My warmest congratulations to all the awardees of the Ten Outstanding Young Persons (TOYP) Selection 2022 on their achievements, as well as to Junior Chamber International Hong Kong (JCI Hong Kong) on the joyous occasion of TOYP Selection celebrating its 50th anniversary!

Founded in 1970, TOYP Selection is a flagship project of JCI Hong Kong to give formal recognition to young people who have excelled themselves in their professional endeavours and made outstanding contributions towards shaping a better future for society. Over the past five decades, TOYP Selection has successfully identified and commended close to 400 outstanding young leaders in various fields, empowering them with the prestigious TOYP recognition and, more importantly, motivating them to advance further.

This year, the theme of TOYP Selection is "Rise for the Future" and could not be more timely: as Hong Kong has entered a crucial stage of advancing from stability to prosperity, we are now aptly positioned to map out comprehensive strategies for youth development and create more opportunities for our young people to develop, flourish and rise for the future.

Similar to JCI Hong Kong, the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) attaches great importance to fostering youth development. It strives to assist young people in overcoming hurdles in education, employment, entrepreneurship and home ownership, so that they can see hope and opportunities for upward mobility. To this end, the HKSAR Government's inaugural Youth Development Blueprint is set to drive Hong Kong's comprehensive youth development by outlining a clear vision underpinned by guiding principles and major directions. With this blueprint, various sectors of society would be able to align their foci with the HKSAR Government's and take forward youth-related work in a more concerted manner.

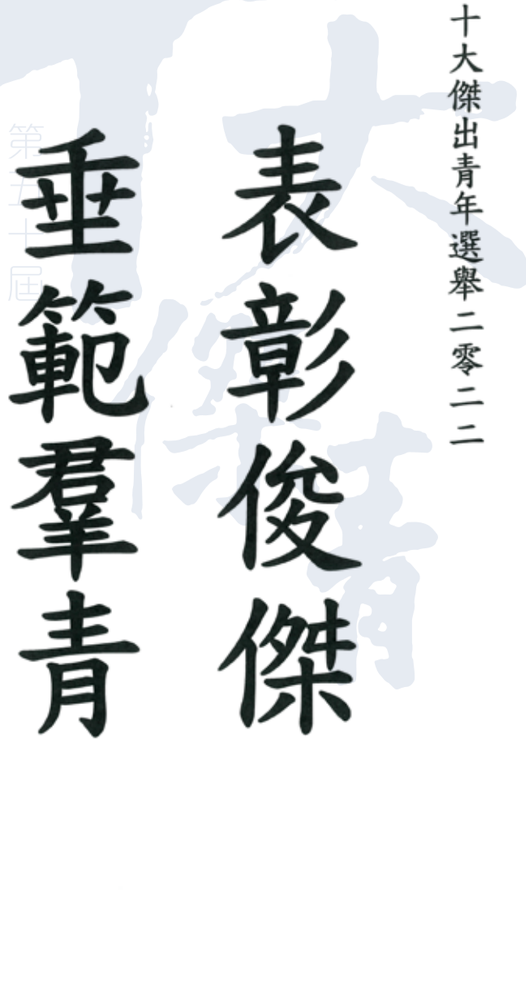

Young people are the future pillars of our society. I am confident that TOYP Selection, under JCI Hong Kong's sterling leadership, will continue to go from strength to strength, giving recognition to more outstanding young people with an affection for our Motherland and Hong Kong and a global perspective. I look forward to joining with JCI Hong Kong in building a brighter future for our young generation!

Ms. Karen YEUNG

First of all, my heartfelt congratulations to the 8 Outstanding Young Persons being selected this year. I truly believe that your stories are the living examples for today's young people, and well demonstrate our project theme "Rise for the Future".

This year marks the 50th round of the selection, amplifying our dedication to uphold our precious value in recognizing outstanding young persons in town. To keep this well-known brand reputable, it's totally the joint effort of our Selection Consultant and Judging Panel. They are all professional, individual, and most importantly they come from different industries with very rich social experience.

No one would have ever imagined that 2022 is tougher than ever, the huge fluctuation of the pandemic situation made us very hard to make decisions. I am very thankful that I have a strong organizing committee led by Chairlady Naomi, she treated every challenge as an opportunity. The first ever TEDx Talks organized by Chairlady Naomi and her team, the overwhelming media exposure of the projects, the very constructive and meaningful idea bank generation, are all presented very adequately.

This year's TOYP could not be so successful without the generous support from our sponsors and partners, they meant a lot to us, especially in this difficult time the world is facing. Thank you to all supporting organizations that always walk along with JCI Hong Kong joining us to spread positivity. Thank you to all past awardees that offered help at any time unconditionally.

By taking this opportunity, I would like to thank the Steering Committee chaired by our Past National President Senator John Chan, and the committee members, Past National President Senator James Tsui, MH, Past National President Senator Paul Wu, and past National President Senator Ronald Kan for your advice all the time.

Lastly, I would like to share a famous quote from a Past US President Abraham Lincoln:

"The best way to predict your future is to create it"

Now, we rise, and it's time to walk our talk and create our bright future. I wish you enjoy today's luncheon and Merry Christmas.

Mr. Argenis ANGULO

I would like to congratulate you on being selected among several outstanding leaders around your country to participate in this prestigious JCI experience! The theme for TOYP Selection 2022 is 'Rise for the Future' and this year is especially memorable as it is also the 50th anniversary of the Selection. I extend my profound congratulation on this major milestone. I know that the team organizing this important event has taken the necessary steps to make this a once-in-a-lifetime leadership development experience. The drive towards constant innovation is seen and appreciated.

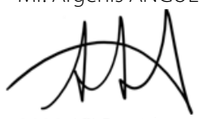

It is important that we always seek out the resources and tools to better ourselves as leaders. We must also explore the world with open hearts, viewing each other's differences and unique life experiences as a powerful strength of JCI. At this gathering of minds, I know you will be able to accomplish both of these tasks successfully and with the support of fellow JCI members.

Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection is a testament to the power of unified action. "Leading is our Duty" and at this momentous event, each and every one of the participants truly dedicated themselves to this philosophy. I am tremendously excited to witness the results of this award and wish you all the best in leading in an innovative and outstanding manner.

Once again, congratulations on continuing to uphold your organization as a shining example for others. We are deeply grateful for the continued impact of JCI Hong Kong and all its outstanding leaders. Together with our Board of Directors, I shall accompany you along the way, as Leading is our Duty!

With my warmest regards,

Mr. Argenis ANGULO

Chief Judge
Dr. the Hon KO Wing-man, GBS, JP

I would like to offer my warmest congratulations to each of the 2022 Ten Outstanding Young Persons Awardees.

Having been a member of the selection panel for 4 years, it is my privilege and honor to serve as Chief Judge for the Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection in 2022, a year which marked the 50th Anniversary of one of the most iconic selections organized by Junior Chamber International Hong Kong (JCIHK). The 5th wave posed unprecedented challenges to the nomination and selection process. I wish to commend the Organizing Committee and the Selection Consultant for their dedication, professionalism and facilitation that enabled the Selection Panel to accomplish the mission in presenting the TOYP Awardees for 2022.

While the pandemic era has been full of uncertainties and challenges, young people hold the key to shaping our future. Coming from different backgrounds and professions ranging from public service and business, public health, culture and sports, they share in common an industrious and unyielding spirit of Hong Kong people and visions for a brighter horizon. We are confident that the awardees will continue to set positive role models that inspire different walks of life, especially young people, to forge ahead to greater development of community.

The Selection Panel, Selection Consultant and the Organizer have also reviewed and optimized the selection process this year to adapt to the ever-changing environment. With concerted effort, we look forward to wider and more diversified participation and nomination, to identify and recognize leaders that not only attain outstanding personal achievements but also take up the greater responsibility to serve the society.

I want to congratulate all of our awardees this year. Each of you has a story that is unique and inspiring to us all. You may be of different ages, you may have different career paths, but each of you exemplifies the character, the drive, that makes you an outstanding young person. You certainly know that getting this prestigious recognition is only the beginning of your lifetime pursuit of inspiring more young people to pursue their dreams and to give back to society, and to that I say, thank you.

