MESSAGE FROM

NATIONAL PRESIDENT

Finally, my term of office has come to the last quarter of 2019. It is a year full of excitement and challenges! This year, the theme of JCI Hong Kong is "keep changing the world". What have we changed?

Have the changes provided a better future for our society? Have we developed more capable young leaders to change the world? To me, the answer is yes and no. Recently, a significant social movement is taking place in Hong Kong. As a person who lives in Hong Kong for more than 30 years, it is very obvious to me that Hong Kong is in deep water and it will take more than 1 year to heal. But if we carry on the spirit of continuously changing the world and making it a better place, I believe that we, as active citizens, will eventually create a brighter future!

During my presidency, one very crucial lesson that I learned is to make difficult decisions and be responsible for these decisions. During these challenging days, many of our projects have to be postponed or canceled. Our Chairpersons and organizing committees have to make these important decisions. JCI is a leadership training organization. Through organizing different projects, we build our leadership skills. Sometimes when things are not going as planned, it is an opportunity to learn. No one was born to make difficult decisions, but as a leader, we have to be ready to stand up and face the challenges.

Last but not least, I believe that Hong Kong will get better and stronger again. Young leaders like us definitely play an essential role. Stay strong, and stay united! We will keep changing the world in a positive way!

Cilla Ng, a Wan Chai grown up girl is now serving the globe in an organization with the principle of sovereign human equality, the United Nations. She is now working in the International Narcotics Control Board (INCB), Vienna office as a Drug Control Officer. Her life thoroughfare is filled with vivid colors and this interview has revealed her UN journey over the past eleven years.

Adapting working style to the needs

'Adapting myself to the situation in different location facilitates my job in UN', said Cilla. Cilla was born and raised up in fast-paced Hong Kong. After graduating from the University of Hong Kong, she entered a private bank and processed different economic data every day. Her main job was to produce financial market forecast based on evidence and reasoning. After a while, she became an economist in the Office of the Government Economist. Unlike her previous job, she did not provide the forward-looking economic trend, but rather reports on fundamental analysis.

In 2008, she was employed as an Associate Human Settlement Officer in UN-Habitat (Nairobi, Kenya) through the United Nations National Competitive Examination in Economics (now known as Young Professionals Program).

With this assignment, she no longer focused on only future or past, but also on all city-level statistics.

Since 2013, she has been working as a Drug Control Officer in the Psychotropics Control Section of the Secretariat of the International Narcotics Control Board (INCB) in Vienna. According to Cilla, a minimum of 6 months adjustment is required whenever she moves from one duty station to another, given the cultural differences in different duty stations. Working at different positions takes her times to adjust to different operation modes too. It has taught her to slow down the pace, allows herself to familiarize with different cultures and evaluate data from different perspectives before reaching final conclusion.

Glocalization in a connected world

'Every duty station I stay is my home; and I love every home I stay', said Cilla. Before joining the UN, Cilla 's life was stable and she was not used to living in different places. "When you work in UN, it becomes common for people to work in a country for a few years and then transfer to another country."

A thorough understanding of the local practice is the key to win trust and ensure safety. She began her journey from Nairobi, capital of Kenya. It was her first time to Africa and soon she realized the importance of understanding the local culture and making friends with the local. This has helped her to build up the sense of belonging and also as an essential tool in work. "In a social context where human connection is the key and yet hairstyles might be changed frequently, it is extremely important that one demonstrates care and concern to your colleagues". In face of a high risk of vehicle hijackings and common power outage, Cilla learned to work in the dark and shared car rides with colleagues and friends.. Another tip is to fill your car half-full so that the hijacker cannot take you too far away from home in case of danger.

When Cilla lived in Hong Kong, she could hardly imagine how incidents happening in another country incident would affect her life. However, it did happen after her relocation to Vienna, her second station in UN's career. Her landlady rented the flat to her because she was offered a job in Egypt. The rental contract was signed a month before the landlady's move to Egypt. However, owing to the spread out of Arab Spring from Tunisia to Egypt in January 2011, her landlady had to postpone the move to Egypt and the rental contract was cancelled. How she would have foreseen the political uncertainty in North Africa to have affected her life in Central Europe! . It disrupted her plan, but thanks to her friends in Vienna everything was resolved at the very last minute.

In UN, Cilla meets colleagues from all over the world and through them she knows more about the world. During a regular team building event, one colleague from Lebanon suddenly got emotional and could not stop crying. Later, Cilla found out that the day was her brother's 10th death anniversary. Her brother was killed by a bomb in the civil war in Lebanon and after that, the ruin in her heart has never been cured. This incident has taught her to keep a contented mind and treasure every single moment with the beloved ones. She skypes with her family every week and travel for holiday with her family every time when she comes back to Hong Kong.

