Message From

National President of Hong Kong Junior Chamber

It is my great pleasure to extend to you my warmest welcome to the 37th National Convention of the Hong Kong Junior Chamber.

For the past 9 months, we have lived through the traditions of Junior Chamber: meetings, discussions, and lots of events to deliver and to attend. Tough it was, exhausting it was, I agree, but as the old clicheé "No Pain, No Gain", it is through the process that we learn the importance of setting targets and to achieve them. It is by such persistence that we are able to present to the General Assembly our accomplishments. This is an excellent experience to share with our delegates. This is also an excellent experience to apply to our own lives where we must set targets and strive for achievements.

The National Convention is the important event to review our progress, and at the same time, get ready for 2003. This year the Convention Organizing Committee is breaking away from the traditional 2-1/2 days convention to 2 days. I would like to congratulate them, for this change means improved efficiency for all of us. The Convention is where the General Assembly will gather and to receive the reports, to recognize achievements, to vote at the elections, and to meet friends. I encourage every delegate to attend through the events, for the Convention Organizing Committee has worked around the clock to deliver you the very best of the seminars, forums and Award Banquet which you just cannot afford to miss.

The slogan of this National Convention says "Breakaway! Create Positive Change". Let's review our current ways of conducting Junior Chamber affairs and formulate strategies to make our work more effective and our Junior Chamber life more enjoyable.

I wish to thank our Guest of Honour Professor Tsui Lap Chee and our distinguished guests for their support to our organization. I also thank the Convention Director John Chan and members of the Hosting Chapter Apex Junior Chamber for their hard work.

I wish all of you an enjoyable and productive Convention.

Tony Chan
National President
Hong Kong Junior Chamber

Message From
Convention Director

Welcome to the 37th National Convention of Hong Kong Junior Chamber.

It is my great honour to serve as the Convention Director, facilitating this important event. Time always seems to be insufficient for the organizing work. Nevertheless, the organizing committee is ready to deliver the best to the delegates.

This year's Convention Theme "Breakaway ! Create Positive Change" is meant to promote change, which is most needed nowadays for both continuous development of individuals and sustainable development of the community.

We have wide support from various entities in organizing such a large-scale project. Taking this opportunity, I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to our Guest of Honour, Professor Tsui Lap Chee, Vice Chancellor of The University of Hong Kong. I would also like to send my sincere gratitude to supporting entities : AIESEC in Hong Kong, Springtide Ballet, Scout, Direct Printing, ACME Creation and Rehabilitation Division of St. James Settlement. Special thanks also go to the prominent speakers Dr. Lee Peng Fei, Mr. Stephen Leung, Mr. Shek Kang Chuen, Mr. Sidney Yuen and Mr. Poh Teck Lim. Message From

President of Junior Chamber International

It is an honor for me to be at the helm of an organization like ours for this year, and it is with great pride that I send you this message of greetings for your National Convention. Pride because only a great amount of commitment and sacrifice can give the results that you attain.

As you prepare to hold your National Convention on September 28-29, 2002, I would also like to extend my greetings and best wishes to all your members as well as your expected delegates.

I would also like to remind each and every one to seize the opportunities offered by this upcoming National Convention, to learn and share your experiences, build new friendships and consolidate old ones, so as to become real "Entrepreneurs in Action".

As we strive to lay solid foundations for tomorrow's young people, remember that you can count on my full collaboration and that of the 2002 JCI team members.

Wishing you a memorable National Convention, I send you a warm "abrazo".

Message From

Executive Vice President of Junior Chamber International

I am happy to extend my sincerest and warmest greetings to the officers and members of Hong Kong Junior Chamber on the occasion of your National Convention.

Through the years your NOM has developed members who have excelled in their different fields of endeavor, may it be in government or the private sector. A clear sign is that they have been good members, living up to the ideals of the JCI Creed, thus contributing to the advancement of the community.

Our challenges today are a lot different from challenges when you started your Junior Chamber movement in your country. But with the continued growth of your organization, you will give opportunities to young men and women in taking advantage of what they will learn from the Junior Chamber. Sustaining the growth and development of your organization and community is a true essence of "Entrepreneurs in Action".

As you mark a milestone in the history of your NOM, let us extend our gratitude to those who have dedicated their time and effort in molding the organization to where it is now. May you continue to inspire new and young members to strive harder for the organization.

I congratulate the present national board headed by National President Tony Chan and I wish all the best to your successors.

More power to Hong Kong Junior Chamber!

Vice President of Junior Chamber International

It is an honor for me to assign to a NOM like yours for this year, and it is with great pride that I send you this message of greetings. Pride because only a great amount of commitment and sacrifice can give the results you attain in your endeavors.

