstanding Young Persons' Association every success in the years to come.

MESSAGE FROM ## THE CHAIRMAN
THE OUTSTANDING YOUNG PERSONS' ASSOCIATION

It gives us great pleasure to join with many others in giving public recognition to six outstanding young persons in Hong Kong, whose dedication to their profession and undertaking has resulted in exceptional achievements in making significant contributions to the progress/welfare of our society and the advancement of their respective fields of service.

Few would dispute the six recipients are indeed outstanding and most worthy of the award. However, the award carries with it certain responsibilities; it expects the recipients to maintain and make further outstanding contributions to our community. For this very purpose, the Outstanding Young Persons' Association (TOYPA) was formed in November, 1977.

Our Association has launched a Career Guidance Project for Young People. Through a series of 13-part half-hourly television programme ( 鵬 程 萬 里 ) which will be shown in both Chinese channels, a radio 'hot-line' programme and a correspondence service, we aim to unfold clearly career requirements and prospects of selected professions/trades which have high employment opportunities for young people in Hong Kong.

TOYPA heartily welcomes six new members. With added strength, we look forward to another fruitful year as we congratulate the Hong Kong Junior Chamber for its success in the 1978 TOYPA Selection.

Y.F. Hui
Chairman
The Outstanding Young Persons' Association

MESSAGE FROM THE PROJECT CHAIRMAN

The Jaycees in Hong Kong have been organising the Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection for five consecutive years since 1974.

Because of the worthwhile cause of the programme, the publicity it and the Awardees attract, it has now become talk of the town and is more intimately known as the 'TOYP' or ' 十傑 '.

Notwithstanding the fact that we have never been able to get ten Awardees in any of the past years, we have been right in keeping the high standards of the Awardees. This is evidenced by the fact that three Awardees decorated with the MBE honour and one Awardee appointed to the Legislative Council subsequent to their being awarded. In this respect, we are much thankful to the Panels of Judges and the Selection Consultants, who, apart from sparing their valuable time, have gone through a lot in keeping up such standards.

I am thankful to my deputy, Mr. Andrew Wong, my committee members and fellow Jaycees whose conserted efforts and help have enabled me to execute the project successfully.

EDMOND PANG

1978 TOYP Awardees

Awardee – Mr. Joseph CHEUNG Kwan-fai

Mr. Cheung progressed from a clerical position to a regional management position in McGregor Swire Air Services Ltd. and, in his capacity as the Chairman of the Association of Hong Kong Air Frieght Agents, he has become the apparent spokeman for the air frieght industry in Hong Kong.

Mr. Cheung is now mounting a highly pulbicised campaign against two material inequities that exist in the air freight industry, viz. exchange rates greatly out of line with prevailing markets rates, and excessive transhipment charges.

He has initiated training courses for members of the air frieght industry, thus improving the professional standards. Moreover, he has organised an innovative non-profit making service for handling unaccompanied baggages.

Mr. Cheung is also representing Hong Kong's air frieght industry in international and local forums, promoting its image and furthering its objectives.

It is therefore recognised that Mr. Cheung has truly made, and continues to make outstanding contributions to his industry, and therefore to Hong Kong, while rising impressively in his own career.

Awardee — Miss Nancy LOO Lai-sun

Miss Loo is a pianist of international repute and is generally recognised as one of Hong Kong's foremost pianists. With her willingness to return to Hong Kong and share her talents and fruits of her labour with the local community even though opportunities and atmosphere for here professional development are better abroad, she has set a good example to Hong Kong students who are studying overseas.

As a musician, Miss Loo has been successful in exercising self-discipline for the mastery of a fine art. She is also equipped with an enthusiasm to promote good music for all sectors and levels of our community.

Her work in recent years with the Urban Council concerts and in the Music Administrator's Office has been highly appreciated.

At present, Miss Loo and a few co-workers have organised an orchestra to give a number of concerts every month in schools, factories and public housing estates. Thus, she is performing a meaningful cultural service to our community.

