Leung Ding-bong, Ronald, OBE, JP
Chairman, Urban Council

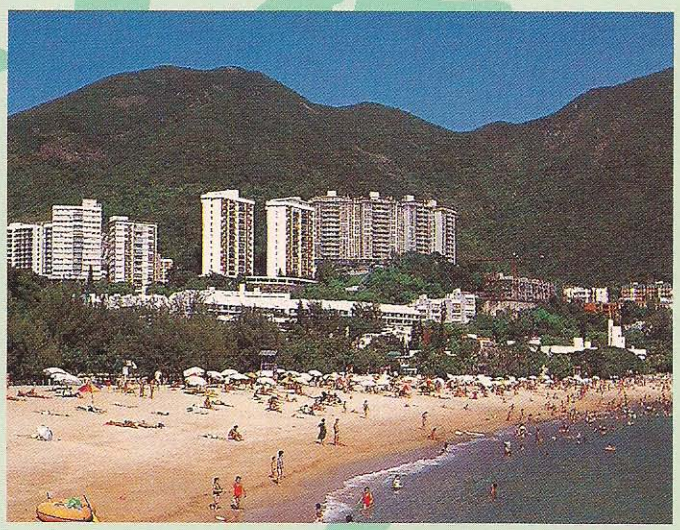

It gives me great pleasure, as the Chairman of Hong Kong's Urban Council, To welcome all of you to come in November 1993 to our beautiful city, we proudly call the "Pearl of the Orient".

The 400,000 members of Junior Chamber International have made significant contribution to their respective communities all over the world. Here in Hong Kong, the Junior Chamber of Commerce has established itself as an outstanding young leaders' organization. I am proud of their achievements, and I am sure you will enjoy your stay in this dynamic, colourful and cosmopolitan city.

May I wish the organizing committee of the 1993 JCI Hong Kong Congress every success.

1993 JCI Hong Kong Congress

Message from National President

Dear Delegates,

How are you and what is your feeling in the Miami World Congress? I think you must have enjoyed a very good time here. If you want to experience once again the fellowship, friendship and valuable training courses, please remember to register for the 1993 Hong Kong World Congress immediately. After waiting 31 years, the Hong Kong Jaycees is going to host the JCI World Congress again for our friends from all over the world. We are proud to inform you that a group of more than 50 dedicated Jaycee members has started the preparation work day and night since January this year in order to create a spectacular congress for you. For all the general members, everybody is excited about it and prepared to offer helping hands to do our best to welcome you. Moreover, a group of past national presidents also voluntarily acts as advisors in order to make this congress a success. We are confident that you will experience a systematic and fantastic 1993 World Congress in Hong Kong.

Please mark your diary, the JCI Hong Kong Congress is between 21st and 27th November 1993. We are ready to welcome you and please let us have the honour to offer the warm hospitality to you and I look forward to seeing you in Hong Kong in 1993.

1993 JCI Hong Kong Congress

Visit the most vibrant city - Hong Kong

Only 150 years ago, it was nothing more than a watering spot for passing ships. Today, it has become one of the most vibrant cities in the world.

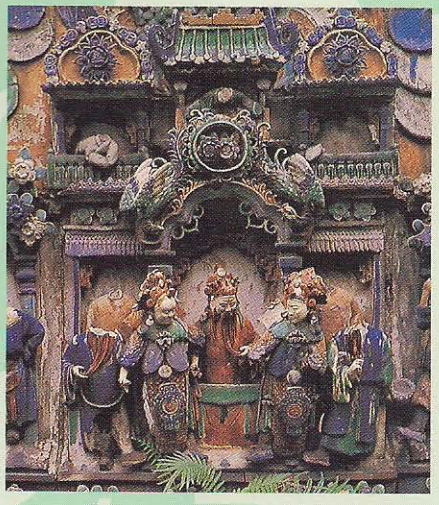

Hong Kong is today still outpacing its popular image. As both a window on China and East Asia's most westernised city, it reputedly epitomises the concept of "East Meets West", is Asia's most popular travel destination, reflecting the quality and variety of its visitor facilities and attractions.

Small wonder that Hong Kong has become a popular convention venue. With the economic powerhouse that this part of the world has become, meeting in Hong Kong will be even more important choice by then.
