

1995 JCI WORLD CONGRESS
GLASGOW, SCOTLAND
November 5 - 11, 1995

Junior Chamber International Glasgow World Congress 1995

November 5-11, 1995

Theme: "Success Through Enterprise"

Glasgow is the first European destination for a World Congress in four years. It is, therefore, a sterling opportunity for you and your chapter to attend.

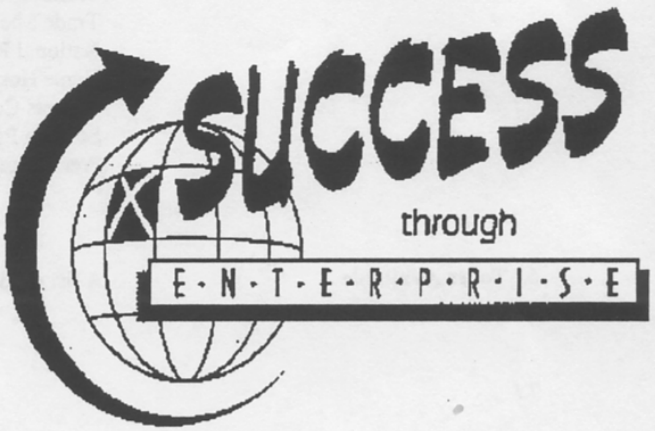

If you have always wanted to visit Scotland, have relatives, business contacts or friends there you'd like to visit, or if you merely wish to take advantage of the warm hospitality which awaits you, please register early to let us know you are coming. (And don't forget, early registration saves you money.)

A full series of business, training and theme programs is being organized with world-renowned speakers, together with many social events you will long remember - and there will be plenty to do for spouses and Senators.

A Warm Welcome Awaits You All In Glasgow

GLASGOW WORLD CONGRESS 1995
PRE AND POST CONGRESS TOUR

HIGHLIGHTS
ST ANDREWS - ABERDEEN - INVERNESS - LOCH NESS - GLEN COE

THURSDAY, 2 NOVEMBER AND SUNDAY 12, NOVEMBER 1995

Day One
The tour departs Glasgow at 1000. Travel to the River Forth and, after viewing the Forth Bridges, we cross to the Kingdom of Fife. A visit to St Andrews, the home of golf, is next on our itinerary. Across the Tay Bridge and along the coast road to Aberdeen for a tour of the granite city and then to our hotel.

Dinner and overnight: Ardoe House Hotel, Aberdeen/similar

Day Two
We tour Royal Deeside and enjoy some magnificent mountain scenery today as we climb high over the Cairngorm Mountains and down into the Spey Valley, the home of Speyside Malt Whiskies. There will be a guided tour of a malt whisky distillery before continuing to Inverness, where the rest of the day is free for independent sighseeing and/or shopping.

Dinner and overnight: Mercury Hotel, Inverness.

Day Three
Today starts with Monster hunting along the shores of Loch Ness. The spectacular scenery continues through the Great Glen to Glen Coe with it's terrible history of massacre. Over bleak and desolate Rannoch Moor to the bonnie, bonnie banks of Loch Lomond and finally to Glasgow.

Tour Includes:-

* 2 nights dinner, bed and full Scottish breakfast
* Accommodation in rooms with private bath and/or shower
* Guided tour of Malt Whisky Distilleries (including a "wee dram")
* Visit to a Woollen Mill
*Transportation throughout by luxury touring coach
* Services of specially trained English speaking driver/guide
* Porterage charges at all hotels based on 1 piece of luggage per person
* All service charges and taxes.

Tour does not include-

* Items of a personal nature such as drinks, newspapers, lunches, snacks, etc
* Gratuities for driver/guide
* Passenger or baggage insurance

SENATORS!

A VERY WARM SCOTTISH WELCOME AWAITS YOU IN GLASGOW IN NOVEMBER 1995

We are already working hard to prepare for you a Senate program which will allow you to meet old friends and make many new ones. The Senate hotel will be the luxurious Moat House Hotel, only minutes drive downtown and connected by regular transport links with all main Congress venues.

