THE HON. SIR PHILIP HADDON-CAVE, KBE, CMG, JP
CHIEF SECRETARY

MESSAGE FROM PATRON

I am very pleased to lend my support once again to the Ten Outstanding Young Persons Project. The purpose of the project is to give public recognition to those young persons who have excelled in their own fields of endeavour and, in so doing, have made a particularly noteworthy contribution to our community.

I extend my congratulations to those who have been selected for awards this year. I know they will continue to serve our community in the future. They will be joining a distinguished group of people who have received awards in the past, many of whom have gone on to a career of public service. They will also be joining The Outstanding Young Persons Association, which has undertaken a number of community projects, in particular the provision of career guidance and information to young people.

The Ten Outstanding Young Persons Project is organised by the Hong Kong Junior Chamber of Commerce, which has a fine record of public service, and regularly organises activities for the elderly and for young people. The success of the project is due to the enthusiasm and hard work of the Junior Chamber, its organising committee, and the Panel of Judges. I wish them all every success in the future.

Philip Haddon-Cave
Chief Secretary

MESSAGE FROM THE JCI WORLD PRESIDENT

The "Ten Outstanding Young Persons" Program provides the opportunity to recognize those people who have excelled in their respective fields of endeavor, and who have made an outstanding contribution to their respective communities. May I congratulate the recipients of the prestigious award and encourage them to continually strive for higher ideals.

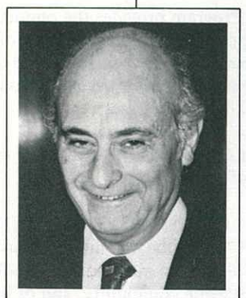

As you gather together, I ask you to concentrate on the challenges that face the Jaycee movement in the rapidly world of today.

While you have achieved a great deal, you will realize that there is still a great deal to be done. There are still young people in the community who are not enjoying the opportunities and benefits of Jaycee membership. Instill in them the spirit of economic justice, of service to the community, and of brotherhood of man – principles that are so well embodied in our Creed.

As JCI President, I congratulate you on your past successes, hope that your current activities will be enjoyable, and wish you all the very best for the future.

MESSAGE FROM
THE HON. LIFE PRESIDENT
HONG KONG JAYCEES

Jaycees the world over pay public tribute to outstanding performance by young people in their communities. In Hong Kong, too, they are honoured each year for their extraordinary contribution to community life or for outstanding personal achievements. I congratulate the Ten Outstanding Young Persons of 1983 on their selection.

This deserving public recognition should serve also as an example to the rising generation here to strive even harder for community betterment. Whether or not they are singled out for doing so does not matter for the Jaycee Creed proclaims the belief that: "Service to humanity is the best work of life". And, not all the many who do great work can be honoured but all have the satisfaction that they are doing their bit for the common good.

The recognition has at the same time encouraged greater pride and dedication among the people of Hong Kong.

May I send my congratulations to all the recipients of the prestigious award in the TOYP Selection 1983. I am certain that, like the past awardees, they will continue to strive for higher ideals in their own fields of endeavour and in their contribution to the well being of our community.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN
THE OUTSTANDING YOUNG PERSONS' ASSOCIATION

We in TOYPA are all delighted that the 1983 Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection has produced another nine awardees this year. The relentless efforts of the Hong Kong Junior Chamber of Commerce in the organisation of this now well known event and the time and support of the judges, selection consultants and sponsors are to be commended. The awardees are to be congratulated.

The TOYP award is a measure of success. Apart from personal efforts, the right social conditions is also an important factor in achieving success. What are the ingredients in our society that are conductive to producing successful people? Many of our past awardees have been asking this question, and whatever the answer may be, there is an inherent desire to preserve these ingredients.

TOYPA is the association of past TOYP awardees, formed in 1977 to collectively mobilise the efforts of our members in undertaking worthwhile projects for the good of the community. We feel the best way to repay the recognition awarded to us by society is to through our own efforts contribute more towards society.

Since 1977, we have in conjunction with other Voluntory agencies and government bodies completed many worthwhile projects such as two series of Careers Guidance Programmes on television, The Selection of Model Children, The Pathfinder project, The Caring Spirit Week, The Outstanding Handicapped Persons Award and many others. This December we are participating in the organising of a seminar for young business executives together with ICAC, during which 7 out of the 9 speakers are our members.