Prof. Ceajer K.C. Chan, GBS, JP

Dr. LAM Tai Fai, GBS, JP

My sincerest congratulations to this year's award winners of the "Ten Outstanding Young Persons" (TOYP) Selection.

With the aim of paying tribute to distinguished young individuals for their professional achievements and contributions to the community, the TOYP, launched in 1970, has become one of the most recognized and prestigious awards in Hong Kong. This year, we are glad to see eight inspiring young people who come from different professions and share common commitment to serving the community on various fronts. They are indeed remarkable role models to our young people and pioneering leaders of the future.

"The youth of today are the leaders of tomorrow". This quote cannot be more true for our deserving young award winners this year. Once again, I would like to acknowledge their outstanding achievements and I am sure that they will continue their efforts to pursue their goals, strive for self-improvement and embrace challenges ahead. There is no doubt that they will become a powerful force and create positive impact in society, and inspire more young people to join in building a brighter future for Hong Kong.

It is not easy to sustain 50 years of success of a community-wide project that benefits not only young people with recognition and encouragement for them but also with long-term impact in setting role models for the community in a journey of progress. JCI Hong Kong has done it.

Congratulations to JCI Hong Kong and to the Outstanding Young Persons selected this year.

As a past awardee, I vouch for the meaning of the award in driving me to work harder in my career and public service. I owe it to the opportunities for me to join with inspiring peers in The Outstanding Young Persons' Association in united energy and to serve as past chairman of the Association, which expanded my horizon.

I am also thankful to be able to serve on the judging panel of the Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection this year. It is gratifying to see many candidates and the successful awardees in assuring the future of Hong Kong.

Dr. Carlye W.L. TSUI, SBS, MBE, JP

Ir Dr. Alan LAM

My heartfelt congratulations to the awardees of Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection 2022. I sincerely appreciate your achievements in your own fields and your contributions to Hong Kong. Recalling when I was elected in 2015, I thought on stage: "The award is the endorsement of our great work. Moreover, it is also a kind of motivation that drives us to continue to serve Hong Kong better." I hope this memory can be shared with this year's Outstanding Youth. Afterwards, I served our community with my new role and I realized that it is an important mission. Although the responsibilities are getting bigger and the tasks are getting more and more, being able to have a chance to serve the society better makes me more fulfilled and happier. I would love to share this experience with all awardees and encourage all of you to do it better.

Selection Consultant - Deloitte China
Mr. Edward AU

Congratulations to all the Ten Outstanding Young Persons (TOYP) Selection 2022 winners, and congratulations on the 50th anniversary of this wonderful event held by Junior Chamber International Hong Kong (JCIHK).

We are honoured to be the selection consultant of this year's TOYP Selection and had the opportunity to hear some of the most inspiring stories of this year's winners first-hand. Our talent at Deloitte China across service lines and grades are also inspired through participating in this meaningful event in the initial screening process. I would like to give thanks to JCIHK for organizing such an impactful event for Hong Kong.

Deloitte in Hong Kong is also celebrating a 50-year landmark this year and we aspire to continue to make an impact that matters. Over the five decades since Deloitte established its practice in Hong Kong in 1972, talent has driven our success, and developing future-ready talent will be pivotal to our success in the years to come.

Indeed, as President Xi Jinping and HKSAR Chief Executive John Lee have said, Hong Kong itself will prosper only when its young people thrive.

Nurturing future generations of talent is also a key element of our INspireHK strategic initiative, through which we are accelerating the firm's strategic shift toward sustainable development in Hong Kong, the GBA, and beyond, with an emphasis on priority areas such as transformation, digitalization, and ESG.

The theme of TOYP Selection 2022, Rise for the Future, and the work of its inspiring young winners, resonates with these efforts, and it was an honour for Deloitte to support TOYP Selections as Selection Consultant. It was also inspiring for me personally to have the opportunity to get to know the candidates, who exemplify the best of Hong Kong's young people as they rise to the challenges of today – and create tomorrow's opportunities – through their vision, ideals, and achievements.

Through INspire HK, and other initiatives, everyone at Deloitte in Hong Kong is committed to following this example of creating positive change, and to driving talent development to new heights.

Once again, congratulations to all TOYP Selection 2022 awardees!

TOYPA Chairman
Dr. Eugene Kin Keung CHAN, SBS, BBS, JP

The 50th Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection in 2022 also marks the 45th Anniversary of the establishment of Ten Outstanding Young Persons' Association (TOYPA). Throughout the past 45 years, TOYPA has connected closely with our community and has witnessed the development and changes in Hong Kong.

The TOYPA annual theme in 2022 is 'United we stand, blessings to share.' In this memorable year, TOYPA will continue to engage and serve our community.

On behalf of the 389 past TOYP awardees, I warmly congratulate the 8 newly elected Outstanding Young Persons of the year and welcome them into our family. Although they are from different sectors of Hong Kong, they all possess the invaluable qualities in their own career and commitment to our community. Their passion for life, hope for the future and perseverance have all led them to success. Their effort and inspiring attitude will make Hong Kong our home a better place.

By integrating the strength of all outstanding persons from the past 50 years, with their influences and contributions across different sectors, together we can unite Hong Kong. Unity amongst us will carry us through the hard times during the pandemic.

TOYPA will continue our enthusiasm to work for Hong Kong and we call for your support to make our home with stability and prosperity.

Ms. Naomi CHAN

My heartfelt congratulations to 8 Ten Outstanding Young Persons Awardees selected this year and it is my great honor to be the Chairman of the 50th Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection.

The Selection was initiated during the 5th wave, one of the most challenging times in the pandemic era. It was a time when many aspects of our life were affected. I asked myself and our committee members – why TOYP matters to you?

Purpose matters. It was through multiple rounds of discussions that we came up with the theme of "看‧建未來" ("Rise for the Future"). As one of the most iconic selections that recognize young people that not only excel in their professions but also have a shared vision to serve, we hope that more visionary leaders can be identified and provide insights to help rebuild our future.

With this vision in mind, we made several breakthroughs by supporting TEDx, the most renowned platform for ideas worth spreading worldwide in the Kick-Off Ceremony on 24 May 2022, engaging more stakeholders to widen the diversity and scope of nomination. To go the extra mile, we did not stop by simply having awardees selected but also founded the first idea bank co-created by nearly 100 youths from 20 organizations, which unleashed potentials of youth to impact more in the long run. In the process of co-creation and collaboration, a better future to us can be happiness, room for one to fulfil aspirations and internationalism, driven by the unyielding Hong Kong spirit demonstrated by 389 awardees over the past 50 years.

To date, over 1,400 dedicated youths have contributed to TOYP Selections for 50 years. Succession and empowerment lead us to where we are together today. I attribute the achievements to the creativity and "can-do" attitude of the entire organizing committee, the advice of Steering Committee and the trust and support of National President Senator Karen Yeung and National Immediate Past President Senator Winnie Yeung, together with national board of directors and 21 affiliated chapters.

I would like to extend the sincerest gratitude to our Judging Panel, Selection Consultant Deloitte, sponsors, partners and supporting organizations, TOYPA and all past TOYP Awardees for guidance and generous support in spite of all the challenges.