Awardee — Mrs. Ophelia MACPHERSON CHEUNG Lok-ping

Mrs. MacPherson is at present the Executive Director of the Consumer Council. It is quite an outstanding achievement in itself to become the Executive Director of this organisiation. However, she has gone on from there to become an internationally recognised authority in consumer education in a very short span of time.

Apparently, she has made tremendous contribution towards consumer affairs in general and her efforts have had a strong impact towards legislation for consumers protection.

The 'Choice' magazine, started and edited by Ophelia, is also a success. It is amongst the top six monthlies in Hong Kong.

Her devotion to her work has produced efforts well beyond the requirements of her official position. And her dynamic personality, natural abilities and the effectual manner of operation have brought benefitial results to our community.

Awardee – Mrs. Grace WAN LEE Tze-huen

Mrs. Wan's contributions to the community have been made primarily in the context of her position as Director of St. James Settlement. However, she has clearly made a great impact upon the entire social welfare service in Hong Kong, particularly with regard to the care of the elderly. In fact, her efforts and authority in this field of services to the elderly have gained international recognition, which reflects well on Hong Kong as well as herself.

Mrs. Wan has been successful in pioneering of integrating diverse age groups for mutual help and in mobilizing local community participation in the services of her institution.

It was her own idea that the newspaper for the elderly, the 'Voice' be published and that is a concrete example of successful innovation.

In Mrs. Wan's case, personal and professional achievement and community contribution are all virtually synonymous.

Awardee – Miss Annie WU Suk-ching

It is truly an outstanding achievement for a person of Miss Wu's age to be the chief executive of a company of the size and scope of Star Promotions Ltd. Practically, she initiated the work of the company, including its formation and operations, the Harbour Village, the Yee Tung Village and the World Trade Centre Club.

Miss Wu has contributed successfully towards preserving traditional arts and crafts by selecting and locating artists and craftsmen in the Villages where visitors can see and appreciate their works.

In the field of catering, Miss Wu has also contributed substantially towards the successful operation of the Maxim's Group, including the Jade Garden and Peking Garden chains of Restaurants.

She has earned a position of respect and admiration in tourism and catering and she perceived the integral relationship between the two as she is always quick to grasp opportunities to promote one through the other.

Miss Wu is also known as a conscientious promoter of "Hong Kong" interest. In fact, she promotes Hong Kong first and her own business second.

Awardee — Mr. Howard YOUNG How-wah

Mr. Young sets an example of career success through hard wrok. He worked his way up from a trainee position to the senior management level at a very rapid rate, all the more outstanding considering his age and the size of his company — Swire Shipping (Agencies) Ltd. He has also apparently gained the respect of his peers, being an Executive Committee Member of the Hong Kong Management Association's Young Managers' Club.

Mr. Young conceived the idea of the Outward Bound (Alumnae) Association of Hong Kong. Apparently, he has made a great deal of effort just to gain acceptance for the idea of that organisation which had been abused elsewhere in the region.

It was his originality and success in getting the Outward Bound (Alumnae) Association going which drew attention and opened doors to other avenues of service to the Community. These include appointments to the Council for Recreation and Sports, the Social Welfare Advisory Committee and the Urban Council.

HOW JAYCEES BEGAN, GREW AND BECAME INTERNATIONAL

IT BEGAN . . . .

In 1915 when the thought of utilizing the young man-power of a community for public service came forcibly to a young man who conceived the Jaycee ideal, Henry Giessenbier.

The idea met with immediate response and on 13th October, 1915, at the Mission Inn, in St. Louis, an organization called "Young Men's Progressive Civic Association" was found, whose name became "Junior Citizens" until 1916.

After two years activity under that name, the local Chamber of Commerce gave its blessing to the movement and its name was changed to Junior Chamber of Commerce. Henry Giessenbier was elected President and Andrew G. Mungenast Secretary.

A caucus was held on 21st January, 1920, in St. Louis, at which 24 cities were represented. It was decided to organize the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce and held a convention in St. Louis in June to perfect a permanant organization.

In the United States, and it was also developing in other countries. By 1926, both England and Canada had chambers, and enquiries were being made from such distant countries as New Zealand and South Africa.