We hope all of the 1983 awardees will join TOYPA and share with us the efforts and satisfaction of continuing to serve the Community through our collective efforts, and contribute towards the prosperity and stability of Hong Kong in a positive way.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

This year's response to the TOYP project has demonstrated that such recognition of the excellence of outstanding young persons for both their professional competence and exceptional community contribution is, in fact, an incentive to a large number of industrious and exemplary young citizens. I am very pleased that nine people have been named as Outstanding Young People of 1983.

The calibre of entrants was extremely high, and my sincere thanks are extended to the Panel of Judges and Selection Consultants who devoted considerable time and energy to identify the awardees.

Last but not the least, I have to show my appreciation to our sponsor, Hang Seng Bank Limited, without their support, the project cannot be a total success.

朱培慶
CHU Pui Hing

Mr Chu is the Head of Chinese Radio Service in RTHK. He applied himself to his studies at an early age and through the attainment of scholarships was able by virtue of his diligence to achieve a BSc from the University of Hong Kong.

Mr Chu's interest in media began during his University days when he was editor of a student newspaper, and he joined RTHK upon graduation in 1971. Mr Chu rose to the challenge, and started RTHK's pop music/youth program format, spear-headed public affairs discussions, and actively sought the station's participation in community affairs, accomplishing all this against the conservatism and inertia which was dominant in those days. His persistence helped firmly establish the pop-music format; his determination ensured the station took on controversial social issues, and he has played a very active role in involving RTHK more in community service. He has personally pioneered this liberal approach to the expression of public opinion in the media. For four years he was the producer/moderator of a current affairs discussion program, and for two-and-a-half years was the producer/host of the Chinese Open Line program, from which he gained prestige and earned respect.

Mr Chu has risen through the ranks to become the youngest-ever Head of Chinese Radio, with a combined audience of approximately three million people. He has never lost sight of his own humble beginnings and is able to present the opinion of the public, while simultaneously using his expertise of media to the benefit of a number of committees on which he serves. He has initiated and is responsible for RTHK's current projects of charity concerts, Kidney Donation Drive, Courtesy Campaign, Selection of the Best Footballers, the First Hong Kong Film Award, and other Government campaigns.

Mrs Chan is a Master of Social Work, working as a Supervisor of the Outreaching Social Work Service of the Hong Kong Christian Service. Her dedication to her profession extends beyond her professional life and she devotes a substantial amount of time and energy to public service.

She has participated in various community campaigns, and gained recognition for her contributions by being appointed a Member of the Yau Ma Tei District Board and the Tsimshatsui Area Committee, where she has made valued observations which have had positive results for the community. She has also been Treasurer of the Yau Ma Tei Culture and Arts Association (1981-1983), a Community Member of Yu Ma Tei District Girl Guides Association (1981-1983), a member of The Public Advisory Group on Film Censorship (Since 1981), and several Other Community Organizations.

Of particular challenge is her "outreaching" social work. This service operates at street level and aims to communicate with the "at risk groups who need help". Problems vary from district to district, from the tendency of the young to associate with the glamour of "flashy" gangs, to the pressures which are the direct result of poor living conditions. Along with providing practical assistance to such needy people, Mrs Chan is also trying to re-educate society to view them as being "sick" rather than "bad".

袁女士曾參與各項公益事業，貢獻良多，深獲各方器重，由是獲選爲油麻地區議員及尖沙咀分區議席，對區務之發展，獨具卓見，造福坊衆不淺。此外並任油尖區文化藝術協會一九八一至八三年度司庫；女童軍油麻地區會一九八一至八三年度委員；自一九八一年起担任電影檢查處公衆諮詢委員；及其他若干社團之職務。

袁女士之外展社會工作，最爲挑釁，需在街頭巷尾，踏踏實服務，其服務對象，乃屬「面臨沉淪急待援手」之輩，而其問題，亦因地區而異；自青少年喜與浮華爲伍之傾向，以至居住環境擠迫產生惡果等等，袁女士除對該等人羣加以實際援助之外，並致力教育社會，勿視彼等爲「壞人」，而應視之爲「病人」，此種卓見，尤足發人深省。

Mr Lau is a Vice Chairman of the Hong Kong Fashion Designers Association. He has made a substantial contribution to Hong Kong's image as a centre of fashion by being the first local designer to make an international impact with his designs, which are distinguished by the addition of a unique touch of the Orient. His creations have been show in Paris, London, and Boston, under the auspices of the Hong Kong Trade Development Council.