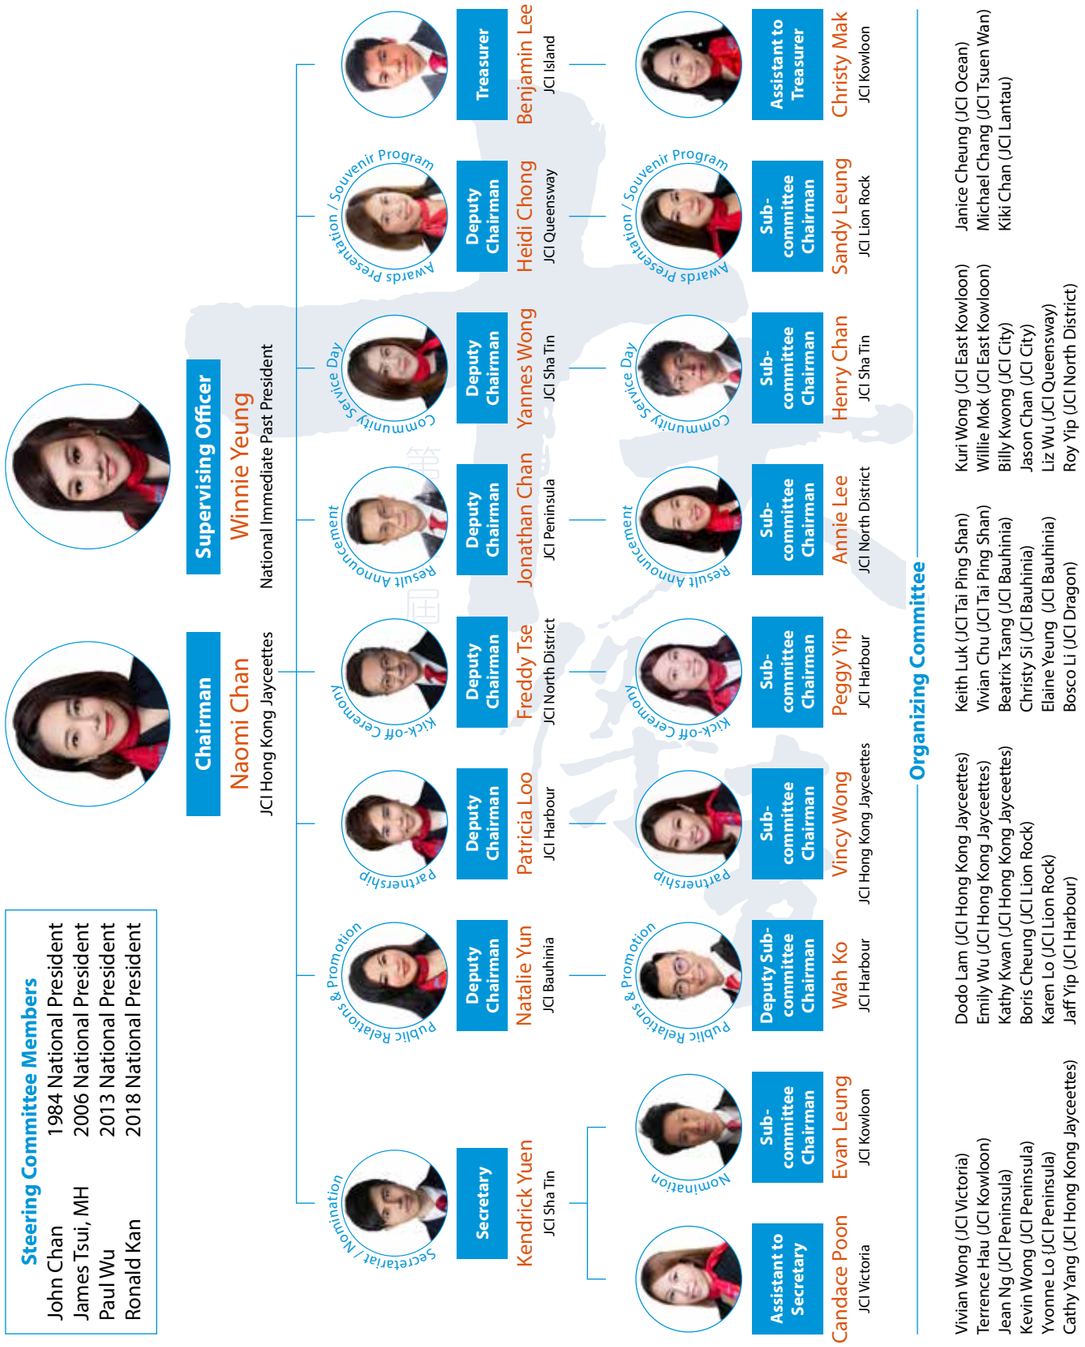

I am also grateful for my mother chapter JCI Hong Kong Jayceettes for nurturing me throughout ten years of JC life to lead this most publicly anticipated project with such stamina and skills. The experience is one-of-a-kind, and the exposure broadens one's horizon.

Taking this opportunity, thank you for all of your support to TOYP Selection 2022. We are the successor of a shared future. I wish TOYP Selection 2023 every success.

ABOUT

Junior Chamber International

JCI is a membership-based non-profit organization of young active citizens aged 18 to 40 who are engaged and committed to create impact in their communities. Active citizens are individuals invested in the future of our world. They develop the skills, knowledge and understanding to make informed decisions and take action. JCI members are active citizens from all sectors of society including business owners, government officials, doctors, entrepreneurs, teachers, public officials, social workers and students.

As global citizens, we all have rights and responsibilities, as well as shared goals. Through active citizenship, we encourage young people to take responsibility for the local issues, find targeted and sustainable solutions that benefit our communities and the world. JCI members embrace new ideas, collaboration and diversity. Guided by the passion to transform their lives and the world, JCI members have the courage to address the critical challenges of our time.

With around 5,000 JCI Local Organizations in more than 100 nations, JCI forms a vibrant global community of nearly 200,000 active citizens. All members belong to a JCI Local Organization where they focus on finding solutions to issues in their communities. The collective action of all JCI Local Organizations forms a global grassroots movement, empowering members to run effective projects, exchange ideas and work together to develop new ways to improve their communities and the world.

ABOUT

Junior Chamber International Hong Kong

JCI Hong Kong (formerly named as "Hong Kong Junior Chamber") was inaugurated in 1950. It is affiliated with the worldwide youth leadership development organization — Junior Chamber International ("JCI"). JCI has a worldwide membership of over 200,000 in more than 100 countries and territories around the world.

JCI Hong Kong is a non-profit making and voluntary organization for young active citizens aged 18 to 40. Its objective is to provide young people with the opportunities to develop their leadership qualities, enhance their sense of social responsibilities, acquire business skills and develop social network, through which they can help make positive changes in the community and contribute to the social development of Hong Kong and the world.

Since its inauguration, JCI Hong Kong has offered various training opportunities to thousands of members through four areas of development namely Individual Development, Community Development, International Relationship Development and Business Development. There are now approximately 2,200 members spanning 21 Chapters. Through organizing a great variety of meaningful projects to serve the community, members of JCI Hong Kong learn by doing and enhance their management skills to prepare themselves for taking up leadership roles in respective fields.

ABOUT

Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection

The Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection ("TOYP Selection") is a flagship project founded by Junior Chamber International Hong Kong ("JCI Hong Kong") in 1970. As of today, a total of 389 outstanding young persons have been selected.

Candidates of the TOYP Selection are nominated by the public from different sectors of the community. All the nominations are first screened by the Selection Consultant. Next, shortlisted candidates will be interviewed by a Panel of Judges comprising prominent figures in the government, business and professional sectors. The Panel of Judges considers the candidates' outstanding performances in their respective fields of work or profession as well as their contributions to the community, with the ultimate goal of selecting the Ten Outstanding Young Persons of the year.

The objectives of TOYP Selection are:

- To give formal recognitions to young people who excel in their professional endeavors and contribution to the community;
- To encourage young people to take on important responsibilities so as to contribute actively in shaping a better future for the community; and
- To inspire young people to seek further advancement in personal achievement as well as in social services.

Eligibility of Nominee

- The nominee must be between the ages of 21-40;
- Be a Hong Kong permanent resident;
- Be able to attend the initial screening interview arranged by the Selection Consultant and the final judging interview by the Panel of Judges; and
- Be nominated by one proposer only.

Note: Nomination is not open to a deceased person.

Proposers

Nominations can be made by individuals who are 21 years of age or above, or by a public/private organization. There is no limit to the number of nominations to be made by each party but the proposer cannot be the nominee him/herself.

ABOUT
The Outstanding Young Persons' Association

The Outstanding Young Persons' Association, TOYPA in short, was formed in 1977. The Association is made up of awardees of the Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection. Now, the membership of TOYPA exceeds three hundred.

Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection, introduced to Hong Kong in 1970, is a major project of Junior Chamber International Hong Kong. Each year, the Selection is open for nominations to the public. After the process of carefully vetting candidates' data by an appointed auditor/law firm, the candidates are presented to a Panel of Judges consisting of renowned leaders in the government, business, industries, education and various professions. Merits are given to the candidates' exceptional achievements in their respective fields as well as their contributions of personal time and efforts in serving the community.

The Outstanding Young Persons' Association not only gives proper recognition to the achievements of the recipients, but also carries with its certain responsibilities. All those selected are expected to make further contributions to the community of Hong Kong and to serve as inspirational examples to other young people. It is with this spirit that recipients of the award work together to serve the community.

