MESSAGE FROM
HONORARY ADVISOR

Dr. Bunny CHAN Chung-bun GBS, JP

Former Chairman of The Commission on Youth

I am very glad that JCI Hong Kong has chosen "Uniting Everyone – A Home for All" as the theme of their National Convention this year. For a community to be able to continue to prosper, "unity" is a basic and important ingredient. Hong Kong has developed well and in most respects we are amongst the best in the world. Indeed Hong Kong is only a city and we are not even a country. Yet we are doing better than many many countries. On the other hand, Hong Kong is small and has very limited resources. The most powerful asset Hong Kong has is its people. In other words, Hong Kong achieved its present position almost entirely by its people. We do not depend on luck or what we have been endowed. We work hard. We have the courage to take up and pursue the hardest tasks. We innovate. We do not just give up when there are obstacles in front. Most important of all, we are united in purpose. We allow different opinions and different ways of doing things. We do not try to eliminate those views or groups which are different from us. We spend our energy on moving forward together, not on blocking each other's pathway so that in the end we just stand still. I note that this year's National Convention is covering three aspects of "unity" or "integration": cross-generational, cultural and physically handicapped & able bodied. All three aspects are important and vital to the continued and sustained success of Hong Kong. I send my best wishes to JCI Hong Kong and I look forward to hearing the ideas and views generated from the National Convention.

MESSAGE FROM
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF
JUNIOR CHAMBER INTERNATIONAL

Senator Natalie VISELLI

Executive Vice President of JCI (Asia and the Pacific)

Dear 2015 National President Leung Kwok Chu Anthony and the Members of JCI Hong Kong,

It is my great honor to congratulate you on this very special occasion – your 50th National Convention. I wish that I could be with you to celebrate this important event.

We started this year with a challenge from the JCI President to 'Commit, Connect and Care'. And you have certainly risen to that challenge.

JCI members believe that everlasting peace is a goal worth fighting for. In 2015 you have made a very strong commitment to build a harmonious community in Hong Kong that accepts people of different generations, cultures and views on sense of value. Many of the projects you have done this year have aimed to help some of the most vulnerable in society – the young, the elderly and those with disabilities.

You were great supporters of this year's Asia and the Pacific Conference in Kota Kinabalu, where you enthusiastically connected with JCI members from around the region. I was pleased to see so many JCI Hong Kong members participate in the range of programs and events. You were most hospitable with your fabulous Hong Kong Night and some of your recent efforts to make positive impact were recognized through the awards you won. I hope that all of you who attended brought home the spirit of aramai tii and have spread it throughout the Hong Kong community.

After 65 years, JCI Hong Kong members still care. When I joined you earlier this year, I saw first hand the passion with which you through yourself into the many projects you do. From reducing food waste, to improving the work/life balance of women, to eradicating preventable diseases around the world, you devote so much of your free time to engage in these projects because each of you genuinely want to make people's lives better. And you are making lives better.

I want to take this opportunity to thank you.

Thank you for committing.
Thank you for connecting.
And thank you for caring.

Your efforts will certainly help unite everyone and make Hong Kong a home for all.

Yours sincerely

Natalie Viselli
2015 JCI Executive Vice President
Asia and the Pacific

It is again the time of year when Jaycees gather, passing bills that enable JCI Hong Kong to move forward, evaluating works done in the past year and electing leaders for the year to come. National Convention is an essential part of life in JC and marks the climax of the year.

All the familiar faces present at National Convention form a formidable picture. It reminds me of this year's theme: Action with Appreciation. Please allow me to start by congratulating the members of JCI Hong Kong on successfully holding your 50th National Convention. Thank you very much, as well, for your close friendship and strong support for JCI Japan this year.

Based on your national slogan, Action with Appreciation, and under the capable leadership of National President Anthony Leung, in 2015 you have been actively engaged in a number of movements, which are the crystallization of the wisdom of the young citizens of Hong Kong. I have the greatest respect for the outstanding past leaders and members of JCI Hong Kong, for the way in which they have worked to establish the JC movement at the local level, while at the same time transmitting the JC movement to the rest of the world, over the last 65 years. Their efforts have resulted in the positive transformation of both the local community as well as the city of Hong Kong as a whole.

Right through the present day, JCI Hong Kong and JCI Japan have continued to carry out various activities, and nineteen Local Organizations from each of our respective National Organizations have established sister relations with one other.

The JC movement, which began with the awakening of one young man, celebrates its 100th anniversary this year. This will also be the year in which we open a new path toward our future. Through forward-looking exchange, let us treasure our connections with one another, further deepen our friendship and, as strong partners, contribute to the achievement of everlasting peace and stability, by reaching out together from the Asia Pacific region.