Eddie Lau achieved recognition by dint of hard work. He persevered in his attempts to gain admission to study at the St Martin's School of Art in London, without the necessary entry requirements, and after two years of initial struggle gradually built a reputation among buyers which broke their perconceived concepts of Hong Kong as a purely manufacturing centre.

However, Mr Lau is not about to rest on his laurels. His goal is to market the image of Hong Kong fashion designers to Europe, and he believes that through the Hong Kong Fashion Designers Association, to which he willingly devotes his energies, he can help many other local designers. Mr Lau has also participated frequently in the charity shows organised by the Tung Wah Group and the Po Leung Kuk.

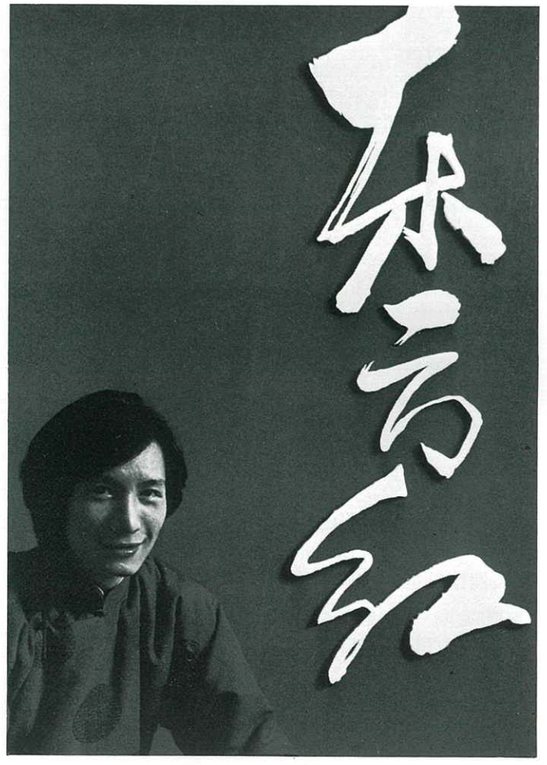

He feels that the ideal aim for designers lies not so much in the making of profit, but rather in the ability of earning a living while achieving artistic fulfilment.

劉君勤奮異常，努力不懈，卒獲賞識，達致成功，初蔽倫敦聖馬丁藝術學院門牆，以資歷不符而未果，惟渠矢志不諭，再接再厲，卒償所願，嗣經兩年之艱苦奮鬪，漸受買家重視，進而建立聲譽。國際人士至此，始知香港於工業製造之外，尚有時裝設計也。

劉君決不以此自滿，渠切志建立香港時裝設計之形象，務令歐洲人士刮目相看而後已。渠對香港時裝設計師聯會會務之推進，不遺餘力，深信該會乃培育設計人才之橋樑。此外，劉君對東華三院及保良局亦鼎力支持，參與其慈善活動。

設計師不必孜孜求利，應在謀生以外，兼求藝術造詣，此乃劉君爲設計家刻劃之崇高理想也。

Fashion Festival

Hongkong's own Ready-To-Wear Fashion Festival is now an annual affair that attracts international attention – and for good reason. The selling point of locally made garments used to be the low price tag, but over the years both the workmanship and quality of clothes made in Hong Kong have improved tremendously. At the same time, Hong Kong has seen the emergence in recent years of a crop of talented young designers whose Haute Couture creations can rival almost anything produced by the better fashion houses in Europe and America. Their work, which was

The buyers' response to the festival this year was enthusiastic, and this is a trend that Hong Kong manufacturers would certainly do their best to maintain. Many buyers commented on the "high quality" of the styling and finishing of the garments shown, and said that they believed that such clothes were "very marketable" in Europe and America. Mr Robert Midgley, the director and chairman of Harrod's of London, said he was very "inpressed" by the show in general and particularly by the knitwear section. "The knitwear has everything I would look for in texture and styling", he said. Herr

LEUNG Chi Bun, Eric

Mr Leung is a Superintendent of Police with the Royal Hong Kong Police Force Narcotics Bureau. He has been with the Bureau for nine years and during that time has unstintingly devoted his energies to both the detection and the prevention of drug abuse. He has played a major role in all the important narcotics conspiracy cases handled by the Bureau and is credited with many notable successes, receiving The Governor's Commendation in 1976, the Commissioner of Police's Commendation in 1977, and his Commanding Officer's Commendation in 1982.