No man is born wise or learned. Cilla feels lucky to meet her life mentor, Mr. Stefan Schweinfest, when she worked at the Statistics Division in New York. Stefan has demonstrated a leadership and management style with a personal touch. He has been giving colleagues time, patience and guidance no matter how busy he is. Even though Cilla has left the Division six years ago, they have managed to stay in touch and exchange views on various matters, especially on her UN career and her current academic research.

Perseverance beyond borders

'People gets to know Hong Kong from me because each of us is the ambassador of our own place, said Cilla. UN aims at promoting international peace and security based on human equality. There are numerous challenges throughout this pursuit and the spirit of perseverance is essential. Cilla thinks this is align with Hongkonger's Lion Rock Spirit. Rooted in her blood, there is the 'can-do' attitude. For example, power shortage is common in Kenya. Cilla was required to work in the dark and be focused on her data analysis of human settlement in front of the computer. In Iran, women must cover their heads with a scarf and men will never shake hands with the opposite hands. Cilla could not be an exception; even she was being invited for a business trip there. It was not easy for her as such culture contradicts her belief of gender equality. Yet, she could still demonstrate her professionalism and treated the experience as a self-development lesson.

Hong Kong is a cosmopolitan city; people here enjoy free access to all kinds of information. We can travel to any part of the world easily too. Cilla encourages our young population to keep an open mind to the world on the career path. This is our competitive edge. Bear in mind that no matter you are assigned to work in New York or to serve in a tiny little town in the middle of nowhere, every experience will nurture your life journey.

Sustainable Public-private Partnership

'Synergy between private and social sectors is vital to bring any SDG into success', said Cilla. Her current work in UN concentrates on SDG no.3 Ensure healthy lives and promote wellbeing for all at all ages. She and her colleagues at the Secretariat of INCB, together with thirteen Board Members are targeting at the balance between the control and medical use of drugs by governments. This year, she has also enrolled into the AsiaGlobal Fellows Program launched by HKU, which is a 13-week residential study program for mid career professionals. She notices that many Asia-based enterprises has become influential in global market. She believes that long-term cohesion built between NGOs and these private companies will echo SDG's impact to local society. She is impressed by what JCIHK has done on promoting SDG in Hong Kong and agreed that our society shall pay more attention to the SDG issue. Finally, Cilla gives a remark on JCIHK's partnership with other organizations who sharing similar vision to work together and share lessons learnt. It will maximize the synergetic power on public promotion on targeted SDGs.

Interview with MS TERESA POON, 2019 JCI VICE PRESIDENT

Teresa Poon served JCI as Vice President for Asia and the Pacific in 2019. She has worked in various capacities within JCI since 2008, serving as Local President of JCI City Lady in 2011 and Secretary General for 2012 JCI Asia-Pacific Conference Hong Kong. In the following years she continued to serve the community as National Vice President and National General Legal Counsel and became National President in 2017.

Driven by the JCI vision, "To be the leading global network of young active citizens", JCI VP Teresa has been actively involved in Area Conference and World Congresses, she has truly leveraged the JCI global network and made her a successful global networker.

Q: What are the major duties of JCI VP? How is it similar or different from being National President?

The main roles of National President are to managing the board of directors, serving as chief executive officer of JCI Hong Kong, enhancing bonding between 21 chapters as well as to inspire members by delivering speeches to local chapters. One of the examples was "Good morning NP" sessions in which new members chatted with NP face to face. I could listen to members' thoughts and motivate members from all local chapters. In contrast to National President, the main focus of JCI VP is to inspire members by making courtesy visits to different countries and to promote their events to other parts of the globe.

Q: As a JCI VP overseeing different NOMs, what are the major differences you have observed between Hong Kong and other countries? What are the major advantages do we possess?

I am being assigned to five National Organizations (NOMs) - JCI Japan, Korea, Mongolia, Taiwan and Vietnam this year. In comparison to other NOMs, Hong Kong benefits from its natural geographic advantages as an international hub, every year we are pleased to have so many JCI Hong Kong delegates participating ASPACs and World Congresses.

Despite the fact that we do not have many members compare to other NOMs, it is actually regarded as advantageous for us. In area such as Japan, members are only offered limited tasks and taking post in National level or international level would be quite competitive. Whereas as a Hong Kong member, we are often required to be multi-tasking, which offered us diversified platform to become all-rounded people.

Q: What was the spark that attracted you to join JCI initially?

