Message from Patron

The Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection has been an exciting programme in Hong Kong's events calendar for almost 30 years. The Award gives recognition to individuals who excel in their respective professions and are role models for our young people in serving the community.

The world is about to enter a new millennium. We need our young people to provide the impetus for Hong Kong's development as we position ourselves as the London and New York in Asia. By organizing this Award Scheme, the Hong Kong Junior Chamber complements Government's efforts in promoting leadership and a culture of service amongst our young people.

I congratulate all Awardees of 1999 on your achievements and success. Keep up the good work and encourage more people to follow your excellent examples.

The Hon. Mrs. Anson Chan, GBM, JP
Chief Secretary for Administration

Message from Guest of Honour

Over the years, the Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection has become a remarkable event to recognize Hong Kong's distinguished young people of their achievements in their own careers and in serving the community. This provides our young people inspiration and encouragement to strive for their personal goals and for the betterment of Hong Kong.

In the new millennium, we will face more opportunities and challenges. We need the vigour, courage and dedication of our young leaders to build up a better future. The Awardees have indeed set good examples for all young people in bringing out their best to contribute to the prosperity of Hong Kong. I would like to extend my congratulations to the winners for their exceptional accomplishments.

I would also like to commend the Hong Kong Junior Chamber for organizing this annual event which has provided us an opportunity to give those a recognition they well deserve.

Michael M. Y. Suen, GBS, JP
Secretary for Constitutional Affairs

Message from National President Hong Kong Junior Chamber

It is my great pleasure to congratulate all the eight awardees of the 1999 Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection.

Hong Kong Junior Chamber, being an international leadership development organization, purports to train young people as future leaders to enable them to serve the community. This year, we have organized over 100 community projects on key issues of Hong Kong and the Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection (TOYP) is the most influential one.

Since its first selection in 1970, Hong Kong Junior Chamber has awarded 208 outstanding young persons for their remarkable contributions to their professions and to our community. The current and past awardees will continue as the role models for the younger generation, to remind and encourage the youngsters to make contribution for the betterment of our community. This echoes the mission of our organization, " to contribute to the advancement of the global community by providing the opportunity for young people to develop their leadership skills, social responsibility, entrepreneurship and fellowship necessary to create positive change".

Taking this opportunity, I wish to thank our Selection Consultation, Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu and the Panel of Judges, led by Chief Judge, Dr. the Hon. Rosanna Wong, JP, for their hard work in maintaining fairness and the very high standard throughout the selection process. We have to thank our sole sponsor, Bel Trade (Holdings) Co. Ltd. for their generous sponsorship that makes this selection possible.

My sincerest thanks go to our Patron, the Hon. Mrs. Anson Chan, GBM, JP and our Guest of Honour, Mr. Michael Suen, GBS, JP for their support to our organization.

Last but not the least, I have to thank TOYP Chairman Shirley Chan and her organizing committee members for the tremendous time and efforts devoted in making this year's selection another success.

Once again, congratulations to the eight awardees and their proposers.

Message from The Chief Judge

Once again the Hong Kong Junior Chamber makes its annual selection of Outstanding Young Person. This is always an occasion to which I look forward, for it reminds the community, and me, that Hong Kong richest resource is her young people.

I would like to extend my heartiest congratulations to the winners. They have all shone in their areas of interest and specialisation, and the accomplishments that they have made over the past year deserve our special recognition and commendation.

Each of the eight winners has demonstrated their high regard towards serving the community. They have exemplified responsibility, duty and care to those less fortunate than themselves. This is indeed a wonderful example to follow.

The Chamber too deserves special thanks. They continue to work tirelessly and have shown great dedication in ensuring that the future faces of Hong Kong are recognised by their deeds today.

Message from Sole Sponsor
Bel Trade (Holdings) Co., Ltd.

It is indeed the honour of Bel Trade (Holdings) Co., Ltd. to be the sole sponsor of this "Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection" - the last one held in this century.

The Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection, organized by the Hong Kong Junior Chamber has become the talk of the town since its inauguration in 1970. The objective of the Award is to commend those young persons upon their outstanding achievements in their professions as well as their services in community activities. It is hoped that the award winners would act as role models to inspire the younger generation to be enthusiastic in the development of their personal qualities, and in the participation of community services, thus helping to shoulder the responsibility of building up our society. We are delighted to see that over 100 of the past award winners have continued to dedicate themselves for the good of our society and our country.

Although we are suffering severe economic hardship triggered by the Asian financial turmoil, Hong Kong people are still full of vigor, hope and confidence. I firmly believe that people of Hong Kong, including the past and present Outstanding Young Persons Award winners, would strive for progress with determination in their professions. With our joint efforts, we can tackle any challenge and will be able to seize new opportunities very soon to build a better future for Hong Kong.

I have much pleasure to learn that we have this year eight Award winners to bring us new ideas and forces. Your remarkable performances are well recognized. We hope that all of you would work harder and be more involved in community services, to help contribute to the prosperity of Hong Kong. "Outstanding Young Persons of today are leaders of tomorrow", I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate all the winners and wish you every success in your future endeavors.

Last but not least, I would like to thank the Hong Kong Junior Chamber for their efforts in selecting so many outstanding young persons for our society. Thank you.

Message from Hon. Life President Hong Kong Junior Chamber

It is only right that the community should acclaim the outstanding achievements of young people. It is also proper that selfless service to society as a whole should be known and applauded by all.

The success of Hong Kong through the years has been due in the main to the unwonted exertions of its people in overcoming the odds and rising above adversity. The living conditions evolving here over the years have spurred on successive generations to do even more for the common good.

Now in 1999 as in the years before, the Hong Kong Junior Chamber has singled out these young men and women for worthy community recognition.

May they long continue to meet with success and happiness in all they do.

A. de O. Sales, GBM, JP
Hon. Life President

Message from Long Range Planning Committee Chairman Hong Kong Junior Chamber

Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection is an annual important project for both the community and Hong Kong Junior Chamber. Through the project, we can recognize outstanding young persons and project them as role models for other dedicated youth to follow. In return, our members also gain invaluable experience from organizing this large-scale project. The Long Range Planning Committee (LRPC) strongly supports NOM in putting sufficient resource to run this project in order to achieve maximum impact on our society.

Taking this opportunity, I would like to congratulate all the TOYP awardees for their past contribution to Hong Kong and wish them all the best in coming days. Your continuous involvement in Hong Kong affairs will definitely be beneficial to Hong Kong citizens at large.

Message from Trust Fund Committee Chairman Hong Kong Junior Chamber

I am pleased to congratulate Hong Kong Junior Chamber and all the awardees on the occasion of the 1999 Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection Awards Presentation Ceremony.

Hong Kong Junior Chamber organized the first TOYP Selection in 1970 for the recognition of the remarkable contributions of the young persons in the community. We are pleased to see this annual event becoming ever more meaningful as all the past awardees have continued to make contributions for the betterment of our community. This year, we are fortunate to have another batch of outstanding young persons joining their predecessors to strive for a better community.

Taking this opportunity, may I wish all the awardees a very prosperous future !

In Jaycee spirit,

Ng Leung Yau
Chairman
Trust Fund Committee

Message from Associate Members Club Chairman Hong Kong Junior Chamber

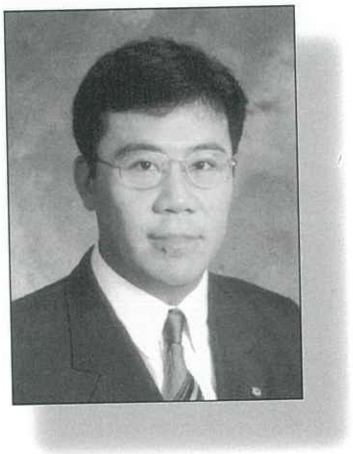

I have particularly warm thoughts and fond memories concerning the Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection as I was privileged to chair the same project exactly twenty years ago. While the TOYP award brings prestige and honour to its recipient, the chairmanship in the organizing committee of this prominent project in the Junior Chamber adds to the glamour of being a Jaycee. Jaycees learn as they participate, and TOYP Selection is always the project through which they make most achievements.