Mr Leung pioneered a new concept of placing Narcotics Bureau officers in the major police regions as liaison officers in 1978, thereby ensuring effective communication and coordination between branches of the police force at both territory-wide and street levels. His initiative and energetic approach to the task laid the foundations for a venture which has become an unqualified success. Mr Leung is well aware that law enforcement alone cannot effectively solve drug problems, and he takes opportunities to speak to students at all levels to make them aware of the evils of drug abuse. He is also involved in international co-operation with neighbouring countries' anti-narcotics bureaus.

Mr Leung joined the Royal Hong Kong Police Force in 1967. Although he has practiced police work in many fields, including a period as court prosecutor, his basic philosophy which has earned him the respect of colleagues here and abroad is summed up by his statement: "If you bring a murderer to justice you bring immediate improvement to a few lives, mainly satisfaction to those close to the victims. But if you break a drug syndicate you can improve the lives of thousands of people."

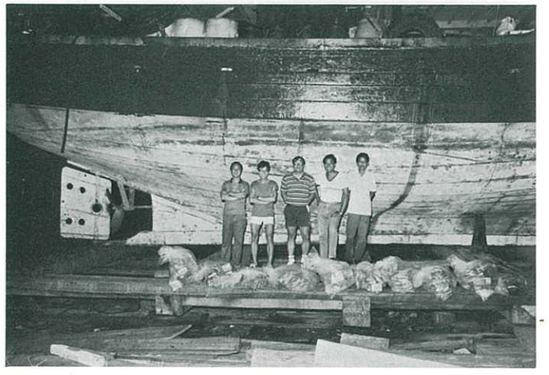

梁先生爲皇家香港警務處毒品調查科警司, 任職迄今, 已歷九載, 期間, 對於毒案之偵緝與防止, 莫不悉力以赴, 克盡厥職該科經辦之各大毒案, 殆非倚重梁警司不可。渠之破案率高, 功業豐碩, 故於一九七六年獲督憲嘉獎, 一九七七年獲警務處長嘉獎, 一九八二年獲其指揮官嘉獎。

毒品調查科自一九七八年起，派遣該科人員分駐全港各大警區, 令全港各地以至街道巷里, 消息傳遞, 迅捷奏效, 人員調配得宜, 此一創舉, 實梁警司之傑作也渠富進取, 辦案努力, 部署週密, 克奏膚功、渠深知僅憑法律, 難除毒患, 故嘗善用機會, 與學校各級學生, 宣講吸毒之害, 俾取防患未然之效, 渠與鄰國毒品調查部門, 亦能合作無間。

梁先生於一九六七年加入皇家香港警務處, 十餘年來, 歷任各項警務工作, 包括法庭主控在內, 惟在毒品調查科, 任期最爲悠長, 功績亦最彪炳。其所以深獲本港以外海外同僚之器重者, 實因其基本態度, 有以致之。渠曰: 「如將一名兇犯繩之於法, 受害人之親屬自然額手稱慶, 因此得益者, 數人而已若能搗破販毒集團, 則蒙其利者, 何啻萬千。」

Police smash huge heroin ring

Round-the-clock swoops net 12

By RENU DARYANANI

About 250 police officers yesterday raided 39 premises and arrested 12 suspects, led by the alleged mastermind of a drug ring they had been hunting for several years.

The raiders believe they have smashed one of the biggest drug manufacturing and distribution rings in Kowloon.

They uncovered two heroin refineries and seized about $3 million worth of heroin base and converted heroin.

Manufacturing paraphernalia and various chemicals, including seven kilos of caffeine, 75 grams of strychnine, 125 grams of quinine and one litre of hydrochloric acid were also seized.

A total of 150 Narcotics Bureau officers and 100 policemen from Kowloon and New Territories district squads took part in the operations.

Details of the operation were given in a press conference by Narcotics Bureau officers at police headquarters in May House yesterday.

The nine men and three women arrested were last night detained for further inquiries.

No charges have been laid yet.