The program will include -
Golf on some of the best courses in the world
Visits to distilleries to see how whisky is made - and to try the product!
Curling lessons and games - find out why it is called "the roaring game"!
City sightseeing tours - Great Britain's most famous Victorian architectural city
Tours to other areas of Scotland, featuring mountains and lochs
Visits to woollen mills
Romantic candlelit river cruises
Day trips by air to venues such as London, Dublin, or Amsterdam
Air flights round the Scottish coastline
Visits to dynamic businesses in the Glasgow area
Tours to Edinburgh, our capital city, and its famous Castle
Senators' lunch with keynote speaker

You will also have ample opportunity to shop in the many top quality stores in the city; to visit some of Glasgow's famous "pubs"; to spend time at the numerous art galleries, museums and theatres for which the city is famous; and to eat in the many restaurants of Glasgow - whether your taste is Scottish, European or completely international!

Once you have also participated in the main Congress program - the Welcome Party, Opening Ceremony, Home Hospitality, TOYP, Scottish night, national parties of every kind, the Trade show, General Assembly, training, Awards Ceremony and Presidential Banquet - you will be ready to relax in the Senate lounge, where Junior Chamber Scotland's Senators are looking forward to offering you some traditional Scottish hospitality.

If you would like more detailed information sent to you about the Senate program, please contact:-

NATIONAL PARTIES and VIP RECEPTIONS

NATIONAL PARTIES

National Parties are one of the unique features of JCI Conferences and Congresses. In Glasgow we hope that many NOMs and LOMs will want to host parties for the more than 4000 delegates we expect to attend the World Congress in Glasgow. Should your country be interested in hosting a party, PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION:

* Confirmation of times and venues for parties is the responsibility of JCI to whom applications should be made.
* Once JCI has allocated the date, time and venue the Glasgow Organizing Committee will provide information on costs and facilities.
* It is then the responsibility of the party organizer to contract direct with the venue and local suppliers for what is required.

JCI will confirm the date, time and venue of your party no later than 30 June 1995. Applications received after this date will be dealt with on receipt.

VIP RECEPTIONS

There is always a large number of NOMs and LOMs who wish to host a special reception, for example: for VIPs or candidates running for International office. PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION:

* To ensure that VIP`s can attend as many of these as possible JCI will allocate the date, time and venue.
* Once JCI has allocated the date, time and venue the Glasgow Organizing Committee will provide information on costs and facilities.
* It is then the responsibility of the organizer to contract direct with the venue and local suppliers for what is required.

JCI will confirm the date, time and venue of your reception no later than 30 June 1995. Applications received after this date will be dealt with on receipt.

GLASGOW
ART, SHOPPING, RESTAURANTS AND SCOTTISH CHARM

Scotland's largest city is said by many to be its friendliest. Glasgow is one of Europe's most dynamic and cultural cities, yet it has managed to retain its distinctive Scottish charm.

There's a wealth of history to explore in Glasgow. The magnificent Gothic Glasgow Cathedral dates from the 12th century and is dedicated to St. Mungo, the city's patron saint. The City Chambers, Glasgow's most famous Victorian building, was designed in the Italian Renaissance style and opened in 1888. It overlooks George Square, the very heart of Glasgow city centre.

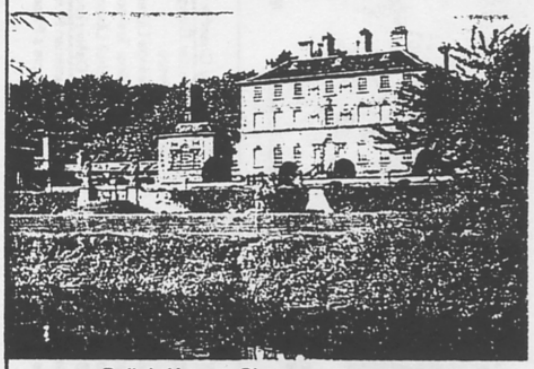

Don't miss The People's Palace on Glasgow Green - its fascinating displays tell the social history of Glasgow from the 12th century. The St. Mungo Museum of Religious Life and Art is a unique exploration of the world's faiths through art. Or why not step back in time to the days of trams and locomotives in the Transport Museum?