To the awardees this year, I wish to extend my sincere congratulations. They have demonstrated their tremendous enthusiasm, energy and determination in their profession as well as their service to the community. Moreover, the standards of excellence they have set will serve as an aspiration to those around them.

My praise must also go to the Organizing Committee led by Chairman Shirley M. K. Chan. With their concerted efforts, we are able to give proper recognition to those young men and women who have made outstanding contributions to the well being of the community, and who have made the personal success and the good known in the community so that other young persons could emulate in their turn.

Message from
The Outstanding Young Persons' Association Chairman

Energy of the young is vibrating vigorously everywhere in Hong Kong . Some stumble but most get up and walk on, heading for their goal. It is this never-failing spirit which keeps our city going and growing. Young persons are like the early morning sun. Clouds and rains might there be, but sun always shines, only that it is sometimes not being recognized as such.

Since 1970, Hong Kong Junior Chamber has been doing a great job in recognizing those young persons who shine in their respective fields as well as excel in serving the community. This invaluable project has consequently given birth to Ten Outstanding Young Persons each year. Those awarded were all well-aware of their responsibilities to further contribute to the community of Hong Kong. With this in mind, we formed The Outstanding Young Persons' Association (TOYPA) in 1977. Since only the awardees of the Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection are eligible to become a TOYPA member, our membership is now 190 strong.

Our tasks are: to sponsor and organize projects for the well-being of Hong Kong and to propose recommendations to the Government or relevant authorities on matters pertaining to the welfare of Hong Kong.

TOYPA members cover diverse industries and professions who not only excel in their own field but also constitute a significant task force in a wide variety of Councils, Boards, Committees which are important in the development of Hong Kong. Indeed, we have sponsored, organized or co-organized numerous projects for the welfare of Hong Kong in the past years.

This year, we welcome the newly selected awardees and are sure of the fact that we could have new blood in carrying on with our TOYPA spirit- 'Together with our youthful hands, we make future'.

The spirit of Hong Kong is up and strong. Let us all shine and make the future of Hong Kong as bright as can be.

Dr. Ip Yan Ming, JP
The Outstanding Young Persons' Association Chairman

We would like to thank Mr. Michael Suen Ming Yeung, GBS, JP, Secretary for Constitutional Affairs for being the Guest of Honour for this Awards Presentation Banquet. The support of senior government official to this selection is definitely an assured and formal recognition to the awardees who excel in their professional endeavours and commitment to the community.

Moreover, I want to thank the Chairman and members of The Outstanding Young Persons' Association (TOYPA) for their assistance in promoting and supporting the selection. I must also thank all proposers and candidates for their participation in making this selection successful.

I am so delighted to be appointed as the Chairman of this 27th selection. It gives me a great opportunity to work with all parties concerned which indeed enrich my experience. My sincere appreciation also goes to the dedicated and devoted organizing committee members who demonstrated the concerted efforts in executing the project smoothly. My heartfelt gratitude also extends to National President Louise Chan, National Immediate Past President Spencer Suen and Advisor Wendy Pang for their invaluable advice. I would also like to express my thankfulness to the senior members who have extended their assistance whenever required.

The Hon. Bernard Chan, 34, representing the insurance functional constituency, is the youngest Legislative Councillor. He graduated from the Pomona College in California, majoring in studio arts and economics.

Mr. Chan returned to Hong Kong in 1989 and later joined the Asia Financial Group where he put what he had learned into practice by initiating a new corporate culture and business strategy for the Group. He is now Deputy Managing Director of the group and Executive Director of Asia Insurance and Asia Commercial Bank.