I would definitely say the "I" element in the word JCI. The first JCI event that I joined was ASPAC Nagano in 2009. It was very impressive to see the whole town full of JCI members, full of positive energy in the atmosphere. I was delighted to meet members from multicultural backgrounds; this was the place where my global networking journey has begun. Since then I have never missed any single ASPAC or World Congress, literally "fell in love" with those conferences and global exposure.

Q: Are there any particular events or a person (伯　樂) who have inspired and guided you during your JC life?

There are indeed a lot influential persons in my JC life but if I can only name one person, I would like to express my gratitude and appreciation to JCI Honorary Advisor and 1979 Hong Kong National President Senator Sonny Yu. In 2012, I worked as the Secretary General in Hong Kong ASPAC. He has fully supported and guided me throughout the entire event. Not only have I learned how to communicate efficiently with a senior level and interact with people from different countries, I have learnt better time management and well equipped with event management skills.

Q: JCI has established in more than 100 countries around the world, how are these countries being managed?

Each JCI VP was assigned to oversee several countries, every year in the General Assembly, we review the status of national organizations, headquarters performance, modifying policy and elect new group of board members. For countries where the number of members are dropping below minimum required numbers, we would organize "Mission trips" to make a visit and to diagnose their issues and provide trainings to try to tackle the issues with them.

Q: What are the major challenges of being JCI VP?

As a JCI VP, our major responsibilities are to inspire members as well as to provide guidance to support their NOMs, however, being objective is perceived as the most difficult aspect in our role. Sometimes we encountered situations where there are members seeking for advices or decisions from us, however, as a JCI VP, we have to be caution on what comments we are giving specially for conflicting issues involving different parties. The best we could do is to discuss the pros and cons with them without making any biased decisions for them.

Q: As being a director of 3 companies as well as JCI VP, how do you strike a balance between work and JC life?

As a JCI VP, I have to travel frequently for conferences and make courtesy visits to affiliated countries, therefore in order to manage both JC work and the companies, the empowerment of employees and training up leaders in each department are definitely the key for such balance.

Apply what I have learned in JCI and to align with the JCI mission, I believe that by empowering people and providing opportunities for them to learn and to become leaders, would not only enhance their loyalty to the companies, but would also create a synergic effect for both the company and the employees to grow.

Q: What take home messages would you give to our members?

JCI Hong Kong is definitely a blessed land, there are so many opportunities around us. We should not underestimate the outcomes every single task, even if it is as minor as picking up a JCI oversea delegate from the airport to the hotel, you never know who you would meet and whether that conversation would inspire and change your life.

JCI is a place to build up your credits and reputations, a place fueled with positivity and energy. We shall not let any negative thoughts erode our passions, as a young citizen, we should always possess positive attitude and be willing to go the extra miles for self-development. Opportunities are always for people who are well prepared and equipped.

Q: How would you position yourself in year 2020?

In the coming year, I will keep exemplifying the spirit of JCI creed, mission and vision by providing training opportunities and all the necessary assistance, in order to nurture young people to create positive change.

JCI HONG KONG – THE 54TH NATIONAL CONVENTION

"DEVOTE - REFORM - ACHIEVE" is not just a slogan! This year JCI Island united all JC members' great power of devotion to achieve remarkable success for JCI Hong Kong – The 54th National Convention. Glorious meeting facilities, reforming event arrangements as well as world-class hospitality services created memorable convention experience that our delegates and guests cherish.

Opening Ceremony at Pui Ching Primary School

This year we were deeply honoured to invite Dr. Bernard Chan Pak-li, JP, Under Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development to be our Guest of Honour to witness the official opening of JCI Hong Kong's 54th National Convention.

Dr. Joseph Chan recognised our contributions over these years and encouraged us to contribute more for the betterment of Hong Kong.

Tailor-made programmes and trainings

We have devoted ourselves to provide high-quality programmes and trainings to enlight our JC members to create more powerful impact to the local community or even the globe. Through participation in General Assemblies, our JC members could learn how JCI Hong Kong has focused our members' power to advance sustainable impact over the past year.

Two keynote speakers were invited to share reforming ideas in theme seminars. Mr. Ricky Wong is currently a telecom and media entrepreneur in Hong Kong. He is also the Co-Founder and Chairman of Hong Kong Television Network Limited. He shared his own formula in facing challenges and how to think outside the box while tackling problems. Mr. Eric Yeung, Chairman of E-Sports Association Hong Kong, acted as another guest speaker of the seminar. He has graciously taken his time to provide our members with an introduction and summary on the characteristics and development of e-sports around the world. These meaningful sharings would definitely drive our JC members to achieve more sustainable impact throughout their JC journey.