You started off this year with the same enthusiasm that has always defined your actions in striving for growth and development in the organization. Please accept my heartiest gratitude for the great job you are doing and keep it up.

As Entrepreneurs in Action, you have made it your goal to sow the HKJC seed far and wide. You have made it your objective to help future Entrepreneurs in Action by teaching them what you have learned within the organization by sharing with them whatever experiences you have acquired so far, and especially, by showing them that WE CARE.

Please keep up the good work, and some day those who are receiving from you today will turn back, stretch out their hands and transmit to others what they have learned from you.

I have no doubt that we will all contribute with our deepest commitment and our best efforts to achieve a successful performance. For this purpose, you can count on my full cooperation and that of all the 2002 JCI team members.

All this is possible due to dedicated efforts of President, his Board Members and the general members. I take this honor of congratulating each one of you for your hard work in making this year a success.

The Hong Kong Junior Chamber convenes each year and elects in General Assembly a new group of young persons to whom its leadership is entrusted for the ensuing year.

They will strive with enthusiasm and confidence to attain new goals. Their fresh enterprise and hard work will inspire their members in all 18 Chapters to serve the community better while enriching their own personalities and gaining worthwhile experience for themselves.

I congratulate the new President and the Board of Directors on their election while thanking the outgoing leaders for their successful year.

Message From

Senate Chairman

It gives me great pleasure and honor to send my warmest greetings to the National Officers and members of Hong Kong Junior Chamber on the occasion of the 37th National Convention.

Senatorship confers "Life Membership" in Junior Chamber International, which is one of the highest and prestigeous honors that can be bestowed on the current or past members of our organization. It is a program, which has in a significant manner enhanced the prestige of Junior Chamber International by retaining the interest and support of many outstanding people throughout the world.

In the era of the new millennium, the challenges ahead of us are numerous. Our world is changing rapidly with the emergence of the new economy, evolution in technology and rapid advancement in communication. Competition among voluntary organizations is very keen. In order to excel, we have to reinforce our strength, enhance our ability in recruiting and maintaining our membership. To achieve this, "Mentorship" is one of the effective means in assisting our members to grow and develop and increase their understanding of our organization. I am very glad to see the members of the Senate Group of Hong Kong have played a significant role by taking up these challenging work of mentoring our new blood.

Lastly, I sincerely wish that the mentorship program will run effectively in our chapters and create a positive change to our organization.

Senate Chairman

Message From

Trustees Chairman

On behalf of the Board of Trustees I write to wish a most successful 2002 National Convention hosted by the Apex Junior Chamber for our entire Hong Kong membership.

The National Convention is for us to evaluate past performance, review objectives, set goals for the future and to elect our leaders for the coming year. I urge delegates to this National Convention approach these with an open mind and in a business like manner.

The Trust Fund of the Hong Kong Junior Chamber, set up many years back as the result of the wisdom and hard work of our forerunners in the movement, is now of a substantial size. Its existence is for the single purpose of supporting the endeavours of the organization in Hong Kong.

I encourage Chapters and the NOM alike to organize larger scale projects to train our members and to serve the community. Trust Fund subsidies to meaningful projects are there just for the asking.

Finally our best wishes again to every delegate to the National Convention!

Edmond Pang
Trustees Chairman

Message From

Long Range Planning Committee Chairman

It is a pleasure to send my warmest greetings to National President Tony, NOM and LOM officers, and all delegates on the occasion of the 37th National Convention of Hong Kong Junior Chamber.

The Convention serves many meaningful purposes. It provides a forum for the review of the effectiveness of our work in 2002, the exchange of viewpoints on issues impacting the development of the organization, and the election of new leadership.

Another highlight of the Convention is its theme and the associated seminars. This year's theme "Breakaway! Create Positive Change" would stimulate delegates to reflect on the areas of lives that require breakaway from the their current states for a more balanced and fulfilling life. Likewise, this theme would inspire delegates to reflect on Junior Chamber affairs - the breakaway aspects and the required strategies.

I trust that all delegates will enjoy every bit of this Convention and take as much as possible from this valuable occasion.

Last but not least, I would like to salute to those who have dedicated their efforts to create positive changes to the community, the organization and themselves.

Chairman
Long Range Planning Committee

Message From

Senior Member Club Chairman

With three months to go, year 2002 has proven to be one of the most challenging years in the history of Hong Kong, and I believe it has been no exception for our beloved organization. To come out from the current situation is no easy task, it takes will, power, vision, and unity to accomplish, and this is true both for our community and for Hong Kong Junior Chamber.