The aims of TOYPA are:

1. To sponsor and organize projects for the well-being of Hong Kong.
2. To propose recommendations to the Government or relevant authorities on matters pertaining to the welfare of Hong Kong.
3. To assist in the annual selection of the Ten Outstanding Young Persons.

TOYPA membership covers diverse industries and professions including a number of active members in decisive arenas, serving on the Executive Council, Legislative Council, District Councils, Advisory Committees, Drafting Committee for the Basic Law of HKSAR, and National Peoples' Congress of the PRC and Hong Kong Affairs Advisors etc.

Since its inception, TOYPA has organized and sponsored numerous community service projects. All financial resources have been generated from funds raised over the years. In all projects organized, co-organized or sponsored by TOYPA, members take an active role with commitment and dedication.

About Shannon Melissa Chan

One of the few surgeons in Hong Kong who specialized in endoscopic ultrasound (EUS) operational procedures, a new treatment option for terminally ill cancer patients. Committed to promoting patient service without borders, she has been on missions to the frontline warzone in South Sudan and Yemen.

What I'd do in the face of adversity:
Reflection, learn, self-encouragement.

What I wish to do most and cannot do due to the epidemic situation:
To participate in international symposiums and to travel.

A song and a lyric to encourage young people in Hong Kong:
"The Cloak" – Eason Chan
People can't fly so they stride, but no one says you can't look at the sky.
Sew a cloak in your heart, and pretend to lie on the clouds and relax.
No matter how hard it is, you can grit your teeth and wait for the possible wind (to fly).

從參與人道的救援工作學會感恩：讓病人感受生命曾被珍惜

八年前，我參與無國界醫生，先後有機會到南蘇丹和也門參與前線救援工作，好多人都會問我，在戰地的救援工作，最難忘是什麼？

我會回答，令人難過又難忘的事有很多。

在也門戰地，大批的傷者是小孩； 當中很多是誤中地雷、雙腿被炸斷，又或者是嚴重燒傷。

由於當地醫院缺乏醫療物資，最後只能救助存活機會較大的小朋友。有一次為一位被炸斷左腳男孩做截肢手術，手術過後男孩醒來，他摸著失去左腳的傷口，竟問我最近的食物援助中心在哪裏，而不是他的康復狀況，真的令我很難過。

難過的經歷很多，但要感恩的事可能更多。

感恩我的父母家庭，至小為我鋪設好人生道路，成為一位外科醫生；我決定到戰亂國家參加救援工作，父親曾經勸我改往一些較安全的國家如菲律賓、越南，但感恩最終父親都支持我的決定；

感恩我可以平安回來；感恩有機會用自己的能力去幫助人。

感激當地有很好的無國界醫療團隊一起工作，感恩學會在醫療物資匱乏的情況下，如何 「執生」 搶救病人，例如，怎樣可以加快為病人輸生理鹽水，就是找人舉起鹽水袋，以人手擠壓鹽水袋，加快為病人輸液。

感恩過後，所思考到的事情，是我們擁有這恩典與能力的人，如何可以讓更多病人受惠。

救活病人是重要，但讓他們感受到在痛苦和無助的時候，有一班人盡力去救他，至少他的生命曾被珍惜、重視過，這同樣重要。常常聽到一句名言「有時去治癒；常常去減輕；總是去安慰。」我期望藉此機會，通過分享自身經驗，鼓勵更多的醫者參與人道的救援工作，服務更多人。

香港是我家。未來五年，希望香港變得更好，我的願望是大家互助互愛，不分彼此。

A lesson of gratitude from humanitarian relief missions to let patients feel that their lives are cherished

Eight years ago, I joined the Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF) and had the opportunity to serve in South Sudan and Yemen for humanitarian missions.

Many people ask me the most memorable thing about working in the warzone. And I would say that many things are both unforgettable and sad.

In Yemen, a lot of war victims were children. Many were injured accidentally by landmines with shattered limbs and severe burns.

As there is a lack of medical supplies in the local hospital, it is often that only those with a better chance of survival could be rescued.

I would always remember the boy who required a lower limb amputation. He woke up after surgery and touched the empty bed where his leg was supposed to be.
The first question he asked, to my surprise, instead of on his rehabilitation, was where the nearest food assistance center was. That was very saddening.

There were many difficult times, but there are more things to be thankful for.

I am grateful to my parents and family for paving the way from an early age so that I can become a surgeon today. When I decided to go to war-torn countries to do relief work, my father tried to persuade me to go to safer countries such as the Philippines and Vietnam.

I am grateful that, in the end, my father fully supported my decision.

I am also grateful that I could return safely and for the opportunity to help others with my abilities.

I am thankful to have a remarkable MSF medical team in those countries working together to learn how to improvise and save patients when medical supplies are scarce. For example, how to speed up the infusion of saline to a critically-ill patient is to have the locals who are very tall to hold the saline bag high up and squeeze manually.

Apart from being grateful, the most important thing is to promote humanitarian aid so that more patients can benefit.

Saving lives is important. But just to be there for the sick patient at the most precarious moment of their lives is equally important. So that at least, they would feel that their lives were being treasured and respected. As the saying goes, “to cure sometimes, relieve often, and comfort always”.

I sincerely hope to take this opportunity to share my experiences and encourage more people to participate in humanitarian work so that more people can have the chance to serve.

Hong Kong is my home. In the next five years, I hope Hong Kong will become a better place, and my wish is that we will help each other and love each other regardless of our differences.

香港將會有更多創新科技和工業領域的創業家，催生創意，改變世界

我曾經提及，創業猶如談戀愛一樣，要在對的地方、合適的時間，遇上合適的人，才會有美好的愛情故事。

回顧當初創業之路，我幸運地遇上最好的人和事，就是我爸爸媽媽，他們是我踏出創業理想第一步的最大動力。

我不是出身於富裕之家，亦非人生勝利組，創業之初，放棄工作，拿著有限積蓄，可謂戰戰兢兢踏出第一步，記得當時父母對我說，無論成功與否都會支持我的創業夢，這份無條件的鼓勵和信任，是我人生的第一桶金。

十多年的創業經驗，由最初採購 HDMI 切換器，到大灣區成立創科公司和開設生產線，至現在公司生產二百多種不同的電子產品和開發芯片技術，研發的技術和產品得到國家和香港的認同，整個過程有成功，自然亦經歷過失敗。

過程當中最寶貴的，是有家人和同行者的支持，回想追求理想目標的過程中，

無論失敗成功，是一個難得的學習過程，從中總結經驗，裝備自己，去計劃下一個旅程。

同樣，我相信年輕人在創業，都會經歷跌跌撞撞，模糊摸索的過程，若有同行者能夠攙扶提點，是最有力的支持，這亦是我成立社會企業「社企苗」的一個初心。香港有很多比我更優秀，更有創意的年輕人，香港亦是一個成熟的金融中心，而香港和大灣區為年輕人提供一個龐大的市場和創業平台。

我相信凝聚我們先行者的經驗、智慧，為創意和具勇氣的年輕人作領航者，給予鼓勵、信念和支持，香港將會有更多成功和優秀的企業家，更多創新科技和工業領域的創業家，催生創意，改變世界。

正如我開始時所說，期望更多年輕人在這合適的時機、地點，找到你的夢想目標，彼此勉勵支持，將你們的理想付諸實行。

創科與再工業化需要香港青年。未來五年，希望香港變得更好，我的夢想目標是香港聯手深圳打造「中國矽谷」。

Furthering creativity to impact the world, Hong Kong welcomes a new generation of innovative technologies and industrial production entrepreneurs

I once said that setting up your own business is like falling in love – you need to do this at the right time and place and to be with the right person to compose a true love story.

Thinking of my entrepreneurship journey, I count myself lucky, for I have my parents who believed in me from the start. They are the true driving force for me to establish my business.

As I was not born into a wealthy family, I don't take success for granted. At the beginning of my startup, I remember how the feeling of giving up my day job and spending all my savings on the startup was rather daunting. I recalled how my parents supported me in pursuing my dream. Their unconditional trust and encouragement gave me the confidence to succeed and earn my first pot of gold.

