I have the greatest pleasure to send this message of greetings to the East Kowloon Jaycees on the occasion of their 8th Anniversary and Christmas Eve Ball.

After a year of hard work, I believe it is time for you to sit back, relax, and take stock of your achievements during the past twelve months. May I urge you to continue to build on your past success, and many happy returns in the future.

Message from National President
Hong Kong Jaycees

My heartiest congratulations to the East Kowloon Jaycees on the occasion of your 8th Anniversary.

The East Kowloon Jaycees is a group of young people who have dedicated themselves to serve the community, and at the same time to train themselves as useful citizens and future leaders.

Under the capable leadership of President Yung and his Board of Directors, members of the East Kowloon Jaycees have no doubt impressed us of their keeness in furthering the objectives of the Jaycee movement in Hong Kong, especially with their successful bidding for the hosting right of the National Convention next year.

Congratulations to the East Kowloon Jaycees for your outstanding performance, and look forward to another successful Convention in 1988.

Nora Cheng
National President

Message from
National Vice President Assigned
Hong Kong Jaycees

The progress of the East Kowloon Jaycees is amazing. Training-up new members and up-bringing new blood are the major achievements of the chapter this year. Apart from training, they had successfully carried out a community project called "I Can Be Great" which had effectively conveyed to the youth in Hong Kong that hard work and endeavour are theybasic ingredients for future success.

This year, with the capable leadership of President Yung Kin Yee and his fellow board members, the chapter had been brought to a state which they are strong enough to take up further breakthroughs. Their success in bidding the hosting right of the 1988 National Convention is the first example of their up-coming challenges.

Of course, without good foundation, the chapter wouldn't have had such outstanding achievements today. Since their establishment, the East Kowloon Jaycees have spared no efforts in promoting Jayceeism and building up the ground work of the East Kowloon Jaycees.

Their 8th Anniversary and Christmas ball is the great opportunity for the East Kowloon Jaycees who had contributed in one way or another, to harvest their good work in bringing the chapter's success today.

Taking this opportunity, I sincerely wish the East Kowloon Jaycees all the best and every success for the years to come.

Wallance Yuen
National Vice President Assigned

Message from President

East Kowloon Jaycees is the 12th local Chapter of the Hong Kong Junior Chamber of Commerce established in 1980. Over the past eight years, we have been paying our attention to the development of our fellow members and at the same time providing them the opportunities to serve the community. The success of the many projects over the past few years have proved that we are a group of energetic and enthusiastic young people who are willing to contribute their efforts for the betterment of mankind.

This year we have organized a community project called "I Can Be Great". The purpose of the project is to introduce to the youth the true meaning of success and to show them that anyone can achieve his own target, belief or dreams provided they are within reachable limits and also to tell the fact that limits are extendable from time to time. This really matches with the objectives of our organisation to contribute to the advancement of the global community by providing the opportunity for young people to develop their individual character, personality, leadership skills, social responsibility and fellowship necessary to create positive change.

One of the Leadership Training Programmes we have organised this year is a joint project with the Hong Kong Polytechnic on two Extension Courses namely "Psychology in Leadership Development" and "Psychology and Work". This is the first time we organise leadership training programmes with an academic institute.

We have also made our efforts to widen the exposure of our members this year. This includes the involvement of members to attend international activities, encouragement of more members to attend JCI Conference and Congress, initiation to develop our first Sister-hood Chapter with an overseas Jaycees and bidding for the hosting right of the 1988 National Convention. All these proved that our Chapter has moved to a stage of a well balanced development.

Yung Kin Yee
President

'I CAN BE GREAT'—'成功在我手'

Speakers of the Training Camp:

It gives me great pleasure to be invited as a guest speaker for the Training Camp organized at the Chinese University of Hong Kong on the theme "I can be Great". Participants in the Training Camp were especially responsive and showed remarkable interest to the talk. We pointed out that the definition of success differs from one point of view to another, but we should avoid the misleading concepts of material success and overnight fame as portrayed by the mass media. We discussed the ways in which we should try and understand our personality and abilities, develop our potentials and improve our inter-personal relationships. We suggested how to derive a long term goal based on our own abilities and potentials, how to attain our goal by defining shorter term objectives with measurable outcomes, and how to review our progress with an open and receptive mind.

There is little doubt that the East Kowloon Jaycees is attaining its long term goal. The Training Camp and all your projects this year are some of your shorter term objectives with definitely successful outcomes. Mayp I take this opportunity to express my heartiest congratulations to the East Kowloon Jaycees for your Eighth Anniversary and wish you continued achievements in the future.
