The JCI Creed

We believe:

That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life;

That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations;

That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;

That Government should be of laws rather than of men;

That earth's great treasure lies in human personality; and

That service to humanity is the best work of life.

History of the Creed

The year was 1946; the place, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, U.S.A.; the event, the United States Junior Chamber National Convention. Visitors came form Canada, Mexico, South America, Europe and the Philippine Islands. It was here that the idea of a JCI Creed was born.

Past President of the Phio Junior Chamber and National Vice President of the United States Junior Chamber C. William Brownfield realized at this convention that the organization did not have a Creed. He was inspired by the devotion of Junior Chamber members "to the purpose of serving mankind in a thousand different ways, right down at the grass roots where freedom lives or dies."

Brownfield saw Junior Chamber as "the potential for a new force in the world, one capable of changing the balance between victory or defeat for our chosen way of life in a time of crisis."

The actual writing of the Creed took place in July 1946 during a drive from Brownfield's hometown of Columbus, Phio, to his coal mine in New Lexington, a journey of about 75 minutes. He started that journey with a firm conviction in his mind to work on the Creed. It was during that trip that the following words came to mind and were put on paper:

The brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations.

Economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise.

Government should be of laws rather than of men.

Earth's great treasure lies in human personality.

Service to humanity is the best work of life.

In 1950 the first line, "We believe that faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life." was added.

Since the Creed was written, Junior Chamber members all over the world recite the Creed at local, national and internationl meetings and functions. During that time there has been much discussion of the interpretation of the Creed. The author himself said, "Every Member is free to interpret the Creed in the light of his own conscience."

Message from National President

Senator Tony Chan

While the holidays season is approaching, the year is coming to its end. For the current board, the Christmas bells that ring may sound like the bell for class to be dismissed, and that indeed deserve some celebration. For the incoming board, the pace of preparation would be catching up very quickly and a year of contribution would soon be underway.

At inception this year, we have chosen the slogan "Live by the creed". That is because we understand that through servicing our members we may live up to tenet "that service to humanity is the best work of life". We have hoped that our service have helped to make a better Junior Chamber whilst at the same time, we were made better persons by the various opportunities and by the good influence from our talented fellow officers.

I was so glad of the work concluded at the National Convention. However, as our commitment didn't stop there, I would like to highlight on the following projects:

(i) Our landmark project - the TOYP Selection was completed for its 30th time. Awards were presented to the Ten Outstanding Young Persons for 2002 on Nov 7. The banquet was filled with joy and thankfulness with two awardees who sang their numbers for us.

(ii) Also in Nov., we have delivered 8 out of the 10 training sessions which we have committed for the Youth Work Experience & Training Program (YWET) of the Labour Dept. More sessions would be due for delivery in Dec. As a quick recap, we were committed to provide the necessary vehicles to promote and strengthen the public image of the Junior Chamber. Our support to YWET is a clear demonstration for our determination.

In fact , Mr Mathew Cheung JP, Permanent Secretary for Economic Development and Labour and Mrs Pamela Tan JP, Commissioner for Labour have attended and observed on 12 Nov. At the time, Mr Mathew Cheung presented us a Certificate of Appreciation.

(iii) We were in Macau for the Young Entrepreneurs Summit held on Nov 9 and 10. There were more than 10 delegates and our Michael Ngai, past president of TPSJC was a speaker to share his view on the current opportunities in business acquisition in China.

(iv) Regarding the Las Vegas Congress, 37 of us were there to enjoy a colourful congress in casino city. Meanwhile, we shall be taking off to Beijing on Dec 14 for our annual visit to the All China Youth Federation. This year we shall be visiting Dalian as well. For your info, Dalian's weather could be quite cold this time of year as I was there just a week ago to deliver a training session.

(v) We have also made collaboration with the following organizations: City University of Hong Kong (Student Learning Project for the Division of Social Studies as well as Postgraduate Research Expo 2002), The Hong Kong Council of Social Service (The Caring Company Award), The Outstanding Young Persons Association (2002 Future Leaders Summit), The Hong Kong Polytechnic University (Preferred Graduate Development Program and also Macau University for a series of training sessions.

Yes, it was indeed incredible to deliver that big batch of works in just a few months, and that's what we learn at the Junior Chamber — making what seems impossible possible. I would like to salute to all officers and organizing committees for their unfailing support.

As a concluding message, I strongly encourage members to commit to serve, and for our dear officers, continue to serve the board. I wish to stress the special importance of continuity - that when officers stay for another term of office, such ideas or projects which would continue to the next year could be carried on effectively.

Fellow members, take time, take opportunity, and get ready to fly. "Enjoy JC, enjoy life" — that is the slogan of the 2003 board. Live up to it.

Tony Chan
National President

The First Ever Guinness World Records Created by Hong Kong Junior Chamber

– The world's largest mosaic made of paper flowers measures 2,496 square feet (231.8 sq m)

On October 28, 2001, the 2001 Outstanding Young Persons together with hundreds of HKJC members, disabled persons, students and volunteers had participated in creating a giant paper sculpture made up of over 73,000 pieces of paper flowers at the Community Service Day "Hand in Hand for Tomorrow"『傑青商青 手創前路』of Ten Outstanding Young Persons Selection 2001. All the paper flowers were hand-made by disabled persons, students and volunteers.

Through the challenge of creating the Guinness World Records, te organizing committee hoped to promote the public concern on the Hong Kong disabled people and their employment opportunities as well as to raise fund for the first self-financed floral workshop of the Hong Kong Federation of Handicapped Youth, which can provide more working opportunities for physically handicapped people. All the participants were so enthusiastic that the floral sculpture was completed within three hours. It was a memorable experience for all of them.

JC Michael Ngai (TPSJC) and Patrick Ng (IJC) was on the panel at the "Young Entrepreneurs summit" held in Macau on Nov 10

The "Young Entrepreneurs Summit" was well attended by delegates from all China Youth Federation, Macau JC, Taiwan JC and HKJC.

On August 24, 2002, we visited Kwun Tong Kwong Yum Home of Aged. More than 20 EKJC members participated in the event. We did the musical performance, health exercise, magic show and group singing. Around 200 elderlies enjoyed in the performance and the gathering time. On the other hand, all the participates felt it was a meaningful project. They were pleased about contributing their time to service the elderlies. We realize and believe that serve to humanity is the best work of life.

City Junior Chamber

By recognition of successful entrepreneurs, the project "Innovative Entrepreneurs of the Year 2002" encouraged youngsters to develop their own business in HK. Many awardees were invited for in-depth interviews by mass media. Through a series of speeches, awardees shared their successful stories and valuable experience with the public and university students. Business visit in Mainland China also provided a golden opportunity for business exchange.

"Cheering Happy Children, Creating Future Fortune" is aimed at arousing the public awareness of primary school children in respect of the development of children's positive value to the future, independence, leadership, problem-solving ability and team spirit. A total of 100 children were first selected from around 800 primary schools to participate in the training camp. And 8 selected children, called Junior Ambassadors, will then be trained on Japanese, protocol and performance before going to Japan to attend the 14th Asian Pacific Children Convention hosted by Fukuoka Junior Chamber.

"Active Green Old Aged" is a project in community development area launched by CJC in 2002. Through various events in this project, we hope to arouse the awareness of public on the issue of elderly; to explore the expectations and needs of the elderly; to pursue the youth for taking care and honoring the elderly; and to promote the harmony of the society. We also intended to arouse the interest of the elderly to take part in the society which may includes being volunteers, joining the elderly centres or forming interest groups. We hope that the elders will have active and meaningful lives.