I sincerely hope that the friendship between JCI Hong Kong and JCI Japan will shine ever more brightly and I would like to close by offering my heartfelt prayer for the further development and ongoing health and success of the members of JCI Hong Kong.

National President of JCI Singapore

JCI Hong Kong has been through many generations of young leaders and entrepreneurs. At each meeting, you swear an oath to the same creed and values that we have take as well. It's an oath of faith, brotherhood, aspiration, law and service. I believe all of us take it in the same spirit that all those before us have done!

By your actions tonight, you seek to further better ourselves through training the best of your abilities, so as to produce better resources for humanity. To improve that of our lives and that of others. Your actions will reflect your words and thoughts and these will not only shape the way you see this world, but ultimately shape this world itself! This definitely aligns with the JCI Hong Kong 50th National Convention theme, "Uniting Everyone - A home for all"

As man must produce the physical values we need to sustain our life, so must we acquire the values of character that make our lives worth sustaining. These are the values that our journey in JCI will demand of us. May we all aspire to be better and better all around us.

Best wishes to the JCI Hong Kong members who will be running for office!

While JCI Hong Kong celebrates her 65th Anniversary, JCI also commemorates her 100th year of founding this year. A grand Reception for Senators held prior to the JCIHK 65th Anniversary Ball was well attended by over 100 senators.

Your presence as a role model to the new blood contributes to a healthy growth and development of the JCI movement in Hong Kong.

Lastly, I would like to express my sincere congratulations to JCI Kowloon for hosting this spectacular National Convention to bring members, old and new, together!

MESSAGE FROM
NATIONAL CONVENTION DIRECTOR

Senator Nelson LIN

National Convention Director

Welcome to the 50th National Convention of JCI Hong Kong.

That is a perfect ending! I am deeply honored to take up the role as the National Convention Director (NCD) for Junior Chamber International (JCI) Hong Kong at my last term being a full member. It is also my greatest glory to represent JCI Kowloon to be the NCD after our Honorary Life President Senator Andrew Wong, BBS in 1980.

National Convention is one of the most important events of Junior Chamber International Hong Kong (JCI Hong Kong) every year. This is a 3-day event for all the local chapters and members of JCI Hong Kong during which we review the policies adopted, goals set for the year and projects and activities organized in different areas of JCI perspectives. Also, at the General Assembly of the National Convention, we will elect the officers of JCI Hong Kong at the national level who will lead our organization the year after.

In addition, the theme of the National Convention this year is:

"Uniting Everyone - A Home for All" or "共融"

With this theme in mind, JCI Hong Kong and her local chapters hope to promote and develop the awareness of the need and significance in building a harmonious community in Hong Kong that can afford to accept people of different generations, cultures and views on the sense of value through our projects and activities throughout the year. Specifically, the topics to be featured under the theme include:

Cross-generational Integration (跨代共融)

Cultural Integration (文化共融)

PHAB (Physically Handicapped & Able Bodied) Integration (傷健共融)

Through this National Convention and its theme program, we believe JCI Hong Kong and her chapters, as well as other societies and organizations will thus make use of the opportunity to reflect on the work done in relation to this theme and share with all delegates and guests the experience and views in taking up the subject.

Taking this opportunity, I would like to thank our Guest of Honor, all sponsors and delegates for the supports to the 50th National Convention. I would also like to extend my wholehearted thanks to National President Senator Anthony Leung, National General Legal Counsel Senator Brian Kwan and National Secretary General Senator Olive Chan for their valuable guidance and advices. Also, special thanks to Senator Licca Chan, Senator Ban Chui and Past President Parlett Chang to accept my invitation as the trainers of the first timer program. My sincere gratitude goes to all NOM Officers and LOM Presidents for their full support, especially all LOM NC ambassadors for their greatest effort and seamless coordination.

Furthermore I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to my mother chapter, JCI Kowloon and President Aron Wong for their warm support. Last but not least, I have to send my deepest appreciation to all the JCI Kowloon's members, especially all Deputy Convention Directors, Advisors and OCs, who paid huge efforts sharing the workload, overcoming the difficulties and providing continuingous support.

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, I hope you enjoy every moment during the National Convention and wish you all a glorious year in 2015 and ahead.

We find targeted solutions to local issues benefitting our communities, our world and our future. Embracing new ideas, collaboration and diversity, we have the passion and courage to address the critical challenges of our time.

CREED

We believe that "faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life; the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations; economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise; Government should be of laws rather than of men, earth's great treasure lies in human personality; and service to humanity is the best work of Life".