To further address the global convergence of financial institutions in a changing economic environment, Mr. Chan brought seven locally incorporated banks together to form an unprecedented alliance to tap the Mandatory Provident Fund market. Today the Bank Consortium Trust, chaired by Mr. Chan, has 10 participating banks.

In addition to his work in LegCo and the industry, Mr. Chan devotes much effort in other community services. Over the past six years, he has been working with Oxfam Hong Kong for charity. He is also Director of Chiu Chow Association Secondary School. Recently he was invited to join the Community Chest as a Director and the Hong Kong Council of Social Service as an Executive Committee Co-opted member.

After having conquered a rare and life-threatening disease while he was still at college, Mr. Chan came to appreciate life to a greater extent and strived to make the most out of each and every day. The shocking experience of being so near to death at such a young age reinforced his enormous zest for life.

陳智思先生現年34歲，代表立法會保險界功能組別，亦是會內最年輕的議員。他畢業於美國POMONA大學，主修藝術，副修經濟。

陳氏於1989年回港，後加入亞洲金融集團，隨即推行公司形象改革，現為集團及其屬下亞洲保險及亞洲商業銀行常務董事。

在他的推動下，七間本地歷史悠久的銀行於今年成立史無前例的銀聯控股以發展強積金業務。現時銀聯增至十間銀行，而陳氏現為銀聯信託的主席。

除為立法會及業界工作，陳氏亦積極投身社會服務。過去六年他都有參與樂施會的籌款工作。他是"毅行者"常客，身體力行去籌款；去年他更捐出1,830本自己的點繪畫畫冊，為「中國發展基金」籌款。

Mr. Lau Tak Wah, Andy
劉德華先生

Now an internationally renowned singer/actor, Mr. Andy Lau was first discovered in 1981 when he enrolled in TVB's Artist Training Programme. It was here that he laid the foundations for an extraordinary screen career spanning over 15 TV series and a total of 99 motion pictures.

Mr. Lau's singing career has been equally formidable. On top of recording more than 50 solo albums in Hong Kong, Taiwan and a host of other countries in Asia, he has also filled the stadiums at over 100 concert venues around the world.

Over the years, his remarkable talents have won him numerous awards, including Taiwan's "Top 10 Idol Awards" which he dominated for six consecutive years. At the 1995 "American Billboard Music Awards", he reinforced his success by winning "Channel [V]'s Viewers Choice Award" - and repeated this achievement a year later. At the 1996 "MTV Movie Awards", he was voted "Most Multi-Talented Artiste in Asia", and in 1998 he won the "Most Popular Male Singer Award" in China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Singapore, and Malaysia.

This year, Mr. Lau won the "Hong Kong Artists of the Year Awards 1999". Furthermore, he was named in People's Daily newspaper's "Tribute to the Motherland" as one of the top 100 most outstanding Chinese representatives in the 50 years since the establishment of the People's Republic of China - an outstanding accomplishment.

In spite of his personal achievements, Mr. Lau's commitment to improve the quality of Hong Kong's movie industry has been uncompromising. In 1990, he set up his own company not only to produce high-calibre local movies, but also to give aspiring individuals the chance to develop their talents - both on and off screen. In 1997, he invested in the critically acclaimed movie, Made in Hong Kong, which won numerous awards worldwide and greatly boosted the image of Hong Kong film makers internationally.

By starting his own music production company, Mr. Lau created a new channel to experiment with different styles and approaches. This has brought a fresh source of vitality to his albums, which are today released around the globe as Hong Kong's music and culture continues to expand beyond boundaries.

While much of his time is spent on singing and acting, Mr. Lau has never neglected his responsibilities towards the community. He is a strong supporter of campaigns such as "Keep Hong Kong Clean", "Be a Good Host", "Against Crime", and "Environmental Protection", and is closely involved with fund raising events for the Hong Kong Sports Association For The Physically Disabled. He also acts as "Charity Ambassador" to many fund raising activities, and as "Official Ambassador" to charity organizations including the Life Education Activity Program, the Hong Kong Marrow Match Foundation and the Ocean Park Conservation Foundation. In 1994, he established the "Andy Lau Charity Foundation" which is focused on supporting people in need and promoting a wide range of youth education services.