The $3 million drugs seized during the 22-hour operation which ended at 9.30 pm comprised 9.4 kilos of No 3 heroin and two kilos of heroin base.

The Narcotics Bureau had been trying to break the year-old ring since October, the man in charge of the operation, Chief Inspector Eric Leung, said yesterday.

Although the ring has been operating for one year, several suspects involved in it have been in the "business" for a long time, he said.

The operation began at 11.30 on Sunday night when NB officers raided a flat in Amoy Gardens in Ngau Tau Kok Road.

There they found a heroin refinery and arrested three Chiu Chow men.

One of them was believed to be the mastermind of the ring, while the other two were said to be its chief chemist and his assistant.

About two kilos of heroin base and six kilos of converted heroin were seized.

It is believed the ring bought the base, originally from Thailand, from a Hongkong source, Mr Leung said.

Police suspect the ring was involved only in manufacturing and wholesale distribution, mainly in Shamshuipo and Shek Kip Mei in Kowloon, he said.

Subsequent raids in premises in Lam Cheung Street, Tai Nam Street, Taipo Road and Shek Kip Mei led to the discovery of a smaller refinery, a storeroom and another 3.4 kg of heroin.

The bureau's night operations involved 11 addresses.

In the morning, the Kowloon and NT squads were called in to assist and a further 28 addresses were visited.

Chief Inspector Nicholas Swain, who took part in the operation, said: "We believe the seizures will affect the market in Kowloon."

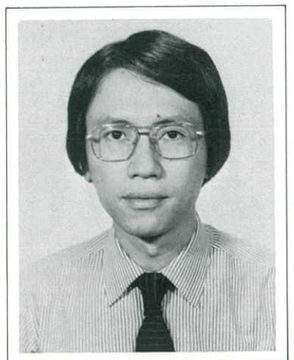

The present blackmarket price for one kilo of heroin is about $200,000.

The refinery in Ngau Tau Kok is believed to be the fourth NB officials have discovered in the last quarter of this year.

Since her initial entry into television as a Production Assistant, Mrs Siu has worked her way up to being a Controller with TVB, constantly demonstrating originality, resourcefulness, and leadership qualities to the enhancement of the communication industry at large.

During her career Mrs Siu spent a period pioneering instructional television for audiences up to tertiary level and created the first full-length local "kung-fu" drama series for prime time showing when she was with CTV. She has introduced community campaigns at TVB to enable audiences to relate to community projects and social enrichment, and has steered the overall programming of both the English and Chinese TVB channels to be in line with the social and economic developments in Hong Kong. Her more recent achievements have been the inception of enrichment programs such as "Marco Polo" and "Silk Road", which have been widely acclaimed.

Mrs Siu has also played a major role through the voluntary provision of her expertise to Hong Kong productions such as the 'Arts Festival', 'Extra-Mural Courses' in conjunction with the Chinese University, and the series 'Hong Kong, Trade Development' for the Trade Development Council. She is most interested in and aware of the role of television in relation to its effect on children and its influence on women's role in society. She wields the power she has in media with discretion, social conscience, and a deep devotion to influence the public in a positive way.

TAM Pak Sin, Roman

Roman Tam needs no introduction. He has become a household name as a successful singer and entertainer. However, his success was not easily gained. It is the result of many years of hard work, starting from the age of 15 when necessity forced him to earn his own way. He developed his natural talent through application, learning English, and how to sing, while employing the essential self-discipline required by having to support himself during the lean years. It was not until 1977 that he started his professional singing life under contract to TVB.

His early struggle and ensuing commercial success has resulted in a strong awareness of the responsibility he holds in influencing the values of the young, and he has not only given his time and services to campaigns such as the Action Committee against Narcotics, but also in founding, in 1981, a school for Chinese Musical Drama. This school provides free tuition to sixty people, thirty of whom are now continuing at an advanced level. Many students also have had the opportunity to participate in his concerts and thus gain on-stage experience.

Mr Tam has high artistic goals and is currently involved in ambitious and complicated musical enterprises to enhance Chinese Musical Drama, his recent production "Legend of the White Snake" winning acclaim locally and abroad. He is an extremely popular entertainer, and has performed at venues such as the Royal Albert Hall, the New York Lincoln Centre, and Tropicana Hotel, Atlantic City, gaining an international following and furthering his ambition "to take Hong Kong music to the world".