Lovers of art will be spoiled by the choices in Glasgow. One trip to the award-winning Burrell Collection simply isn't enough, and the collection of Spanish paintings in Pollok House is outstanding. The Glasgow School of Art is the supreme achievement of architect and artist Charles Rennie Mackintosh, and the Museum of Education in Scotland Street is housed in another of the buildings he designed. Mackintosh fans will be enthralled by the Mackintosh Information Centre at Queen's Cross Church.

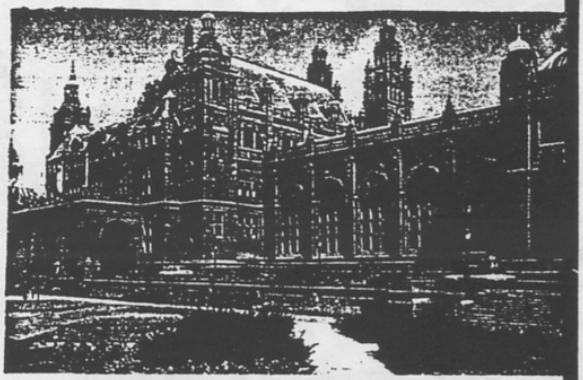

Take a break from touring Glasgow's cultural highlights in one of the city's numerous cafés, bistros and restaurants. All tastes and budgets are catered to, and you're sure of a friendly welcome. Walk off dinner or lunch with some incredible bargains: Glasgow truly is a shopper's paradise! There's such a variety to choose from. The famous Sauchiehall, Buchanan and Argyle Streets are always bustling, and if the weather turns nasty, you can take refuge in the under-cover Princes Square, Italian Centre and St. Enoch's Centre. For something completely different, make sure you do some bargain-hunting at the "Barras" Street Market.

Fresh air fans are catered to, as well. Glasgow has more beautiful parks and gardens than any other European city. Why not take a stroll around the delightful Kelvingrove Park, with its wonderful views of Glasgow University and the picturesque River Kelvin?

The countryside outside Glasgow is stunning too. Within 30 minutes you can be following the footsteps of poet Robbie Burns (Scotland's most famous poet), driving through picturesque mountains (incredible photo opportunities), sailing on the Firth of Clyde or strolling along the bonnie banks of Loch Lomond. You can tour whisky distilleries or play golf (there are so many courses within easy reach it would be impossible to count.) And don't miss a visit to another historic Scottish city: Edinburgh, the capital, is only an hour's drive away.

WELCOME TO GLASGOW, SCOTLAND

50TH JUNIOR CHAMBER INTERNATIONAL WORLD CONGRESS, NOVEMBER 5 - 11, 1995

The 1995 Congress Theme is "Success Through Enterprise,"and, accordingly an impressive business and training program will be offered. Familiar and popular trainers will include Bob Pike, Blaine Bartlett, Bjorn Ringom, and Allan Pease. The schedule will also feature motivational speaker Anthony Robbins from the United States and "Glaswegian", Roslyn Taylor.

After the delegate has participated in the main Congress program, Opening Ceremony, Home Hospitality, The Outstanding Young Persons of the World Ceremony, Scotland National Night, the Awards Ceremony and Presidential Banquet, the trade show, national parties, and the thrill of elections and World Congress selection, he or she will be ready to relax and absorb some Scotland's famous charm.

Glasgow and its surrounding districts offer the delegate a wealth of attractions both historic and modern. The delegate can experience a Victorian Glass House in the Glasgow Botanic Gardens, the grandeur of a 12th century cathedral, or visit the contemporary structures of the brilliant architect Charles Rennie Mackintosh, a Glasgow native. The Glasgow Museum & Art Gallery offers one of the finest exhibitions in the United Kingdom.

The more adventurous may choose to visit Dean Castle, an authentic medieval castle complete with dungeon and battlements! Imagine sailing on the Firth of Clyde, strolling the bonnie banks of Loch Lomond, or playing golf at Prestwick, Carnoustie, or the venerable St. Andrews. Discover the difference between a malt whiskey and a grain whiskey and arrange to visit the home of Speyside Malt Whiskies in the Cairngorm Mountains, situated on Britain's only Alpine Plateau.

This is only a sample of the potential adventures awaiting delegates to the 50th JCI World Congress. Many Delegates will be able to book direct flights into Glasgow International Airport or plan to arrive via the ScotRail/British Rail system by land.