By 1933, Junior Chamber had grown to 158 units in the U.S.A., 16 in Canada, 14 in England, and one each in Australia, Colombia, Mexico, New Zealand and South Africa.

The year 1942 was a year in which hundreds of millions of men and women, and most of the nations of the world, were engaged in a war of unparalled destruction and tragedy. Yet within Junior Chamber individual actions were being taken which, while small in themselves, were a significant sign of the desire to achieve in the future a better understanding and relationship between men and nations.

In this year, the young leaders of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce change their bylaws to offer a seat on their National Executive Committee to President of the Canada Junior Chamber. In the same spirit, they passed a further resolution to sponsor the creation of Junior Chamber in Central and South America.

IT BECAME INTERNATIONAL . . . .

In early 1943 when two Junior Chamber members, Allyn Taylor, Canada, and Vance Graham, U.S.A., undertook an extensive tour in South America and formed Junior Chambers in Mexico, Guatemala, El Salvador, Honduras, Costa Rica, Panama and Nicaragua. Later that year the International Relations Committee Chairman of the United States Junior Chamber, Ray Wolff, visited the same countries and, through his efforts, plans were made for an inter-American Congress to take place in Mexico City in December 1944.

This Congress, which began on 7th December, was attended by 36 delegates from nine nations. Four days later, on 11th December, 1944, Junior Chamber International was born. Raul G. Vidal, of Mexico, was elected at this meeting as the first JCI President.

The first formally constituted JCI Congress followed in February, 1946 in Panama City, Panama, six months after the termination of World War II. Delegates and observers attended from Argentina, Brazil, Costa Rica, Chile, Ecuador, U.S.A. Guatemala, El Salvador, Honduras, Mexico, Panama, Peru, and Uruguay.

Today, over 500,000 young men and women in some 83 countries share the same ideals and principles and constitute the largest organization of young men in the world.

IN HONG KONG . . . .

Jaycee Movement was introduced in 1950 by a group of enthusiastic young men who were inspired by the work of the Jaycees operating in other parts of the world certainly benefit the young people of Hong Kong and the community at large.

It began with the establishment of the Hong Kong Junior Chamber of Commerce, in 1950. Its continued expansion and growth gives rise to the present development whereby there are nine chapters in Hong Kong, listed as followes:—

1. Victoria Jaycees (Established in 1965)
2. Kowloon Jaycees (Established in 1965)
3. Island Jaycees (Established in 1966)
4. Peninsula Jaycees (Established in 1969)
5. Hong Kong Jayceettes (Lady Chapter) (Established in 1969)
6. Lion Rock Jaycees (Established in 1970)
7. Harbour Jaycees (Established in 1976)
8. Yuen Long Jaycees (Established in 1976)

THE TEN OUTSTANDING YOUNG PERSONS SELECTION

1. Purpose

This project seeks to give communal recognition to the young people of Hong Kong, whose dedication to their profession or life undertaking, has resulted in exceptional achievements in the form of significant contributions to the progress or the community at large, or to the advancement of their respective fields of endeavour. The project aimed at attracting public attention, and giving proper recognition to the outstanding achievements of the winning candidates. They will then serve as inspirational examples to young people of Hong Kong to forge ahead to greater development of the community.

2. History

The history of the Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection dated far back in 1938, when it was first organised by American Jaycees and won wide-spread support from the community. Many of the recruits become eminent people later in their career.

To name some of them, the late President John Kennedy was selected at the age of 29 in 1964, when he was the Senator of Massachusetts. The former President Richard Nixon was selected in 1947 at the age of 34, when he was the Senator of California, being recognised for his outstanding contribution in Foreign Aids programmes.

3. Introduction to Hong Kong

The Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection was first introduced to Hong Kong by the Hong Kong Junior Chamber in 1970, iointly organised by the Kowloon Jaycees and Hong Kong Jayceettes. In this project, H.E. the Governor was the Patron. On the whole, it was very well received by the public. The current selection organised by the Kowloon Jaycees is the sixth.

4. Nomination and Selection