譚先生藝名羅文，係一成功之歌唱家及天才藝員，渠名震歌壇，家喻戶曉。羅文之成就，絕非倖致，而係多年艱苦奮鬥之成果：彼自幼父母早喪，環境困難，年僅十五，即告輟學，開始謀生，不但能自立，且能自律，進而憑其勤奮，學習英語、歌唱，逐漸發揮其天才，直至一九七七，始與電視廣播有限公司簽約，進軍職業歌壇。

渠因早歲奮鬥，壯年有成，此種經驗，令渠深感責任綦重，影響青少年既深且鉅，乃決心貢獻其時間精力，服務社會，參與反毒行動委員會等，復於一九八一年創辦中國音樂戲劇學院，該院初時招收學員六十人，免費修讀，至今仍有半數，繼續深造。學員且獲機緣，參與演唱會，吸取上台經驗，由是得益者，頗不乏人。

譚先生極富藝術理想，現正大力擘劃樂壇盛事，促進中國音樂戲劇，其近作「白蛇傳」即在本港及海外贏得好評如潮，且其歌藝超卓，極受各界歡迎，曾遠赴海外演唱，歌聲響徹倫敦皇家亞伯特紀念堂，紐約林肯中心，及大西洋城特樂比加酒店等。故渠不僅爲本港歌壇奇才，慕之者多，且海外歌迷，亦比比皆是，以遂其「香港樂曲揚名世界」之壯志。

TAM Yiu Cho

Mr Tam became an apprentice to the jewellery craft at an early age, and from a humble beginning he has now risen to become a very talented jewellery designer. He has received a number of awards since 1975, including the South East Asia Design Competition (1983), The Governor's Award for Design (1982), and The South China Morning Post Award for Design Originality (1982). He has recently been advised that he is the recipient of an award in the South Asian Design Competition, sponsored by the Hong Kong Diamond Import Association.

Mr Tam is an exponent of the belief that nowadays, jewellery is a personal expression of the wearer's personality, rather than a status symbol to display wealth. His philosophy is in tune with that of his current employer, who provides an environment of balanced entrepreneurial requirements with advancement of artistic merit of designs. Along similar lines, Mr Tam plans to devote more of his time to teaching young people the art of design. Toward this end he has enrolled in a course at the Polytechnic in order to ensure he can impart his knowledge successfully. He also intends gaining further international recognition via design competitions.

Mr Tam draws his inspiration from a variety of sources in Hong Kong. He looks to the future, fully aware that "five years ago our local reputation was primarily that of being 'copyists'. Now, we are recognised as creative." A lot of that recognition is due to Mr Tam, and in the years to come other young aspiring designers will benefit from his example and tutelage and continue the process.

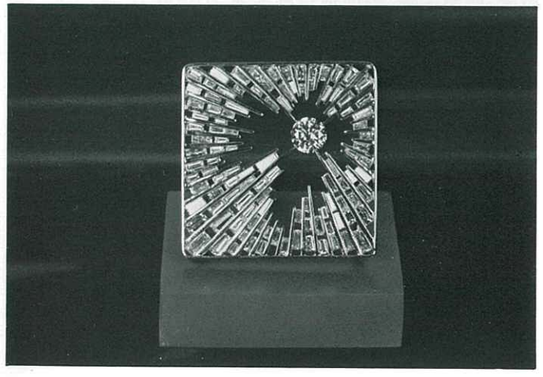

譚先生出身寒微,幼從珠寶業習藝,惟時至今日,已蔚爲才華璀璨之珠寶設計大師矣。渠自一九七五年以來屢獲褒獎,包括一九八三年東南亞設計比賽獎,一九八二年總督頒贈設計獎,一九八二年南華早報設計創新獎,及若干其他獎品。最近香港鑽寶入口商會主辦一項南亞珠寶設計比賽,渠再度獲獎。

珠寶飾物貴能表達戴者之品格,並非財富身份之表徵,表徵,此乃譚君之卓見、渠之信念,與其僱主,適相吻合,故能在有利之環境中展抒藝術才華、渠復切志培育後輩,乃入理工學院攻讀專課,期獲傳授學藝之技巧,以收事半功倍之效,且決心百尺竿頭,更進一步,參與國際設計比賽,以揚名海外。