Dynamic outdoor activities to demonstrate positive power

"Walk for Peace" is one of our signature events to celebrate the United Nations' International Day of Peace. Our active JC members woke up early in the sunny morning and walked in a unique way – 10-legged walk from Disneyland Hotel to Disneyland Explorers Lodge. It was really worthwhile for us to spread the message of diminishing conflicts and promoting peace to more and more people. Meanwhile, "Alumni Trip" has been newly designed for alumni members to demonstrate their power and talents through some orienteering activities at the Inspiration Lake Recreation Centre. It was an excellent oppoortuniy for our alumni to gather together with pleasure and enjoyment.

Unforgettable magical moments for recognition and celebration

With all your strong support, JCI Hong Kong's 54th National Convention attracted a full house of attendance. Over 550 participants shared their happiness and celebrated JCI Hong Kong's remarkable accomplishments in this year. On behalf of the organizing committee, may we express our sincere gratitude and immense appreciations to all delegates, guests and friends who have offered generous support to us!

JCI HONG KONG SENATE

Senate Luncheon

A fantastic afternoon in the Sleeping Beauty Ballroom at Disney Hotel with our Senators! Senate Luncheon during the National Convention was successfully held on 21 September 2019 with 150 participants. We enjoyed the beautiful lunch and deepened our friendship. The highlight of the luncheon was the Keynote Speech by our honourable guest speaker, Chairman of Committee on the Promotion of Civic Education (公民教育委員會主席), and also our Honorary Advisor, Ms. Melissa Pang, MH, JP, who addressed the topic of "Women in Leadership and the Future of Civic Education" . The meaningful sharing and insights empowered us to act for the future.

Senate Cup

To celebrate JCI Hong Kong progressing towards its 70th anniversary in this racing season, JCI Hong Kong Senate proudly presented the JCI Hong Kong Senate Cup on 6 October 2019 at Shatin Racecourse. 84 Senators, National Officers and Local Chapter Presidents attended. The participants enjoyed the race with the delicious buffet. Racing Specialist shared insight of the races. Senators and all relaxed in joy and laughter.

The odds of the winning horse 英明神駒 was at 176 to 1 which was a happy surprise to those who placed their bet upon it since the horse did not win in the past three years. A few Senators won through the betting tickets they received from Senate Committee.

JCI Hong Kong Senate Chairman Senator Ronald Kan presented JCI Senate Cup to the winner owner after the race. In addition, JCI Hong Kong National President Senator Zenith Lin and Past JCI Hong Kong Alumni Club Chairman and Sponsor Senator Sam Sio presented miniatures of the cup to the Trainer and Jockey of the winning horse.

Shell/Island Scholarship for the Disabled

Since 1981, "Shell/Island Scholarship for the Disabled" has been launched for celebrating those outstanding students with special education needs ("SEN Students"). As one of the recognized scholarships in Hong Kong, this project has arouse public awareness on SED students and promoted harmonious learning environment in Hong Kong.

It is well known that many musically talented SED students are competent to demonstrate high-quality musical performance after repetitive and intensive training. To recognize our SEN students' musical talents, "展樂 - 融樂" has been selected to be our theme this year. In the award ceremony, we are delighted to invite Mr. Lai Kam Tong, Godwin (Principal Assistant Secretary (Special Education) of the Education Bureau) and Ms. Joanna Chow (General Manager – Commercial, Shell Hong Kong Limited) as the officiating guests.

On that day, the audience not only witnessed the recognition of outstanding SEN students but also enjoyed impressive musical performance. The first performance was recorders played by Mr. Harry Wong, Mr. Eddie Lau and Mr. Peter Wong. As for the second session, Mr. Yang Enhua, a famous erfu musician, played the song "Sai Ma" (i.e. horse-racing). The audience enjoyed the show with full enjoyment and recognition.

樂聚半島 • 非凡50呈獻「擁抱多元工作計劃 Project Embrace」

多元文化 無分你我 Multi-Culture He She We!