Over ten years of building the business from scratch, the pathway to success is about overcoming all kinds of challenges. We went from sourcing HDMI adapters to setting up an innovative technology company and a production line in Greater Bay Area. Now, we have expanded into a company with over 200 electronic products and microchip technology recognized in both Mainland and Hong Kong. The most precious thing in this entrepreneurship journey is having support from family and peers. Thinking back on everything, regardless of the outcome, the process of pursuing your dream is a unique learning experience. And reflecting upon the experience allows you to equip yourself to be ready for your next journey.

I believe young people will face obstacles and uncertainties in the early stages of setting up a business. They can benefit from advice from their peers and mentors. It prompted me to establish my social enterprise called "Social Seed". Many young people in Hong Kong are better and more innovative than me. Hong Kong is also a mature financial center, and the connection between Hong Kong and the Greater Bay Area will provide a vast market and entrepreneurial platform for young people.

I firmly believe in the value of fostering the experiences and knowledge of our pioneers, as these can help boost the confidence of innovative and courageous young entrepreneurs and to give them much-needed encouragement, faith and support. In the future, Hong Kong will continue to have a new generation of successful and excellent entrepreneurs. Their work on innovative technologies and industrial production will promote more creativity in businesses and impact the world.

To conclude, I sincerely hope more young people can seize this timely opportunity and space to help each other, find their life goals, and turn dreams into reality.

Innovation and re-industrialisation require more Hong Kong youths. I hope Hong Kong will become a better place in the next five years. My dream is for Hong Kong to join with Shenzhen to build "China's Silicon Valley".

全力爭取，對第一的堅持和固執

認識我的人，都會說張家朗的性格，較為沉默寡言，在練習和比賽的鬥心強，若達不到定下的目標，會容易心情煩躁和沈重，朋友會說，這是一種固執的性格，不過，我看自己，是對劍擊的一份堅持。

爸爸曾經說小時候的我，已經有不肯認輸的個性，每次比賽輸了都會不服氣，脾氣要來就來。記得有一次輸了比賽，爸爸說：「有咩好喊？咁大個仔仲喊！輸咪輸，返去檢討下次再黎過」。這段說話，一直陪伴我成長、訓練和參加各個比賽。由參加世界盃、亞運會，以至去年奧運會，我都會對自己說，「輸咪輸，返去檢討下次再黎過」。

不肯認輸是一種固執，但當放在運動上面，可能會變成一種優點，找到正確的方向而固執，那就是信念和堅持。

但當你堅持不肯認輸投降，隨之而來的就是壓力。十八歲那一年，比賽擊敗當時亞運金牌選手，拿到奧運亞洲區外圍賽入場券，一時間，所有人對你都充滿期望，認為張家朗可以繼續贏，自己腦海亦不斷重複地說，不可以輸，一定要晉級，壓力就是這樣跟著你。

但運動比賽，怎可能有長勝不敗，自己嘗過不少敗績，可能是人慢慢的成長，學會舒緩壓力，接受失敗，檢討原因，捲土重來，猶如爸爸說 「輸咪輸，檢討自己，下次再黎過」。所以在這裡，要衷心多謝家人、教練和朋友，每次面對壓力、失敗，他們在身邊的支持，成為我最大向前的動力，承托著我那份爭取第一的堅持。

我希望在運動生涯裏的每一場比賽都盡我所能，為自己，為支持我的人爭取最第一，期望香港的運動員，大家都抱著對目標和理想的堅持，一步一步走近人生目標。未來一年，開始奧運積分賽 。我會努力，希望繼續為港爭光，再就我的經歷分享給大眾，鼓勵下一代。

未來五年，希望香港變得更好，我最希望香港可以舉辦國際比賽。

Perseverance and determination for No. 1

Those who know me well say that I am a rather quiet person. And during practice or competition, I easily become irritable or upset if I cannot reach my goal. My friends often say that this is my stubbornness, but I see this as my determination to succeed in fencing.

My father said that I was reluctant to admit defeat when I was young. Whenever I lost a game, I would look like a sore loser and be bad-tempered. I recalled a time I lost a competition, and my dad said, "What's there to cry about? Such a big boy, and you are crying! It's nothing to lose. Do learn from it, and try again." Those words have remained with me as I grow up, participating in practices and competitions. From playing in the World Cup, the Asian Games and the Olympic Games last year, I would repeat the same teaching: losing is not a problem, and all I need to do is to learn from it and try again.

Not admitting defeat is a stubborn trait, but it can turn into motivation in playing sports. When you are adamant about something for the right reason, it fuels your conviction and perseverance. However, when you become too stubborn and no longer admit defeat or refuse to surrender, it will become a source of stress.

When I was eighteen, I beat a prize-winning athlete in Asian Games, and as a result, I gained entry into Olympics Asian Qualifying Match. At that time, everyone had high hopes and expectations of you and believed you would keep winning. And in your brain, you would keep repeating to yourself that you cannot lose and must advance, and that pressure stays with you.

In any sports game, it is impossible to be a winner every time; I have experienced many defeats. As we grow older, I learn to cope with stress, as well as to admit failures. Learn to accept and find the reasons behind the failure and try again.

As my father said, "it's nothing to lose; what's important is to learn from it and try again." And so I'd like to take this opportunity to thank my family, coach and friends for their support. They have given me the incentive to go forward, to persevere in what I do, as I experience stress and failures.

I sincerely hope to continue to strive to succeed, as I will give my very best in each game in my sports career for my sake and those who have supported me. I hope that each athlete in Hong Kong will also embrace the same goal and determination as they continue to reach their goals.

The Olympics qualifications will start in the coming year; I will work hard and hope to continue to win for Hong Kong and share my experience with the public to encourage the next generation.

In the next five years, I hope Hong Kong will become a better place, and I look forward to Hong Kong hosting more international competitions.

運動與學業的選擇，以經驗鼓勵年輕運動員努力完夢

去年的東京奧運會，是我第三次參加奧運比賽，前兩屆奧運會獎牌都擦身而過，終於可以在第三次參與奧運比賽中，達成目標，為香港取第二面的奧運乒乓球獎牌。人生中，有機會三次參加奧運會，十分難得，是我生命中最大的祝福。這份祝福，是來自我家人、教練和朋友一直以來的信任和支持。

東京奧運前一年 27 歲生日，我收到朋友送我一個金牌生日蛋糕（附圖），當時心裡感謝朋友的鼓勵，但卻又有一份無形的壓力，心裡自問，不知道第三次衝擊奧運獎牌，能否完夢。

作為球隊的師姐，期望將這份壓力、各人的祝福，轉化為鼓勵給予眾師妹和香港的運動員。

回想當初成為運動員，除了長時間的艱苦訓練之外，亦要應付學業，兩者難以兼顧，我相信不少運動員都經歷運動和學業之間的決擇。15 歲時候，當時我雖然就讀一所名校中學，但為了追求夢想，和父母商量退學，成為全職運動員。為了這抉擇，爸媽和我都心裡忐忑應如何選擇。最終，我認為我作了我人生中最好的決定，我以 15 歲的年紀投身成為全職運動員，是當時香港最年輕的全職運動員。

當時我和媽媽就這抉擇，訂立了三年協議，就是成為全職運動員，也不能放棄學業，要自修完成會考，若然運動成績平平，就要重返校園。

今天，這個協議過了十多年，我很高興，我終於履行了協議，當中的過程殊不容易，但有著大家的支持，我完成了會考，今天重返校園，和繼續追求運動員的夢想。

多謝父母一直給我追夢的信任和支持，由學生轉全職運動員的確是一個很難的抉擇，但我希望我的成績和經驗，能給予年輕運動員一份鼓勵，當你找到目標和理想，就勇往直前，亦期望給予香港家長信心，陪伴和支持子女，去追尋運動的理想。

香港培養了我，我會繼續回饋社會。未來五年，我最希望疫情快點結束，社會可以重新回到正軌。

The dilemma between sports and studies: A sharing to young athletes to work hard in pursuing your dreams

I participated in the Olympics for the third time last year at the Tokyo Olympics. This time, I finally achieved my goal: winning a medal for Hong Kong at the Olympics table tennis competition, the second Olympic medal in table tennis for Hong Kong in history. It is such a blessing to have participated in the Olympic Games three times in my lifetime, which would not have been possible without the trust and support from my family, coach, and friends.