譚君自多方滙集靈感,展望未來,滿懷信心,認爲「五年前,本港僅能東施效顰,時至今日,已能獨創新格,睥睨世界矣。」香港珠寶設計能獲世界公認者,譚君之功,居泰半焉。渠之成就,足爲後繼者效法;渠之榜樣,亦堪砥礪後學,殆毋庸疑。

HONG KONG JAYCEES HISTORY

The Jaycee Movement reached Hong Kong in 1949, when a Philippine Jaycee John Ng who was the Special Liasion Officer of the JCI 5th Congress and was charged with the mission of converting Hong Kong to Jayceeism arrived in November. Through the introduction of his cousin, Mr. Alex Ng, a Jaycee Senator still, Mr. John Ng was presented to Rev. E. Bourke, former director of Wah Yan College, Hong Kong. A meeting was then arranged for him to meet a group of young business-men. During the meeting, Mr. John Ng's explanation of the aim and purpose of the Jaycee movement succeeded in firing the imagination of his audience. Eight days later, sponsor group of the Hong Kong Junior Chamber of Commerce was formed and Mr. Paul Lim was elected as convenor of the organizing committee. Mr. Austin Coates from Hong Kong Government, then an Assistant Colonial Secretary of Hong Kong, was assigned to serve as Advisor to the Organizing Committee.

The tempo of laying the foundation of the Chamber was further stepped up when in Ramon V. Del Rosario, the JCI Vice-President for Asia, offered to recommend prompt recognition of the Hong Kong's Jaycee membership status. He also invited the Organizing Committee to send observers to Manila to attend the JCI 5th Congress. On 21st March, 1950, a sponsors meeting was called to receive the report of the return observers from Manila. The account of their vivid experience gave Hong Kong a deeper insight into Jaycee movement. INFORMATION ON TOYP SELECTION

1. Purpose
The TOYP Project seeks to give communal recognition to young people of Hong Kong, whose dedication to their profession or life undertaking has resulted in exceptional achievement, in the form of significant contributions to the progress or welfare of the community at large, and to the advancement of their respective fields of endeavour.

The TOYP Project aims at attracting public attention and giving proper recognition to the outstanding achievements of the winning nominees, thereby serving as inspirational examples and incentive to the young people of Hong Kong to forge ahead to greater heights of achievement in the spirit of selfless dedication for the further development of the community.

2. History
The history of the Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection dated far back in 1938, when it was first organised by American Jaycees and won wide-spread support from the community. Many of the recruits become eminent people later in their career.

To name some of them, the late President John Kennedy was selected at the age of 29 in 1964, when he was the Senator of Massachusetts. The former President Richard Nixon was selected in 1947 at the age of 34, when he was the Senator of California, being recognised for his outstanding contribution in Foreign Aids programmes.

3. Introduction to Hong Kong
The Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection was first introduced to Hong Kong by the Hong Kong Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1970, jointly organised by the Kowloon Jaycees and Hong Kong Jayceettes. In this project, H.E. the Governor was the Patron. On the whole, it was very well received by the public. The current selection organised by the Hong Kong Junior Chamber of Commerce is in its nineth year of operation.

4. Nomination and Selection
Nomination to the Selection is open to individuals between the age 21 to 40, who have resided in Hong Kong for 5 years or over.

The major criteria and consideration in the selection of the TOYP awardees is the candidate's personal achievement, the background in which the achievement has been made and the candidate's contribution to the community.

Any individuals, clubs, organizations, associations, institutions and companies may propose young men and women who satisfy these basic criteria of the TOYP Award.

Nomination forms can be submitted according to the candidate's particular field under one of the following four groups:

(1) Commerce & Industry
(2) Civil & Social Service
(3) Professionals
(4) Entertainment, Sports, Art & the like.

The Selection Consultants will conduct a preliminary screening of the nomination forms received, to see that the candidates have conformed with the requirements, to verify the data submitted by the candidates, and will then discuss the merits of each and every candidancy and screen the entries down to a short list.

The short-listed candidates will be interviewed by the Panel of Judges based on whose decision the successful candidates will be selected.

Awardees of the TOYP Selection are entitled to membership of the Outstanding Young Persons' Association, which currently has 50 members with Mr. Howard Young as chairman.

The Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection Organising Committee of the Hong Kong Junior Chamber of Commerce is the governing body of this Project.