少數族裔人口是香港社會結構的一個組成部分，非華裔青年亦是社會活力的人才資產。半島青年商會期望能協助本地少數族裔建立積極公民的價值觀。活動請來2018十大傑出青年得獎者Mr. Vivek Mahbubani擔任活動大使，並邀得來自6個國家或地區的國際青年商會代表，分組與超過20名來自香港的少數族裔，包括印度、巴基斯坦等青年，一同製作富有民族色彩Henna曲奇，並請來少數族裔兒童表演經典粵劇曲目及節奏口技(beatbox)，期望能打破大眾對表演藝術屬於單一文化的固有印象。同時，亦邀請了平等機會委員會代表分享有關香港少數族裔在就業上的政策。

FutureWe do not need magic to change the world, we carry all the power we need inside ourselves already: we have the power to imagine better." - J.K. Rowling

We always remind ourselves to change the world. On this 50th Anniversary year, we prepared 50th Anniversary Celebration Banquet to gather all HK Jayceettes from the past to present, together with our beloved overseas delegates as well. Along with our slogan, "The Golden Past, A Gleaming Future", we took this chance to celebrate the projects we had done in the past 50 years' time. We revisited our projects to remind ourselves, to inspire others and to connect with our society. By renewing our bonding with overseas delegates, we were confident to work closer to change the world.

Our 50 years of journey would not be this fruitful without our overseas friendships and support. To give back, we were more than happy to join World Congress 2019 in Tallinn, Estonia. Having Vincy Wong to present JCI Hong Kong Jayceettes, JCI Hong Kong and Asic-Pacfic, in the JCI Public Speaking Championship to create impactful changes. She shared with us, to determine what type of impact we can create – preservation of our present or long-lasting and positive impacts. Champions from other regions also kindly exchanged their ideas inspiring our directions of projects onwards. Our inspiration also came from witnessing our Past President Winnie Yeung being recognized as the "Grand Slammer", which set us an example by her active participation in conferences.

Coming to the end of 2019, we thrived to gather experiences and overseas examples to visualise how to unleash our potential, how to create impacts and how to make a better world. Above all else, let us continue supporting each other – the foremost example set for bringing positive impacts to the society.

The Best Employee and Employer Award 2019 (BEEA)

"The Best Employee and Employer Award 2019" ("BEEA") has been JCI Dragon's highlighted flagship project for long. Year 2019 is the 5th year in running for this amazing project. OC team, led by our project chairman, Mr. Samuel Wong, continues to sustain the vision: "To promote and cultivate a good and sustainable relationships between Employers and Employees and in creating positive social impacts on our society."

This year, BEEA 2019 focuses on Corporate Social Responsibilities (CSR), which is a hot topic for corporates in recent years. Profitability is no longer the major criteria in assessing a business, as to its success. Instead, CSR is arousing attention from the general public to assess a business by its contribution to our society apart from making profit. CSR is a business approach that contributes to a sustainable development by delivering economic, social and environmental benefits to all stakeholders.

Flagship Project - Children's Play Rights

Article 31 - I have a right to relax and play.

Article 31 of the UNCRC says that children and young people have the right to have fun in the way they want to, whether by playing sports, watching films, or something else entirely. They have the right to rest, too.

Children and young people should be able to take part freely in cultural activities, just like adults. The government should make sure it's easy for them to participate despite their disabilities.

JCI Tsuen Wan launched a flagship project Children's Play Rights since 2017 to react this article. Play Date is a part of Children's Play Rights project and it was successfully held on 7 April 2019. We invited 15 pairs of parents and children to participate in this event and 2 professional instructors were there to teach parents to play with your kids and demo in real time. All children were having fun during the event and parents learnt that FREE PLAY is good for children to inspire their creative and enhance communication skills.

In addition, to enhance the social impact and let more parents to know about children's right to play, we also successfully held a Children's Play Rights Carnival on 28 July 2019 at Tsuen King Circuit Sports Centre in Tsuen Wan, over 5000 participators joined and had a fun weekend.

JCI Lantau's April Monthly Fellowship Gathering

JCI Lantau's April Monthly Fellowship Gathering, was conducted on 13 April, 2019 in the CLP Power's power academy at Shek Mun hosted by CLP Power's immediate past managing director, Ir. Paul Poon. Ir. Paul Poon demonstrated his 38 years of power industry experiences bringing into light to the participants of managing a stock listed giant on innovating the ways of how Hong Kong is powered while attaining United Nation's Sustainable Development Goal No.7, Affordable and Clean Energy.

Despite Hong Kong's standard of living and the unparamountly high land value, CLP is still able to generate power and distribute power at a reliability of 99.999% that is more reliable than cities like New York or London while at the same time CLP is charging energy rate that is lower than our neighbor cities in China? Through the influential talks by Ir. Paul Poon, the participants inspired the step up of quality goods and manage the operating costs with competitive selling prices.

Throughout the presentation (Cleaner Energy Greener Future), the participants exposed to the different opportunities of building a cleaner Hong Kong for the future. While so, the participants put into perspective about the business opportunities on how CLP has exploited the green power throughout Asia Pacific. Moving towards a greener future can also be profitable and the business opportunity for cleaner energy has untold business opportunities.