I turned 27 the year before the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games and received a birthday cake with a medal design (see photo). My friend's gestures and encouragement moved me, putting me under pressure. I asked myself whether I could stand a chance of winning an Olympic medal this time and achieving my dream.

As a senior team member, I hope to channel the expectation from friends and family into a source of encouragement for all my teammates and athletes in Hong Kong.

Looking back at my early days of becoming an athlete, I remember the stress of managing a challenging training program and my academic studies. I often find it hard to juggle both. I believe that many professional athletes must have gone through a similar dilemma between pursuing sports and their studies. I was studying at a prestigious school when I was 15, and at that point, I discussed it with my parents and decided to withdraw from my school to become a professional athlete. It had been a difficult decision for my parents and me to make back then, as there was much uncertainty. However, I now feel that I have made the best decision in my life. Because of my choice, I became Hong Kong's youngest full-time athlete of the time.

When I made that decision with my mother back then, we drew up a three-year agreement outlining how even though I were to become a full-time athlete, I would not abandon my studies and would complete my exams by way of self-study. If I could not deliver impressive results in sports, I would return to continue my studies.

I am excited to honor that agreement I drew up a decade ago. It has not been an easy journey, but with all your support, I could finally complete my HKCEE exams, return to campus, and fulfill my dream.

I am grateful to my parents for their trust and support since it's been a difficult choice to become a full-time athlete. Still, I hope that my achievements and experience could encourage other young athletes to be bold enough to pursue their sports and reassure their parents to offer support to their children in following their aspirations in competitive sports.

Hong Kong has nurtured me, and I will continue to give back to the community. In the next five years, I hope the epidemic will end soon, and our society can get back on track.

愛問「點解」的運動員，從愛發問到衝擊奧運獎牌

去年東京奧運前，好多人都問我，阿杜，妳今次奧運的目標是什麼？我的答案直接爽快，就是要衝擊獎牌。

不過有目標，並不一定成功，過去曾經打敗世界冠軍和世界排名第一的對手，當時非常興奮，但試過勝利過後，往後半年卻又不斷打敗“輸波”，當時我形容自己「輸波輸到崩潰」，最後重新調整自己心態，審視自己的不足，作出改變，才逐漸恢復信心和狀態。

多年的訓練、比賽的經驗告訴我，有了目標，你就需要改變，改進你的打法、訓練方式、調整心態，才可以慢慢邁向你的目標。每逢比賽過後，我都會不斷問自己「點解」？為什麼會贏，為什麼會輸，是自己發揮好，還是對手失準，又或者是太緊張。我發覺問題越多，越能夠找到更多自己的優點和缺點，進步空間就越大。

我這個愛問「點解」的習慣，可能是受我一位非常尊敬的教練瑞姐所影響，回想起初跟隨瑞姐接受訓練，除鍛鍊技術，體能以外，瑞姐還要我一星期寫三篇訓練日記，當時我很抗拒，總覺得身為運動員，打好波就可以，為什麼要寫日記，當時覺得很煩、很討厭。

後來才發現，教練亦會將每一位對手的打法，特點，全筆記下來。教練要我寫訓練日記，就是要我改變自己，改正犯錯，調整心態。我慢慢發現按著這方法，找到自己的弱點作出改進，同時了解對手的打法，贏得比賽機會大了很多。

鼓勵大家，當你定下人生目標之後，在追逐目標的過程中，不妨多問「點解」，當了解自己的優點和缺點，從而作出變化改進，相信大家終都可以達到目標和理想，多謝大家。未來一年，我會全力在乒乓球賽事爭取好成績，爭取巴黎奧運資格。在學業上努力完成功課和考試。

未來五年，希望見到香港變得更好，我最希望大家可以團結一致，每個人做好小我，成就大我 。

An inquisitive athlete set for the Olympic medal

At the Tokyo 2020 Olympics last year, many people asked me what my goal was for the game. I said that I must set my eyes on the medal.

However, I know that even if you have set a goal, things may not happen as you expect. In the past, I have defeated some world champions and world-class athletes, which excited me, but later I went through a period when I would keep losing. At that point, I became so distraught, and I needed to adjust my perspective, not to mention the need to evaluate my inadequacy and make changes so that I could slowly regain my confidence and energy level.

The long years of training and competitions have taught me that we must change to reach our goals by improving our style of playing, attitudes, and practice methods. It is only through this that we can achieve our goals. Each time after a competition, I will evaluate my performance and keep asking myself questions – why did I win? Why did I lose? How can I improve? How was my opponent's performance, or was I too nervous? I discovered that being more inquisitive, the more space I had to grow, recognizing more about my strengths and weaknesses.

I developed this habit of asking questions under the influence of Ms. Zhang, a coach I respect greatly. She always assigned me something in addition to the technical training: she would ask me to write two or three weekly training journal entries. I was reluctant to do them and felt that athletes did not need to keep a training diary as long as they could play.

Later, I realized that even the coach would note down the performances and techniques of each opponent. My coach had asked me to do the same so that I could change how I play, rectify my mistakes, and adjust my style. As I gradually addressed my weaknesses using this approach, I am convinced I now stand a much better chance of winning.

I hope to encourage you with the knowledge that you must keep asking yourself challenging questions while pursuing your dreams as soon as you have set a goal for yourselves. Once you can better understand your strengths and weaknesses, you can make changes to develop yourself, realize your potential, and achieve your dreams. I will focus on getting excellent results in the following table tennis games to qualify for the Paris 2024 Summer Olympics in the coming year. I will also work hard in my studies and exams.

Looking ahead, I hope that Hong Kong will become a better place in the next five years and that we will unite and achieve collective good by doing our work well.

用我 100% 人生去追求目標

去年奧運比賽前一天，媽媽打電話給我說：「Minnie，你 23 歲、3 歲開始打波，麻煩你把 20 年學到的，明天全部拿出來」，最後不負所托，拿到第一面的奧運獎牌。在這裡，要感謝家人，一直支持我追尋理想。我 3 歲開始跟爸爸學打乒乓球，今年 24 歲，原來我用了 9 成的時間人生去做一樣我最喜愛的運動，既幸福，亦感恩。

20 年時間做同一樣的事，用九成的人生追求一個目標，其實，一點都不容易。上一個月九月是學校的開學月，感恩有機會重返校園。不過我對開學的印象模糊，自中一開始，好像就沒有開過學，因為每逢九月都會有很多比賽，好像升上中學以後，就沒有在學校開學。到了中三，當時我只有十四五歲，就要選擇全時間打波，還是讀書。早年，見到身邊的好朋友，中學畢業，入大學，出社會工作，又看到不少隊友重返校園，心裡感覺有點失落，自己的人生像缺少了什麼。

回想初中畢業，決定全時間投入運動，父母給我不少的鼓勵，他們對我說，「兩年吧，就用你 1/40 的生命去試試，要是想讀書，50 歲再讀都可以」，結果，我用了百分之一百的時間投入了運動。

隨後的十年，和很多師姐師妹參加不同的比賽，拿到獎牌，我的目標和理想得到別人的讚賞和認同。但隨之而來，是右手傷患，奧運之後比賽減少，看著隊友比賽練波，只能心裡忍耐，靜心等候，安慰自己說，追求理想總有波折，堅持下去，終能突破。

想起隊友阿杜說，Minnie 每次比賽，打球時，眼神會有一團火，不贏球不罷休，雖然現在傷患，心裡那團火沒有熄滅。現在，我嘗試新的治療方法，期望傷患會早日康復，這個月我亦會前往德國，參加當地的聯賽，保持比賽狀態，同時尋找新的突破。

過去我用了人生九成的時間去追求目標，雖然中間經歷不少決擇和波折，但我會繼續努力，用我百分之一百的時間，去延續我的理想，追求更高的目標，多謝。

我鼓勵香港青年人實踐夢想的使命感。未來五年，我希望見到香港變得更好，香港青年不為社會壓力而懊惱，選擇追夢。

Pursuing goals with 100% of my life

My mother called me the day before I participated in the Olympics last year: "Minnie, you are now 23 years old. I remember how you first started playing the sport when you were three. I hope you can show me how much you have learned over the years." In the end, I did not disappoint her, and I managed to get an Olympic medal. I want to thank my family for supporting my dreams. I started learning table tennis from my father when I was three. I am 24 and have spent 90% of my life doing the sport I love, which is a blessing, and I am most grateful for it.