Over the past few years, lacklustre membership growth and lack of new project idea has been two of the main concerns of HKJC. This has been the same for many other organizations, and they will remain to be there in the near future. Knowing where the problems are is one thing, how to tackle them is another. I am confident that our current and future officers are well-trained leaders, and that they will lead our organization to create positive changes to our members and the community. It is the purpose of the founding of Senior Member Club 5 years ago to help NOM and LOMs in facing these challenges and this will remain as one of our main objectives.

In this 37th National Convention, representing Senior Member Club, I wish all NOM and LOM officers a meaningful and fruitful annual meeting, and a successful event hosted by Apex Junior Chamber who gave tremendous effort in providing us a memorable convention.

Johnson Chan
Chairman
Senior Member Club

Message From

President of Hosting Chapter
Apex Junior Chamber

On behalf of Apex Junior Chamber, I would like to welcome you to the 37th National Convention of Hong Kong Junior Chamber.

This is our pride to host the National Convention, a real big challenge since the chartering of our Chapter in 1994. We are committed to bring about an enjoyable and inspiring National Convention.

We are delighted to have the Honorable Professor Tsui Lap Chee, the Vice Chancellor of The University of Hong Kong as our Guest of Honour, and other VIPs, sponsors and various organizations to join this great event.

The Convention Theme is "Breakaway! Create Positive Change". I hope everybody would be enlightened and become more competent individuals in the current challenging environment.

This convention covers assemblies and forums, caucus and election sessions, theme and training seminars, luncheon and banquet. It is a golden time for us to renew and make friendships, to attend showcase and learn from fellow Chapters' successful projects, and to recognize the outstanding projects and personal contributions made by Chapters and members. Perhaps most importantly, we have an opportunity to "recharge our batteries".

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the National Board and all local Chapters for their full support. My sincere thanks to the members and helpers of the Convention Organizing Committee, especially AIESEC for their assistance on administration and technology support. A big thanks to the Convention Director John Chan, our Charter President Senator Justin Lui & all Advisors for their time and efforts devoted to organizing this event for the past months.

Last but not least, the Convention cannot be a success without the participation of delegates. I wish the incoming National Board and the Hosting Chapter of the 38th National Convention a very fruitful year. May everything be the best in the years ahead.

Marisa Choi
President
Apex Junior Chamber

Convention Theme

"Breakaway! Create Positive Change"

Hong Kong and its citizens have been experiencing big challenges in recent years. On the economic front, our economy is maturing where future growth is not expected to be spectacular. Hong Kong is still in search of its new role following China's accession to World Trade Organization. Corporations have difficulties in delivering shareholder values while fulfilling their obligations as corporate citizens. The achievement of productivity improvement seems to be a universal tactic to increase competitiveness and to sustain profitability. It calls for both streamlining of workforces, and enhancement of capabilities and work practices. Individuals have to cope with new environments, upkeep their competitiveness and meet new challenges either in workplace or other social aspects.

The theme "Breakaway! Create Positive Change" is considered timely. The series of theme and training seminars will arouse the participants' awareness of the need for breakaway from current states of different areas of life. Moreover, it will help them formulate breakaway strategies that collectively will lead them to a more balanced and fulfilling life. Participants will acquire insights into the subject matter through experience sharing by the speakers and discussions amongst themselves.

History of Hong Kong Junior Chamber

Background

The Junior Chamber movement reached Hong Kong in November 1949 with the arrival of a Philippine JC John Ng who was the Special Liaison Officer of the Junior Chamber International 5th Congress charged with the mission of converting Hong Kong to Jayceeism. Through the introduction of his cousin, Mr. Alex Ng, a JCI Senator, Mr. John Ng was presented to Rev.E.Bourke, former Director of Wah Yan Collage, Hong Kong. A meeting was then arranged for him to meet a group of young businessmen. During the meeting, Mr. John Ng's explanation of the aim and purpose of the Jaycee movement succeeded in firing the imagination of his audience. Eight days later, a sponsor group of Hong Kong Junior Chamber of Commerce was formed and Mr. Paul Lim was elected as Convener of the Organizing Committee. Mr. Austin Coates from Hong Kong Government, the Assistant Colonial Secretary of Hong Kong, was assigned to serve as Advisor of the Organizing Committee.

The tempo of laying the foundation of the Chamber was further accelerated when Mr. Ramon V. Del Rosario, the JCI Vice President for Asia, offered to recommend prompt recognition for the Hong Kong's Jaycee membership status. He also invited the Organizing Committee to send observers to Manila. The account of their vivid experience gave Hong Kong observers a deeper insight into Jaycee movement. A week later, the Provisional Constitution was adopted. On April 6, 1950, the Inaugural General Meeting of the Hong Kong Junior Chamber of Commerce was held and the first Board of Directors was elected. On May 6, 1950, Mr. Roberto Vilanueva, the JCI Vice President for Asia, inaugurated the Hong Kong Junior Chamber of Commerce.