From a primary school drop-out who toiled for a mundane living in Shaukeiwan, Rev. Yeung Hok-Ming in his childhood was not a student in good standing. Since he quited school he had worked as causal laborer in different factories, office messenger, and, electrical and water works apprentice.

Rev. Yeung has become a person who incessantly works for the well being of his fellowmen and strives to better equip himself academically. The turning point of his life was in 1975, when he was converted to become a Christian and was baptized. In the same year, he joined the voluntary work as a prison visitor. That year also marked his re-launch into the academic world in which he started from his primary studies and worked hard, eventually to earn several tertiary degrees. He is now working on a master degree in Pastoral Counseling from Acadia University, Canada.

Rev. Yeung has become a full-time worker with the Christian Prison Pastoral Fellowship since 1993, serving in many institutions of the Correctional Services Department, and leading inmates towards a meaningful life and an adaptation in society. In addition to various religious activities, group healing and individual counselings, Rev. Yeung's work also includes activities organizing many practical courses in a bid to cater for inmates both physically and spiritually.

楊學明牧師自幼在筲箕灣貧民山區長大，少時因誤入歧途而輟學，當過工廠雜工、寫字樓信差、水電學徒。

成長後卻成為在努力服務社會之餘，不忘孜孜不倦進修的人；自平凡庸碌蛻變為積極進取，楊牧師生命的轉捩點始於一九七五年他受洗加入基督教教會。

這一年，他以義工身份參與監獄犯人關懷工作，亦展開了持續不懈的進修，由當年小學尚未畢業，至今雖已取得多個學位，仍努力修讀加拿大阿基狄大學輔導學碩士學位。

九三年開始，楊牧師全職投入基督教監獄牧養團契工作，在全港各成人監獄帶領宗教活動、小組治療、個別輔導；並開辦多項課程，全面關顧被囚人士身心靈的需要，帶領他們找尋生命的盼望，幫助他們重新投入社會。

The Outstanding Young Persons' Association Introduction

The Outstanding Young Persons' Association, TOYPA in short, was formed in 1977. The Association is made up of awardees of the Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection. Membership of TOYPA exceeds one hundred ninety.

The Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection, introduced to Hong Kong in 1970, is a major project of the Hong Kong Junior Chamber. Each year, the award is open to nominations by the public. After the process of carefully vetting candidates' data by an appointed auditor firm, the candidates are presented to a Judging Panel consisting of renowned leaders in the government, business, industries, education and various professions. Merits are given to the candidates' exceptional achievements in their respective fields as well as their contributions of personal time and efforts in serving the community.

The Outstanding Young Persons' Association not only gives proper recognition to the achievements of the recipients, but also carries with it certain responsibilities. All those selected are expected to make further contributions to the community of Hong Kong and to serve as inspirational examples to other young people. It is with this spirit that recipients of the Award work together to serve the community.

The aims of TOYPA are :

1. To sponsor and organise projects for the well-being of Hong Kong.
2. To propose recommendations to the Government or relevant authorities on matters pertaining to the welfare of Hong Kong.
3. To assist in the annual selection of the Ten Outstanding Young Persons.

TOYPA membership covers diverse industries and professions including a number of active members in the political arena, serving on the Executive Council, Legislative Council, Provisional Urban Council, Provisional Regional Council, Provisional District Boards, Drafting Committee for the Basic Law of Hong Kong SAR, and National Peoples' Congress of the PRC and Hong Kong Affairs Advisors ... etc.

Since its inception, TOYPA has organised and sponsored numerous community service projects, spending over $2 million. All financial resources have been generated from funds raised over the years. In all projects organised, co-organised or sponsored by TOYPA, members take an active role with commitment and dedication.