Having spent 20 years doing one thing feels like I have used up to 90% of my life to pursue a single goal. Indeed, it does not come easy. I am so glad I could return to the campus last month, but, as a student, I cannot recall how it feels to experience the start of a school term. Ever since Form One, every September, when my classmates were only starting the school term, I was constantly busy participating in sports tournaments. It is as if I never went to school after getting into secondary school.

When I moved on to Form Three at about 14-15 years old, I had to choose between playing sports professionally or continuing my studies. There were times when I did feel sad when I saw that many of my friends had gone on to get a job after they graduated from schools and universities. Also, many of my peer athletes have decided to return to their studies; I thought I was lacking something important in my life.

However, I devoted myself wholeheartedly to sports once I finished junior high school. My mom and dad encouraged me and said, "Give yourself two years; it is just 1/40 of my life to do what you like; if you want to return to your studies, you can do that afterwards – you can study even when you are 50." As a result, I use 100% of my life on my favorite sport as an athlete.

In the last ten years, I participated in many competitions, gaining medals and recognition for my aspirations. But later, having injured my right hand, I participated in fewer competitions after the Olympic Games. I know I can do nothing but endure, and I keep telling myself that it is normal to encounter failures. But if we can persevere, someday, we will achieve another breakthrough.

And then I thought about what my teammate Doo Hoi Kem said: "Minnie, each time you play in a game, your eyes will light up with passion, and no one can stop you until you win." Even though I now suffer from injury, my love for sports is alive. Currently, I am trying out a new way of treatment and hope for a speedy recovery. I will be going to Germany this month to participate in their local open tournaments, so I can maintain my best physique for future competitions and look for breakthroughs.

Having spent much of my life achieving my aspirations, I experienced various dilemmas and failures, but I will continue to work hard and persevere to reach new heights.

I want to take this opportunity to encourage more young people in Hong Kong to seek their dreams.

In the next five years, I hope that Hong Kong will become a better place and that young person be free from social pressure and can choose to follow their dreams.

About Tse Hoi Fat

At the age of four, he followed his parents to set up a stall on Temple Street and worked hard to become a nationally recognized Hong Kong tax expert in the Greater Bay Area. He then started his own CPA company. His child experience fostered his business acumen as he brought Hong Kong's local culture to the food and beverage business with different food concepts. Today, he has more than 40 outlets and over 1,500 employees. Over the years, he has established the Hong Kong General Chamber of Young Entrepreneurs and scholarship. Speaking as a guest professor, he also shared his experience through different platforms, serving more than 1,000 young people to start their businesses and move up the social ladder.

What I'd do in the face of adversity:
Find a solution and get the experience.

The people / things that motivate you to succeed:
Faith. Not wanting to let down my family, our society, and our country. To influence others, lead by example, and maintain positive energy and mindset.

What I wish to do most and cannot do due to the epidemic situation:
To arrange more Greater Bay Area cities' activities.

一個廟街 80 後自強的勵志故事　鼓勵年青人創業和擴闊視野

「堅持、堅持再堅持，做任何事若果能夠堅持便不會輸，唔輸就等如贏了一半」。每當遇到困難，我都會用這一句說話來提醒自己堅持下去，迎難而上，在最困難的時候都可以找到出路。

十多年前決定離開會計師樓，由穩定的工作轉戰飲食業，一切由零開始，重新學習，追求創業理想。當時家人朋友都反對，認為不應放棄穩定薪優的工作，但當年一股衝勁，追求創業理想，26 歲開辦第一間茶餐廳，踏出第一步，那時，自己定下目標，給自己 3 年時間嘗試創業，到了 30 歲時仍然不成功，就會考慮其他工作，結果一做已十多年，由茶餐廳、火鍋、潮州菜，到主題餐廳等。

小時候我在廟街幫爸爸擺檔，廟街就是一個富有香港文化情懷的地方，亦是華人文化的一部分，是香港人的集體回憶。所以我一直對這份情懷有情意結，也希望透過不同途徑 (包括飲食)，把中華文化承傳及宣揚給下一代。

不過創業難、守業更難，近年疫情持續，對飲食業好大衝擊。不過，正如我所相信 — 能夠堅持便不會輸，我時刻抱持積極樂觀的心態，「人無我有，人有我優」，逆市下有危亦有機，例如租金會下調，可以找到更合適的店舖位置，逆境下，機會一樣存在，在於我們是否有敏銳的觸覺，在困難中尋找機遇。

我問自己，如何可以令更多香港青年向上流？於是我成立香港青年創業家總商會和獎學金，在不同的平台鼓勵年青人創業者，擴闊視野，了解大趨勢，勇於嘗試，必定能夠在香港以至有龐大市場和機遇的大灣區，可以尋找到發展的方向，發揮香港人的創意和創業精神。遇上困難總要堅持，抱著樂觀、積極的態度與正能量。我仍然希望服務更多青年，同時亦鼓勵他們在大灣區創業。

未來五年， 我最希望是見到香港在融入國家發展大局之後會變得更好。

A real-life inspiring story about a Temple Street post-80s To encourage young people to start their business and expand their horizons

"Perseverance, perseverance, and perseverance again. If you are determined to do things, you will never lose. Not losing is like winning half the battle." Whenever I encounter difficulties, I will think of these words to encourage myself and to persevere — we can find a way out of the most challenging times by rising to the occasion.

A decade ago, I quit my accountancy firm job, moving from my comfort zone to work in the more volatile food and beverage industry. Many friends and family have disapproved of my decision, saying it is unwise to give up a steady and promising career to become an entrepreneur based on my impulses. At 26, I opened my first cha chan teng, which was my memorable first step. At that time, I decided to give myself a three years goal of setting up my business. If I cannot succeed when I turn 30, I will switch to another job. However, as I continued with my business, I expanded my cha chan teng business and other business ventures such as hotpot dining, Chiu Chow cuisine, or a themed restaurant.

When I was a kid, I used to help my parents out at their market stall on Temple Street. As we all know, Temple Street is a place that is so rich in Hong Kong's culture. It is also part of our Chinese culture and forms part of the collective memories of the Hong Kong people. I treasure this sense of belonging and hope to pass it on to the next generation through food and other experiences.

While it is hard to start a business, it is even harder to sustain one. In recent years, the continued epidemic has hit the food and beverage business very hard, but I firmly believe that if you keep trying, you will not lose. I always keep a positive mindset: "No one has what I have; no one has what I am good at." Believe there is always an opportunity in adverse situations; during the business downturn, for example, the rent will be adjusted so that we can find a more suitable store location.

I ask myself, what can I do for other young people and help them move upward? Over the years, I established the Hong Kong General Chamber of Young Entrepreneurs and scholarship. I shared my experiences through different platforms. I want to take the opportunity to encourage all young people to start their business, and expand their horizons and understand the big trends. Only by making attempts can they find the right opportunities in Hong Kong and even a bigger market in the Greater Bay Area, and give full play to Hong Kong people's creativity and entrepreneurial spirit. And you should always keep faith when you encounter problems and be optimistic, positive, and energetic. I still hope to serve more young people. I also encourage them to start their businesses in the Greater Bay Area.

In the next five years, my greatest hope is to see a better Hong Kong as we have integrated into the country's national development.

About Calvin Mak Hoi Kwan

The first neurosurgeon in Hong Kong who developed and mastered the new service of minimally invasive endoscopic transorbital skull base surgery. During the pandemic, he helped to establish the first smart hospital command centre in Hong Kong to expedite patient turnover. He also helped to promote the use of 5G 4K ultra-high definition technology for minimally invasive neurosurgery. Such technology allowed more multidisciplinary surgeons who could not be in the operating room to participate in surgical procedures, improving the quality of treatment and enhancing patient safety. To date, over fifty patients have successfully undergone multi-disciplinary minimally invasive neurosurgical operations.

What I'd do in the face of adversity:

香港是我家，以專業知識回饋我成長的地方

見的將來繼續在公立醫院服務市民。我在香港長大，在香港的大學讀書，即使大學的學費，都是靠政府 Grant Loan（學生資助）和獎學金支撐，今天成為醫生，除自己努力之外，香港為我提供了成長所需要的環境、支持。所以畢業以後，真的想為香港做一點事情，回饋我成長的地方。

或許有人會認為我的想法很傻，但若只向利益看，人生會有很多限制和枷鎖。幾年前我考獲神經外科專科資格，有機會到外國深造經眼眶全內視鏡顱底微創手術（神經外科），跟世界著名的教授學習，回港後發展嶄新的經眼眶內視鏡腦手術。這些經歷學習，令我更珍惜這地方帶給我的一切。我相信將目光放遠一點，不要因眼前的好處而改變目標，所得到的喜樂會更多。

我生於八十年代的香港，和大家一樣見證香港的變遷，即使近年香港風雨飄搖，但我仍然會繼續留守我的崗位，用我所學，去幫助更多香港人，為醫學界，引進更好的醫療技術。

香港是我家，我會繼續發揮自己所長，用生命影響生命，鼓勵醫護界的同事以至社會各界、大家一齊為香港努力。

未來五年，我最希望達成的願望是香港在國際舞台再登高峰。

我自幼多病，媽媽有類風濕關節炎，需要經常覆診，小時候已親切身感受到醫生可以幫助人，醫生的工作非常正面，相信就這是原因，促使我自小就有做醫生的理想。我是一個讀書有點天分，懂得分配時間的人，會考終於拿到好的成績，入到大學修讀醫科，達成理想，不負父母的期望。

畢業後在公立醫院當了 14 年醫生，不少朋友都問我，會否考慮離開公立醫院，當私家醫生「搵錢」。雖然有不少朋友離開，但老實說，我仍然希望在可有一位記者訪問我，他的報道中形容我多次將「真係好鍾意香港」掛在咀邊，我的確是很喜歡香港。我出身並非富裕家庭，小時候爸爸是打工仔，母親是家庭主婦，那一個年代，大多數父母都是辛苦工作賺錢，一分耕耘，一分收穫，都希望自己的兒女可以多讀書，不用捱窮。我和大多數香港人都一樣，在這樣的環境成長，父母努力工作賺錢，作為子女就努力讀書，考好會考，上大學，將來找一份好工作。

Hong Kong is my home; sharing my expertise and giving back to my home

A journalist once mentioned that I often talked about Hong Kong. It's true, for I love the city deeply. I was not born into a wealthy family. When I was small, my dad worked as an ordinary employee, and my mom was a housewife. Back then, most parents worked very hard to make money, offering their children a better education, so they do not need to experience poverty. Similarly, the children are diligent in their studies to do better in exams and go to university to get a good job.

I was often ill when I was small. My mom suffered from rheumatoid arthritis and needed regular visits to doctors from time to time. Hence, I witnessed how vital doctors help people. As the work of a doctor is so meaningful, I have always wanted to become a doctor. Since I know I can do well in my studies and am somewhat capable of allocating my time, I eventually achieved impressive results in my HKCEE exams and got admitted into medicine at university. Achieving this dream is also a way of fulfilling my parents' expectations.

Having worked 14 years as a doctor in public hospitals after graduation, my friends have asked me whether I would prefer to quit and become a private doctor to earn more money. Although many friends have left their roles at public hospitals, I still resisted the idea. Born and educated in Hong Kong, I know that even my university fees were subsidized by Grant Loan from the government and my scholarship. To become a doctor today, apart from my hard work, Hong Kong has provided me with the environment and support to do what I do. This is why I am so eager to do what I can to contribute to Hong Kong—where I grew up—after my studies.

Perhaps many people will think me naive but if all we care about is money, our lives will be so constrained and limited. A few years ago, I obtained my neurosurgery qualification and had the opportunity to go abroad for further studies on contemporary minimally invasive endoscopic skull base surgery, learning from world-class medical experts. Upon return to Hong Kong, I have developed the new service of endoscopic transorbital surgery with my team. This experience has helped me cherish what I have. I believe that if we can set our eyes on more significant, more long-term goals rather than being too focused on short-term rewards, we will have more joy in life.

Born in the 1980s in Hong Kong, we have witnessed the changes in this city together. Even though Hong Kong has experienced so much turmoil in recent years, I still believe in standing firmly in my doctor position to help more people and introduce the best technology into the medical industry.

Knowing that Hong Kong will always be my home, I will continue to keep up my efforts to be the best that I can be, influence the lives of others, and encourage more medical colleagues, as well as different sectors of the community to work hand-in-hand together for the betterment of Hong Kong.

Let us all work together for Hong Kong in the next five years, putting the city on the international stage to new heights.

「十大傑青與香港青年對話：願・建未來」首創點子銀行　願創美好香港

國際青年商會香港總會主辦「十大傑青與香港青年對話：願・建未來」於 11 月 19 日（星期六) 假香港理工大學西九龍校園圓滿舉行。十大傑青與近 80 位青年人進行創建工作坊，「腦震盪」創作過百條有助社區發展的點子！

本次活動邀得民政及青年事務局局長麥美娟女士 , SBS, JP 擔任主禮嘉賓。局長提及歷屆獲獎傑青的背景多元化，正是香港多元社會的縮影，讚揚十大傑青是青年人的好榜樣！ 2022 年國際青年商會香港總會總會會長楊甘琳女士於致辭時更表示青年人盛載的那些故事和夢想，亦可能因為別人的引導啟發而設法實踐驅動。

當天的兩場分享環節，共有 8 位傑青分享，包括 2022 年世界十大傑青招彥燾先生及 2013 年十大傑青張寶雯女士、2021 年十大傑青簡汝謙先生以及本屆十大傑青陳詩瓏女士、張家朗先生、麥凱鈞先生、潘智豪先生及謝海發先生。他們談及如何堅持目標，自強不息地實踐理想，並且透過文化、科創及教育等角度，分享如何重設、反思及重建，「看・見」更美好的未來。

當日通過創建工作坊，引領一眾傑青與近 80 位青年人「腦震盪」創作過百條有助社區發展的點子及願望，共創可持續發展的點子銀行。點子銀行主要以如何提升青年人對香港的希望感、幸福感及國際性作思維主導，希望青年人更加關懷社區，參與社區策劃。所有點子將分享給國際青年商會香港總會各分會及近 20 個合作團體，希望未來五年甚至以後一同將點子轉化為社區計劃及措施，讓香港變得更好的構想一一實現！

Dialogue for Our Future
The first-ever idea bank to set out vision for a better Hong Kong

Organised by JCIHK, Dialogue for Our Future was successfully held on 19 November (Saturday) at the PolyU West Kowloon Campus. TOYP awardees and approximately 80 young talents participated in an ideation workshop and co-created more than 100 ideas beneficial to community development.

Ms. Alice Mak Mei-kuen, SBS, JP, Secretary for Home and Youth Affairs, officiated at the event as Guest of Honor. In her remarks, she mentioned that TOYP awardees from different backgrounds serve as an epitome of a diversified society. She also commended the awardees as role models for young people. In the opening remarks, Ms. Karen Yeung, JCI Hong Kong 2022 National President, said that the stories and the dreams of young people may be driven and realized under others' inspiration and guidance.

The two sharing sessions featured eight TOYP awardees, including 2022 TOYP World Honoree Mr. Ricky Chiu, 2013 TOYP Awardee Ms. Rowena Cheung, 2021 TOYP Awardee Mr. Ronald Kan, and 2022 TOYP Awardees Ms. Shannon Chan, Mr. Edgar Cheung, Mr. Calvin Mak, Mr. Steven Pun and Mr. Calvin Tse. Not only did they share how they pursued their goals and realised their visions, but they also shared their insights on how to reset, rethink and rebuild a better future for Hong Kong from cultural, I&T and educational perspectives.

In the subsequent idea creation workshop, TOYP awardees and nearly 80 youngsters worked together to brainstorm more than 100 ideas and express wishes that would help advance community development and form a sustainable idea bank. Taking "how to enhance young people's sense of hope, happiness and internationalism towards Hong Kong" as the main direction, the idea bank aims to encourage young people to care for the community and be part of community planning. All the ideas will be shared with the local chapters of JCI Hong Kong and nearly 20 idea creation partners. We hope to turn the ideas into community plans and actions in the next five years or in the future, so as to build a better Hong Kong.
